

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personalities from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

Dairymen's League Employs Advanced—Nevin Keller, employed at the local Dairymen's League milk plant, was transferred to the company's Milton plant. His successor is Kenneth Johnson, son of Miles Johnson. Both young men are single, and the change means an advance in position and salary to both.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bolger, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Calhoun, of Altoona, were guests on Sunday at the E. T. Jamison home.

Miles Johnson, station agent at Centre Hall, will butcher seven hogs today (Thursday). The hogs were bought when shoats and were skillfully fed.

Nevin Keller is driving a new Plymouth sedan, and C. B. Stover purchased a new Chevrolet pick-up truck.

Hunting Bear in Potter County—Randall Meyer, Harold Meyer, John Goodhart, and J. B. Swabb comprised a party of four who beginning of the week entered the wilds of Elk county in quest of bear. All the gentlemen are skilled hunters and crack marksmen, which leads one to believe they will return with more than a story of the good time had in the mountains.

C. P. Long, one of the elderly residents in this community, whose health has been somewhat impaired during the past few months, is being visited by three of his brothers—Harry, of Newark, Ohio; Philip, of Uniontown, this state, and Frank, of Portsmouth, Ohio—and also the latter's wife.

Mrs. William Bresler became ill recently and was obliged to give up boarding several men connected with the office force of the Hutchinson road construction crew.

Daughter Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm Snyder—On Sunday a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Snyder. The young lady tipped the scales at 8 1/2 pounds, but as yet has not been named.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman motored to Lewistown and Belleville on Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Condo and Miss Delores Condo also motored to Lewistown Monday evening.

Jasper Lingle, long a resident of Georges Valley, was laid to rest in the Georges Valley cemetery. A further notice of the death appears elsewhere, in this issue of the Reporter.

Mrs. Curtis Watts, who is in charge of the solicitation for the Reg Cord in Gregg township, has the following helpers in Spring Mills: the Misses Bernice Smith, Isabelle Musser, Betty Lee, and Jean Watts, Miss Vita Zettle is canvassing Penn Hall while Mrs. Ardell Myers is the Red Cross worker in Farmers Mills.

Merle Miller, Spring Mills, R. D. is recovering from a cut on the arm which resulted from a false movement when he removed an axe hanging on a wall.

C. B. Stover, the local tinner, is building and locating the pipe for the second air-cooled modern home. The first was that of W. W. Kerlin, Centre Hall, and the second that of C. A. Kniss, in Millburg. A vast amount of piping, all square and built to specifications, is required, and the work is all concealed.

The Al. Duck residence at the foot bridge over Penns Creek has been leased, it is reported, to a gentleman who operates a fleet of trucks.

Bob Lyons' All-Star Orchestra Engaged for Alumni Dance—The Gregg Township Vocational school Alumni Association dance, scheduled for Friday night, will have for a musical organization the Bob Lyons All-Star Orchestra. A large attendance is anticipated. The funds will be applied to the payment of a piano for the school's new auditorium. The instrument is already on the floor. Whether you dance or not, you will be able to spend a pleasant evening if you patronize the alumni association project the night after Thanksgiving.

Word has been received from W. P. MacMoran that he expects to be at his home here about the first of December, although he does not expect to begin work at that time. He proved an ideal hospital patient, and at this time is able to take short walks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hosterman, of Hamilton, Ohio, are guests of the parents of the former, Mr. and Mrs. John Hosterman.

Progress in Road Construction—Progress continues on the road construction on Route 45, east of Spring Mills. The steam shovel has reached a point east of the Penock farm where it shears off to the south to eliminate several curves, intersecting with the original road at the Prof. W. P. Hosterman barn. The ninety-foot overall archway near the barn is completed, and the workmen have been transferred to the site of a smaller archway being built at Penn Hall.

On Monday road base construction began and will be pushed as rapidly as possible. The old road west of the Hosterman barn will not be disturbed this fall, but it is the intention of the contractor to have the road finished up to that point before winter sets in.

The blast set off at the Allison stone quarry was entirely successful. Many tons of lime stone were moved. The stone will be used for road ballast.

Mr. and Mrs. John Treaster and daughter, Miss Marion, of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lantz, of Millburg; Mrs. Beaver and Mrs. J. Lantz, on Sunday, visited at the home of Mrs. Nellie Gramley.

In a fall at Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, where she is a student, Miss Margaret Greenoble injured one of her lower limbs. While a student in Gregg Vocational, in a backetball game, the young lady first sprained the member, which since has given her more or less concern. George Hickernell, of Millburg, and Luther Fesse, of Hartleton, while in Spring Mills during the past week called on their old friend, G. C. King.

Mrs. Birdie Krape is back to her home again after having been at the Swabb home for some months.

The Past Templars, L. G. E., banquet at Pleasant Gap on Thursday, was attended by more than eighty persons. There were present from this section Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman, Mrs. Annie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stover, Miss Ruth Ripka, Miss Josephina Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Heckman, Miss Rosella Heckman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Decker.

Firestone

GROUND GRIP TIRES

Pull you through

WHEN rain and snow make unimproved roads almost impassable, you need the extra traction of Firestone Ground Grip Tires. The deep, rugged, non-skid tread with heavy rubber lugs digs in and pulls you through. The tread is self-cleaning and rides smoothly on pavement without bumping.

If you drive over unimproved roads, equip the rear wheels of your car or truck with a pair of these super-traction tires. You will save the inconvenience and cost of chains.

Come in today and see the greatest traction tire ever built.
