

"Old Oaken Bucket" in a Colorful Panel

Pattern 1067

So dear to our hearts—the tune, "Old Oaken Bucket," and now, a wall panel in its memory, which every one of us will want to embroider at once. Such a home-like scene, this, which is planned for quick embroidery, with single and running stitch used mainly, and only a smattering of French knots. No frame is needed—just a lining.

Pattern 1067 comes to you with a transfer pattern of a picture 15 by 20 inches; a color chart and key; material requirements; illustrations of all stitches needed.

Send 15 cents in stamps or coins (coins preferred) for this pattern to The Sewing Circle Needlecraft Dept., 82 Eighth Ave., New York, N. Y.

Write plainly pattern number, your name and address.

Into the Stratosphere

Captain Stevens, who made the record flight of 72,395 feet into the stratosphere in the balloon Explorer II last year, believes with slight changes in apparatus carried and using hydrogen as a lifting gas the same balloon and gondola could ascend to 78,000 feet. He also believes that 95,000 feet could be reached with a larger balloon with the envelope made of rubberized silk instead of rubberized cotton.

Yes, a Queer World Supply and Demand If All Worked Hard The Biggest Brain

How Queer is our world! Fascists, led by Sir Oswald Mosley of the English Blackshirts, who think they ought to change the British government, learned from a mob that fascism does not suit England—yet. The Blackshirts were driven home.

Arthur Brisbane

Fascists and the crowd that does not want fascism, hundreds were hurt.

England is becoming modernized. One of her race track gambling-gangsters, murdered "American fashion" in the course of gangster business, was honored with a funeral that would make Chicago or New York stare.

Mussolini does not believe that old "supply and demand" is necessarily omnipotent. While cutting four per cent from the value of Italian money, he forbids any increase in prices, any rent increase for two years. That experiment will be watched with interest. The word "money," most important in the world to many, has less real meaning than any other word in the dictionary, nobody knowing anything about it.

A new law in Paraguay compels every able-bodied man to work, whether he wants to or not. Here men that want jobs can't get them. There men can get jobs, but don't want them.

The general idea is good, but if all able-bodied men had been compelled to work always the human race would still be far back in the dark ages. One of the greatest Greeks said truly that bodily slavery was necessary, because it gave leisure to a few, leisure made thought possible and thought created progress.

If all men had worked hard, by compulsion, there would have been no deliberate thinking. Slavery would be necessary now for the world's progress had not machines taken the place of slaves.

Scientists of the Smithsonian Institution announce discovery by Dr. Hrdlicka in the Aleutian islands, off the coast of Alaska, of a skull that once held the biggest brain on record, excepting that of the Russian novelist Turgenieff, who had a brain cavity of 2,030 cubic centimeters. The biggest American brain belonged to Daniel Webster, 2,000 cubic centimeters.

But brain size and weight are not everything. Beethoven, with a 1,750 cubic centimeter skull, will outlive in importance Webster, the French naturalist Cuvier, and other "big brains."

Adaptation to usefulness is the important thing. It is said that the eye of the eagle is twice as heavy as the eagle's brain.

Wine bottled in Germany hereafter will have, instead of a cork, a plug of German wood.

To help make Germany independent of the outside world, the use of cork, that does not grow in Germany, is forbidden. This will save 10,000,000 marks a year, spent abroad for cork.

German wood, according to authorities, is cheaper, better, resists breakage, acid, alkali, and eliminates cork taste.

One question is, will the wooden cork swell up at the lower end sufficiently to overcome the pressure of gas in a champagne bottle?

At Jonesville, Va., Rev. T. Anderson, in a demonstration of faith, allowed poisonous serpents to bite him three times, assuring his congregation that they could not harm him. A copperhead moccasin snake bit him twice on the right hand; a rattlesnake once on the left.

Unfortunately Rev. Mr. Anderson, member of the Holiness persuasion, died soon afterward.

We go up and down quickly in the United States, particularly in new enterprises. William Fox, once one of the most energetic, successful of moving picture men, now a bankrupt, tells the court that in 1930 he was worth one hundred million dollars; now he has only "odds and ends," meaning only a few hundred thousands, here and there.

Our South American neighbor, Nicaragua, forbids all slot machines and other gambling devices in that country. All must be destroyed.

Nicaragua's government says such machines teach children to gamble, and their owners are parasites of the worst kind, making a profit of 68 cents on every dollar.

STAR DUST Movie Radio

By VIRGINIA VALE

CAROLE LOMBARD is a happy girl these days. When Alice Marble defeated Helen Jacobs at Forest Hills, N. Y., and became our national tennis champion, everybody wanted the racket with which she won. She was deluged with telegrams asking for it.

But Carole's telegram arrived first, and Carole is an old friend—so she got the racket. And as all Hollywood is tennis-mad, (as well as polo-mad and football-mad) that was something to cheer about.

Incidentally Alice Marble, who is very pretty, was asked if she'd like to go into pictures. She said she wouldn't.

Well, Joan Blondell and Dick Powell finally got married; had the ceremony performed on the ship on which they were sailing through the Panama canal and on to New York for a very gay honeymoon. They were lucky to have three whole weeks between pictures; as it was, Dick had to plan for a broadcast the minute they landed in New York.

Joan Blondell

Joan and Dick are among the most popular stars of Hollywood.

That first broadcast of Major Boves' for his new sponsors was very much a society affair, with men in formal evening attire and women in low-cut gowns crowding in to hear and see it, and policemen holding back the uninvited.

"Hollywood Boulevard" is a picture that all you old-timers certainly ought to see. John Halliday, Betty Compson, Esther Ralston, Mae Marsh, Charles Ray, Francis X. Bushman—they're all in it, and so are others who made movie history in the silent days.

The picture is interesting, too, because of the very good plot, involving pretty Marsha Hunt, who looks very much like the Gish girls in their early days.

If you have listened to the "Myrt and Marge" programs on the air you've heard a chap named Vinton Haworth, who's about to burst into fame and glory on the motion picture screen.

Some booking agents heard him on the air and got him a screen test. Then, as frequently happens, nothing happened for months. Finally Cliff Reid, who is producing "The Plough and the Stars" for RKO saw the test. He was casting "Without Orders," an aviation story, and took a terrific chance by casting Haworth as the second male lead.

Bob Armstrong was playing the first lead; the girl was Sally Eilers. And—Mr. Haworth stole the picture!

Mary Carlisle has come along fast since she was just one more of the pretty, blonde girls of whom Hollywood was so full two years ago. They had pretty figures, they were cute—but it was hard, sometimes, to tell them apart.

But see Mary in "Lady, Be Careful" with Lew Ayres, Buster Crabbe, and some other awfully good young actors, and you'll realize that she has developed into a fine young leading woman. It's a riotously funny picture, made from the successful play, "Sailor Beware."

Leslie Howard has made no secret of the fact that he didn't want to go on making pictures in Hollywood. About to do "Hamlet" on the stage in New York, at last, he has also let it be announced that he is one of the organizers of a new motion picture company, called Associated Artists. Dudley Murphy, who has had some experience as a director in Hollywood, and Hugh Walpole, the novelist, are associated with him in the company, which has been formed in London.

ODDS AND ENDS . . . Hollywood is still shocked by Irving Thalberg's death . . . George Brent is planning now to go to London for the coronation next spring . . . There's a dearth of young leading men in Hollywood . . . "Give Me Your Heart," Kay Francis' newest picture, is one of her best, and once again she proves her ability to wear lovely clothes better than most of the girls in Hollywood do . . . Ruby Keeler and Al Jolson celebrated their eighth wedding anniversary the other day . . . Paramount pays George Raft as much money as Metro pays Clark Gable . . . Frank Morgan's mother, one of the country's most successful business women, died recently at the age of eighty-four . . . "Sing, Baby, Sing" is breaking records and making a reputation as one of the year's funniest pictures.

A Flattering Matron Frock for Shopping

This frock is the eighth wonder of the world. Just imagine only four major pieces to cut and sew and you've completed a frock that renders a becoming, chic, and flattering appearance to a size 34 or 46.

It has clever short sleeves, that can be supplanted by long ones, scalloped blouse opening and the kind of collar that echoes the admiring "ahs" of your neighbors. The dress is dart fitted at the waist and shoulders for ease and a slimming effect, while a self-fabric belt adds its contribution.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1841-B is available for sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires four and one-eighth yards with long sleeves; and three and three-fourths yards of 39 inch material with short sleeves. Price of pattern, 15 cents.
