BIBLES IN TEN LANGUAGES IN LIBRARY AT PENN STATE
Bibles printed in ten different languages are included in the collection of more than 225 Bibles, Testaments, Bible selections, psalters, and apocryphal books in the college library at the Pennsylvania State College.

Several Bibles in the Chippewa and Dakota languages were printed early in the past century, apparently for the use of missionaries among the Indian tribes of the Wild West. There are also Bibles in the French, German, Greek, Hebrew, Spanish, Latin, and Italian languages, many of them several centuries old.

The college library owns eighteen Bibles published before 1800. The oldest is in Latin and was printed in 1518 by Jacob Saccon.
