PREACHING MISSION

Several things should be carefully noted in regard to the Preaching Mission to be conducted by the churches of this community. This is a phase of the National Preaching Mission undertaken and carried through by the Federal Council of Churches. It is, therefore, a united effort on the part of the Protestant churches and is national in scope.

The National Mission undertook to embrace the whole gospel-the call to personal salvation, the interpretation of Christianity's responsibility for the character of the social order, and the elaboration of the intellectual framework which supports Christian faith. Twenty-five cities have been visited. Everywhere the people have turned out in large numbers, in some cities huge municipal auditoriums having been used for night and Sunday services.

The services will begin Monday January 4, at 7:30 p. m., and conclude Friday evening, January 8

The program for the week is:

Monday evening, at the Presbyterian church: "The Relation of Worship to Religious Experience."-Rev. Seth Russel. Tuesday evening, at the Reformed church: "Why Read the Bible?"-Rev. L. A. Wagner. Wednesday evening, at the Evangelical church: "The Evidence of the Holy Spirit."-Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick.

Thursday evening, at the Lutheran church: "The Christian Way of Life."-Rev. W. K. Hosterman.

Friday evening, at the Methodist church: "Christ and the Individual of Today."-Rev. D. R. Keener.
