Mr. and Mrs. Paul Huprich and young son, Paul Richard, are visiting relatives of Mrs. Huprich, formerly Faye Bohn, a sister of Russell Bohn in Centre Hall. They came here by motor from East Lansing, Michigan, where Mr. Huprich holds the position of manager for Armour & Co. The family home is close to the Michigan Agricultural College campus. Before returning home Mr. and Mrs. Huprich will go on to Camp Susquehannock near Montrose, to visit two sisters, Mrs. Frank McIntire and Mrs. Hoy Neff.

A State Highway patrolman, who accompanied the Centre County hospital ambulance from near Rock-few to the hospital, on Sunday afternoon is quoted as having taken the numbers of a half-dozen motor cars whose drivers failed to give the ambulance the benefit of the road laws when an ambulance is approached. The traffic officer accompanied the ambulance as it was transporting John D. Miller, a horribly mutilated. Complaints had previously been made that motorists had not been giving the ambulance road advantage, and it was the officer's desire to have first-hand evidence, and he got it.

DOLLAR DAY IN ALTOONA BOOSTER STORES, NOV. 18

As announced elsewhere in the advertising columns of this issue, Altoona Booster Stores will hold another of their Quarterly Dollar Days on next Wednesday, November 18.

It will be an opportune time for selecting Christmas gifts as many things that make useful and acceptable gifts will be included in the Dollar Day values.

Only stores connected with the Booster Association are sponsoring this November Dollar Day. You will be able to locate the Booster Stores by the Blue and Gold Dollar Day cards and posters displayed in their windows.

There will be special values in seasonal merchandise, including apparel for all members of the family, as well as in furnishings for the home. The reductions applying with equal force to merchandise at prices less than one dollar, as well as above a dollar.

Tune in to the interesting musical broadcast over Station WFBG from 2 to 2:15 o'clock on Monday and Tuesday afternoons, Nov. 16 and 17.

Dollar Day visitors will find plenty of parking space in the public parking lots in Tenth Avenue, just a half-block from the business district, where cars may be parked all day, under supervision of a caretaker, for 15c.

MOSHANNON GRANGE ENTERTAINS POMONA

More than 150 members of Centre County grange chapters were guests of the Phillipsburg McPhannon Grange at the St. Paul's Episcopal church Parish House, Phillipsburg, on Saturday, when morning and afternoon and evening sessions in charge of Grange Master L. E. Biddle were held.

Reports from 18 of the 19 Subordinate Granges and from committees were received.

An address on "Highway Safety" was given by Sergeant W. J. Graham of Phillipsburg, sergeant of the Phillipsburg and Punxsutawney substations of the State Highway Patrol. Rev. Wm. Lickfield, rector of the St. Paul's church, welcomed the grange members to the parish and challenged the organization to do something for youth to enable young people to make their leisure time valuable instead of wasteful.

After an address on "Peace" by Mrs. Ida Cross, of Johnsown, State lecturer, the meeting was closed with remarks by Mrs. J. W. Hamer, lecturer of the Clearfield County Pomona.

A delegation of Democrats from Spring Mills joined the Phillipsburg demonstrators at their victory rally on Tuesday evening. The float carried a monster G. O. P. elephant, a novel piece of work, labeled "Found in Penns Valley."
