Letting Them Know

Sandy joined a golf club, and was told by the professional that if his name was on his golfballs and they were lost they would be returned to him when found. "Good," said the Scot, "put my name on this ball." The pro did so. "Would you also put M. D. after it?" said the new member. "I'm a doctor." The pro obeyed. "There's just one more thing, can ye squeeze 'Hours 10 to 3' on as well?"—Bee Hive.

Masterful Man

They were walking along North Main street and paused in the glare of a brightly lighted jewelry store. Unlike her escort, she seemed in no hurry to continue. "Look," she said, "did you ever see such good looking engagement rings for such a low price?" He was the masterful type. Taking her arm firmly, he answered: "Uh-huh. But look over here Isn't that a swell radio for only $11.95?"

What Luck the Lady Did Not Have Quinsy

It was the evening of an interesting family event, and the master of the house, who hoped it would be a son, had been pacing the floor, anxiously awaiting the doctor. When the physician entered the room the father seized him by the arm and demanded: "Is it a boy or a girl?" "Tr-tr-tr—" gasped the doctor, who stuttered rather badly. "Triplets!" "Qu-qu-qu—" stammered the doctor. "Quadruplets! Man alive! What is it you say!" "No-n-no. Tr-tr-try to take it qu-qu-quietly. It's a girl."
