

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

Demonstration Team at Farm Show - Franklin Bartzes, Richard Feltenberger, Dean Hiettinger and John Shook left for Harrisburg where they will put on a potato demonstration before the Potato Growers Association. The boys gave the demonstration before the high school assembly Friday morning and the two upper grade rooms at Spring Mills Friday afternoon. The demonstration was developed by the Vocational Agricultural Department of the school in conjunction with Dr. Nixon of the Penna. State College. Mr. Bitting coached the boys and will accompany them to Harrisburg.

Three dozen new lockers were received recently for use by the boys and girls in the new auditorium-gymnasium building. The lockers were the last of the order for equipment for the building. They are now being assembled and will be used in the basement locker rooms of the new building. These new lockers in addition to the old ones will make it possible for every high school pupil to be assigned a locker.

The second semester high school schedule will go into effect on Wednesday, January 27, the date for the beginning of the new semester. Report cards will be issued on Thursday afternoon, January 28.

Second Dance by Alumni, Jan. 21 - Announcement has been made of the second dance to be held by the Gregg Township Alumni Association in the new building on Thursday, January 21. Receipts will be used to make payment on the piano which the association presented to the school for use in the new building. Square and round dancing will be in order, and music will be furnished by Bob Lyons' Orchestra of Sunbury. Admission 25c per person. The association realized nearly fifty dollars from a similar dance held a month ago and hope that many persons will attend this second dance held under their auspices.

Spurgeon Condo, John Shook and Franklin Bartzes left for Harrisburg Sunday to participate as members of the All-State Vocational School Band which will play during the Farr Show. The band is under the direction of Henry Brunner of the Penna. State College. These boys were members of the band last year which made a very creditable showing at the show.

A considerable number of high school, grade and rural pupils received State project awards at the Farm Show this week. It is hoped a complete list of winners will be published next week.

At present the junior class of the Voc. school is holding practice for their class play, "Full of Youth," which will be presented early in February. The play promises to be one of the best given in recent years.

The boys' and girls' basketball teams will meet E. P. V. H. at Millheim Friday night. Will play Howard at Howard on Tuesday, Jan. 26 and Centre Hall high at Spring Mills on Thurs. Jan. 28. The latter game was moved up from the 29th due to the scheduling of the President's Ball on the 29th of Jan. All the above listed games are league affairs.

Albert Grenoble Attains His Majority - A surprise party was held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Grenoble near Spring Mills, in honor of their son Albert Grenoble's 21st birthday.

Twins, 85, Ill. - Mrs. John Geary and a twin sister, Miss Clara Crater, are quite ill, as is also Mr. Geary, all of whom live in Sunbury. Another member of the family, Edna Krape, a stenographer in the office of the Sunbury Electric Co., has likewise been indisposed during the recent past.

Austin Long is one of three merchants taking an inventory of the merchandise in the Gephart store, Rebersburg, prior to being taken over by a buyer from Millinburg.

John Zuber, a Penn State senior has been informed that he will likely be called on to do his practice teaching at Millinburg during the spring months.

Family Dinner at A. B. Lee Home - The annual dinner given by the Lee family was served by Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lee at their home at Spring Mills, Thursday evening. Guests were Daniel Daup, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Daup and son William, Mrs. Foster Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frazier and children, Miss Ida Frazier, Miss Martha Yearick, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Speaker Hartman and daughter, H. F. Erdley, Paul Weagley, Wayne Biting, Carroll Featherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman, Mrs. C. B. Stover, Miss Josephine Stover and Mrs. G. B. Meyer motored to Bellefonte Monday afternoon where they enjoyed seeing the Gold Diggers of 1937, at the Plaza Theatre.

Carroll Featherman, a Penn State senior, is doing practice teaching in Gregg Twp. Voc. school, filling in for John W. Decker in the agricultural department.

Nevin Shook, employed in Sim M. Stover's garage, on Long avenue, is occupying the apartment on the second floor of the Rossman store room.

First National Bank Fin's '36 a Profitable Year - The Spring Mills First National Bank had a most profitable year during '36; it was the best experienced since the present cashier, H. F. Erdley, has been in service. During that time the deposits doubled and the surplus fund has also greatly increased, the addition for last year alone being $2500.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders all former directors and officers were re-elected, namely, Robert W. Neese, president; W. Cal Meyer vice president; T. J. Decker, A. B. Lee, Jeremiah Zettie, John W. Zerby, M. T. Zuber, H. F. Erdley was continued as cashier and Paul Weagley as teller.

Glenn Long, from Franklin and Marshall, and Miss Margaret Grenoble, a student in Susquehanna University, Selingsgrove, were at their respective homes over the week-end.

Mr. Kerstetter, of Coburn, visited with his sons, Thomas and Leonard, on Sunday.

The Sleek - Fred Slegal beginning of the week was able to leave the house for the first time since becoming ill two weeks ago. His sister, Miss Mary Slegal, R. N., is confined to bed at this time.

Mrs. Mabel Smith continues to be confined to bed from an aggravated case of muscular rheumatism. She has long been employed as bookkeeper at the Sheffield Milk plant.

E. T. Jamison became confined to his room on Monday. His condition became more complicated due to a fall during last week in which his side and shoulder were injured.

Mrs. C. C. Smith was taken to the hospital last week but was brought back to her home the same day. She expects to return to the institution as soon as conditions become more favorable.

Mrs. Lester Condo Penn Hall, Ill from bronchial pneumonia, continues to be confined to bed. She has been a sufferer from that ailment for more than two weeks.

Adam H. Hartwick shows improvement and is now able to be out of bed after being there continuously for several weeks. For a year Mr. Hartwick has been in a very delicate physical condition, lately from bowe's trouble.

Mrs. Jennie Kolb, R. N., of Aaronsburg, is taking care of C. P. Long whose condition is not improving. Reports are to the effect that his illness appears to be of a dropsical nature.

Amey Bartley, son of Earl Bartley an employe at the Sheffield Milk plant, is a sufferer from thyroid trouble and was obliged to give up his work for the present.

Richard, 21 months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Condo, who just recovered from whooping cough, developed a bronchial trouble.

Mrs. Archie Confer and Mrs. Wes Gobbie are also reported ill.

Miss Anna Barger, a student in nursing in the Lewistown hospital, is reported to be getting along nicely.

It is reported the Matthias Weagley home now occupied by Roy Searson janitor at the Vocational school building, has been or is about to be sold by the administrator, Paul Weagley and that the probable next occupant will be Nathaniel Ziegler.

Mrs. Ruth Grove has become an employe at the Laurelton State Village. Others from here employed there are Lena Bressler and Renna Ziegler.

The Ladies Aid Society of Grace Reformed church held its last meeting at the home of Mrs. Cal Meyer. The attendance was very good and the session highly interesting and instructive. The next meeting will be held Feb. 10th at the home of Mrs. C. B. Stover.
