As the diners filed into the large auditorum they beheld seven tables running the full length of the auditorium, accommodating sixty-odd diners to a table. The scene was indeed beautiful. After all had assembled, Jacob Sharer prominent Granger, asked the blessing. Cecil Walker of Bellefonte led group singing, which was entered into with a rich spirit.

On the stage appeared the speakers table, at which were seated Hon. 'Jack" Thompson, State Senator; Hon. John W. Decker, Assemblyman; Orson Ritzman, of Reading, secretary of the Scenic and Historic Division of the Highway Dept.; Mrs. (Dr.) Merrell, of Philipsburg; Henry Brockerhoff, of Bellefonte; Albert Mingle, of Penn township; E. M. Huyeth, Jacob Shares and W. F. Bradford, of town.
