Three I. E. S. Lamps As Prizes in Christmas Lighting Contest of the following:

The Reporter's announcement of the Christmas Lighting Contest, last week, has received many favorable comments .It is the concenses of opinion that Christmas cheer and well wishes can be expressed in no better way than by beautiful outdoor lighting and decorating. In this spirit the Reporter desires to become a partner in the furtherance of the celebra-

It is certain that this year's task of judging the entries will be far more difficult than that of last Christmas, partly because of the fact that the low cost of decorating will undoubtedly result in many more entries in the contest. In addition. since simplicity and beauty of effect will be the factors which largely determine the winners, the decorating need not necessarily be elaborate.

It is probable that the decisions of the judges, which will be final, can be made on Wednesday evening, December 23rd.

The prizes that have been selected consist of three beautiful I. E. S lamps. These are certain to be welcome gifts, and their splendid sightsaving light-in keeping with the spirit of the lighting contest-will be keenly appreciated by the fortunate
