A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

W. F. MacMorran Appendicitis Patient.—On Sunday evening W. F. MacMorran underwent an appendectomy in the Sayre hospital, in Sayre, Bradford county. The attack came suddenly and the operation was one of emergency. Mr. MacMorran, manager of the Sheffield Farms milk plant, wife and little daughter, were off on vacation at the home of Mrs. MacMorran's parents in Towanda, and were preparing to return home on Sunday when he became ill. His condition, after coming out of the ether, late Sunday night, was regarded as favorable.

Later.—Reports received here are to the effect that Mr. MacMorran's condition is termed serious, due to the fact that when operating it was found had gall stones.

Mrs. Bright Bitner is visiting with her daughter in Philadelphia. Miss Margaret Grenoble, a student in music in Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, and Miss Twila Hagan, preparing for entry of Penn State at Tubols, were at their respective homes over the week-end. Miss Grenoble was taken back to Selinsgrove by Mr. and Mrs. Sparr Wert together with a son of the couple who is attending the University. While here Miss Grenoble and Miss Hagan, both of whom are Vocational school graduates, took a special interest in the community day activities sponsored by the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lee and young son, Donald, of State College, were guests on Sunday of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barger and daughter Bernice visited with the David Wert family in State College, on Sunday, and Saturday Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee and daughter, Miss Betty, also visited in the college town.

Miss Ida Rossman, of Centre Hall was among friends about here for a few days.

Four Generations Attend Swabb Dinner.—A delightful dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swabb, and was attended by four generations, on Sunday. Joseph Bitner represented the first generation; Mrs. Paul Swabb the second; Joseph Swabb, Mrs. Randall Meyer, and Mrs. Russell Mark the third; and Arline and "Kinkey," children of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Swabb; James, Nevin and Seth, children of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Meyer and Marion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mark, the fourth generation. Additional out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk, Centre Hall; Mrs. Ruth Burd, Millheim; Miss Delsey Morris, Doylestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gentzell, of Altoona, where Mr. Gentzell is employed in the P. R. R. shops, were week-end visitors in Spring Mills and called on the C. B. Stover family.

Mrs. Pearl Decker, who is engaged in dairying in a small way, remodelled the barn where six milk cows are kept to conform to regulations laid down by the milk board.

Roland McCool and family, of Altoona, were guests of the former's mother, Mrs. D. M. McCool, over the week-end.

Miss Freda McCool, engaged at the Laurelton State Village, was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McCool, on Sunday.

Centre Temple Hallows'en Party.—The members of Centre Temple No. 169, L. G. E., had a roasting Hallows'en party on Monday night in their hall in the Cornman furniture store building. The attendance numbered more than fifty, both sexes, and with a few exceptions appeared in costume. The grand march brought the decision that Mrs. Meril Miller, of Georges Valley, wore the most original and outstanding costume. It was a hunting suit, the front and back representing retreats for small game, in which were nested squirrels, pheasants, etc. The decorations were extremely clever, but there was one decided drawback, the wearer was not permitted to sit—she couldn't, John Heckman, Jr., was the youngest in the parade, and Mrs. William Hagan was declared the best dressed, wearing a ready-made costume. The fourth recognized was Mrs. Esther Heckman, whose outfit was built to "make you laugh." Games were played and various amusements indulged in. Elaborate refreshments were served. The hall had been fittingly and gorgeously decorated.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Conley and daughter Emily Ann, of Petersburg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Condo and called on other friends about here on Sunday. Mr. Conley is supervisor of Agriculture in the Petersburg Vocational school. He was a former teacher in Gregg Twp. Vocational.

S. L. Condo will have an opening of his remodeled grocery store on Friday evening. There will be a hand-out of samples of his full line of groceries during the evening. Mr. Condo opened a grocery about eight years ago, and increased his stock until at present he carries a complete line. It is more than 20 years since he began the sale of ready-made harness of all description, but this feature has been relegated to the rear at this time.

Miles Bressler continues to be housed up from rheumatism, and, of course, is not able to take his place as a foreman in the Poe Valley CCC.

The Long general store and the G. B. Meyer general store carry conspicuous "Fairlawn Store" signs.

While in Harrisburg last week, Miss Josephine Stover was a guest of Miss Mary Homan, employed in the State treasury department, and with her and Miss Mary Kling heard two notable personages—the President and Fritz Kreisler, the violinist. Miss Homan accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Robert Homan, to her home to remain until after the election.

Templars Officiate at Burial—A large number of the order of the Ladies Temple No. 169 attended the funeral of Mrs. Michael Smith, who was a charter member of the order. Mrs. Smith was stricken with apoplexy during February, 1935, resulting in her death during last week. The solemn rites of the Temple were impressively read at the grave by Mrs. Carrie Linsdale, Noble Grand, and Mrs. Nestor Heckman, Priestess. Relatives from here who attended the funeral included Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman, Mrs. Annie Smith, Miss Bernice Smith, Mrs. Mabel Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Albright, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cal Meyer.

Miss Eliza Gilliland, of Oak Hall, on Friday was a guest of Mrs. Guy Corman. The ladies were chums while attending a business college after their public school days had closed.

A Grand Old Lady.—Mrs. Elias Rute, of Lewisburg, R. D., a native of Gregg township, proves to be one of the grand old ladies to hail from Farmers Mills, She and Mr. and Mrs. Moyer, and Miss Ruth Defenderfer, of Millfillburg and Lewisburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stover the former being a nephew. Mrs. Rute is a daughter of the late John Stover and is eighty-six years old, but is remarkably active for one of those years.

Road Construction.—The Penn Hall bridge, a concrete structure over a small stream, was dynamited last week. It was a good job of rtpplng up concrete and at the same time shattered some eighty window lights in the former Fisher farmhouse, nearby now owned by the Pittsburgh Limestone company. In addition to this a number of window lights in other homes were also broken. The bridge will be replaced with an archway built like the one near the Hosterman barn. The steam shovel is pushing its way westward and on Monday had reached the "Pine Woods."

Donald Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lee, of State College, and a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee, Spring Mills, underwent an operation for rupture in the Bethlehem hospital and was brought to his home on Saturday. The Bethlehem hospital was probably selected because of the fact that two of the youth's aunts are graduates of that institution and know the skill of the surgeons. Donald, but a year old, has apparently fully recovered from the operation.

Harry Barger succeeded Dalbert Barger as inspector on the election board in the North Precinct of Gregg township. Barger removed from the district.

The young men who had been tapping gas tanks and taking other articles including spare tires from cars and garages in this section, were finally captured and landed in the county jail. They also admitted having broken into cabins in Penn township. The four held are Frank B. Snare, 19, Osterburg, Bedford county; Theodore Lee, 22, Altoona; Walter A. Myers, 19, Tyrone; and Harry C. Parks, 20, Myers is charged with being an accessory after the fact, having attempted to dispose of some of the stolen goods.

BOALSBURG

The Civic Club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. W. Hess on Thursday evening, November 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Wagner of Bellefonte, were visitors in town Sunday.

Mrs. George Ishler, Mrs. W. H. Stover, Misses Mary Reish and Nora Miller, with Ralph Reish chauffeur drove to Lehighton on Tuesday to spend the day with Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Moyer. Mrs. Moyer who had been ill for some months, is now improving.

Harold Bradley and Miss Helen Meyer, of Medina, N. Y., were in town for a short time on Saturday enroute to the Syracuse-State game. Mrs. Jacob Meyer, who had been a guest of her son, C. C. Meyer, in Medina, for the past five weeks, accompanied them to her home.

Mrs. Mitchell Stover, of Altoona, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Charles Kuhn.

Mrs. Jennie Close, Mrs. Earl Phillips and daughter Jane were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heverly, at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smeltzer and son of Pleasant Gap, were guests of Mrs. Ella Gingrich and family on Sunday, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Gingrich.

Miss Rachel Segner returned from the Clearfield hospital on Thursday after a four weeks' illness.

Miss Margaret Dale is spending a few days in Centre Hall at the home of her sister, Mrs. George K. Rimney.

Announcement . . .

... TREMENDOUS DEMAND FOR THE NEW I. E. S. LAMPS SWAMPS MANUFACTURERS!

... BELATED SHIPMENTS JUST ARRIVING!

... SPECIAL SALE EXTENDED ONE MONTH, TO END OF NOVEMBER!

A short time ago we announced a Special Sale of I.E.S. sight-saving lamps. Beautiful new fall styles were featured—models for floor, table and end table use.

These "Better Sight" lamps scored an instant and overwhelming hit. Manufacturers were swamped with orders. In spite of working two and three shifts they were weeks behind in deliveries. In some cases orders placed in mid-August have just been filled.

In view of these conditions, we believe it is only fair that we extend our Special Sale one month—up to the end of November. Shipments of I.E.S. lamps are now arriving regularly. To make certain that you get your I.E.S. lamps before the sale ends, we urge that you visit our displays EARLY.

TO COOPERATING ORGANIZATIONS

Local organizations who have been cooperating in this activity will be glad to know that the coupon plan will be continued another month—until the end of November.

This means, too, that the I.E.S. Prize Lamps will be awarded after that date.
