Mr. McCormick, accompanied by Mrs. McCormick, attended a meeting of the National Undertakers' Association, in Boston, Mass., and from there went to a New York suburban town to visit Mrs. Miriam Butler, a niece of Mrs. McCormick, where Mr. Meyer was met. From there they motored to Tyrone in Mr. Meyer's car, and later to Centre Hall.

FOR STATE TREASURER
F. CLAIR ROSS

F. Clair Ross, Democratic candidate for the office of State Treasurer, has been in the forefront of the Earle Administration's battle for labor and social security legislation. As Deputy Attorney General, Mr. Ross helped draft and assisted in the legislative fight for enactment of the bills designed to bring a New Deal for labor to Pennsylvania. Most of the bills passed the House in the 1935 session, but were killed by the reactionary Republican Senate. Only one, the bill abolishing industrial police, was passed by both houses and signed by Governor George H. Earle.

Child labor, minimum wage, forty-hour week, workmen's compensation revision, occupational diseases, and State N. R. A. and recovery legislation was scuttled by the Republicans in the Senate.

Mr. Ross has been assisting the special committee of the Earle cabinet that has been drafting legislation to enable the workers, the aged, the blind and the mothers of the State to share fully in the benefits of the National Social Security Act passed by Congress and approved by President Roosevelt. This legislation, it is expected, will be urged for passage at the next session of the General Assembly.

Both Mr. Ross and his wife's family have been Democrats for generations. He was born on January 3, 1895, at Sandy Lake, Mercer county, and was graduated from the Sandy Lake high school in 1911, and from Grove City College in 1914. He taught school in Derry high school, Westmoreland county, from 1914 to 1917.

When the United States entered the World War, Mr. Ross enlisted and served in the Flying Division Signal Corps. He married Miss Carrie E. Bennett, of Derry, Westmoreland county, on Sept. 3, 1919. They have two daughters, 14 and 8 years old, respectively. Their present home is in Butler.

Mr. Ross joined the American Legion in 1916, the year it was formed. He was Commander of the Butler American Legion Post for two years from 1930 and 1931, and was District Commander of the American Legion of the 26th District, comprising Beaver, Butler and Lawrence counties, in 1932 and 1933. He also is past president of the Butler county Hunting and Fishing Club.

He studied law at the University of Michigan and at the Columbia Law School, Columbia University, New York, from which he was graduated in 1923. He started the practice of law in Butler in 1924. He was the Democratic candidate for District Attorney in Butler county in 1927. Attorney General Charles Margolis appointed him Deputy Attorney General on January 24, 1925.

On Sunday Miss Margaret Fogleman, of State College was entertained at the same home.

The "Light Brigade," junior members in missionary service in the Lutheran church, held a Hallowe'en party in the Sunday school room on Friday evening. The attendance numbered sixty, each of whom enthusiastically joined in the program of games, etc. At the close refreshments were served. Mrs. Vianna Durst, the superintendent of the organization, was the chief spirit in the movement.

A class of young boys and girls in the Evangelical Sunday school taught by Mrs. W. K. Hosterman, on Tuesday evening greatly enjoyed a Hallowe'en party at the home of a member, Lela Bitner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bitner. A large garage was most tastefully decorated in a manner to conform to the event and season and it was there the major part of the evening was spent. The evening's program of games, plays, music and "spook" numbers closed with serving delicious refreshments.

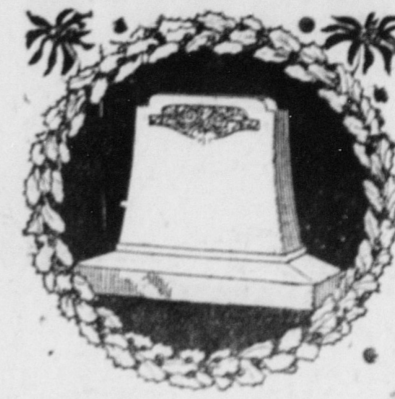

Twelve of the thirteen members of the "Gleaners," a class of girls in the Lutheran Sunday school taught by Mrs. Vianna Durst, joined in a meeting of class members at the home of their teacher on Wednesday night of last week. A very delightful evening was the result of the gathering at which most delicious refreshments were served in abundance. The young ladies comprising the class include Inez Luse, Lois Homan, Lela Peteroff, Mildred Miller, Hazel Dutrow, Miriam Homan, Darline Foust, Ruth Foust, Marie Emerick, Mildred Homan.

A motor trip through the north and northeastern counties in the state was made on Saturday, Sunday and Monday by Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mrs. Ralph Munser, the latter's young daughter, Isabel, and Eleanor Potter. Saturday night was spent with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bearick, in Tunkhannock. Mr. Bearick is selling caskets and undertaker's supplies, and is doing a nice business. He was formerly a member of the firm of Bearick brothers, who conducted an undertaking business in Centre Hall about 25 years ago. On Monday the party motored to Montrose and other points of interest in the east.
