

Spring Mills

A COLLECTION OF NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND PERSONALS FROM GREGG TWP.'S METROPOLIS.

Entertained M. E. S. S. Class—Mrs. Seth W. Russell, at the Methodist parsonage, entertained the members of the Suzanne Wesley class in the Centre Hall Methodist Sunday school with their husbands as guests, on Thursday evening, Mrs. Edith Campbell is the teacher. Members and guests included: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wert, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Lester, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Corman, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Ober, Mrs. Paul Zellers, Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew, Miss Elizabeth Gross, Miss Estella Hosterman, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burkholder, Miss Helen White, Rev. Russell and the teacher previously named.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hettlinger, on Sunday, at their farm home entertained Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brininger and daughter, Gale; Miss Della Hughes, sister of Mrs. Brininger, Mrs. Hughes Brininger and daughters Janice and June, Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Jordan, Mrs. Myron Retz and daughter Joan.

Miss Rozella Hettlinger, a student in an Altoona business college, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hettlinger, over the week-end. Blaine Bitner, the rural mail carrier from the Spring Mills post office, when visited by the writer and W. D. Shoop, on Saturday, was found to be in the best of spirit and hopes soon to be discharged from the Lewisburg hospital, where he has been a patient since April 1st. For some time Mr. Bitner has suffered lightly from pain; now eats more heartily and sleeps well. In his semi-private room was A. E. Beal, Lewistown's chief of police, who also underwent an operation. Mrs. Beale, by the way, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mifflin Moyer, of Rebersburg.

Pre-School Clinic, May 3-4—A pre-school clinic for pupils who will enter first grade in the Gregg Township schools next fall, will be held in the primary room at Spring Mills on Monday afternoon, May 3, and Tuesday morning, May 4. The pupils who will enter the rural schools of the township next fall, will be examined during the afternoon of May 3rd, and pupils who will enter the primary at Spring Mills will be examined during the morning of May 4. A local physician, assisted by the County Red Cross Nurse, will be in charge of the clinic. Parents of next year's first-grade pupils are urged to have their children attend this pre-school clinic. In all, it is estimated that approximately thirty-five beginners will be examined during the two half days. Further information concerning the clinic may be secured from teachers in the various schools of the township.

Fashion Show and Operetta — The Home Economics Club of the school will present an operetta and fashion show in the high school auditorium at Spring Mills on Wednesday, May 5, at 8 p. m. The group will display many of the articles that have been made by students in their home economic work during the past year. The operetta will be presented in conjunction with the fashion show. Admission will be 15c to all.

The Ladies Temple, K. G. E., banquet, held Tuesday evening of last week in the L.O.O.F. hall, was a success. The attendance was large and the banquet feature excellent.

Miss Margaret Grenoble and friend, Miss Deitrich, both students in Susquehanna University, Selingsgrove were at the home of the former's mother, arriving Friday evening and remaining over Sunday. Both ladies attended the G. T. V. S. Alumni dance, as did also John Zubler, a Penn State student.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee and daughter, Betty, spent the week-end with relatives in Bethlehem.

Mrs. W. F. MacMoran and young daughter are in Towanda this week, having been taken there on Saturday by Mr. MacMoran.

Second Godshall Daughter Arrives — A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Godshall last Thursday in the Black Hospital, Lewistown. She is the second daughter and has been named Judith Marilyn; weight, 10 1/2 pounds.

Wayne Bitting, assistant supervisor of Agriculture, was at his home in Loysville, over the week-end. Charles Bartges, of Washington, D. C., was at his home here on Sunday. Dean Braucht, wife and children, on Sunday visited with friends and relatives.

The Sick—Mrs. Paul Swaby has been confined to her home for several days suffering from skin eruptions. . . A. C. Dunlap, the barber, had planned to go to the Jersey Shore hospital on Monday for observation, but due to the heavy rain deferred doing so until a later date.

Gloria Wingard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Wingard, is confined to her home with a bad cold. . . Beginning of the week Mrs. S. L. Condo, ill for some time, suffered a slight set-back. . . Mrs. A. C. Confer and Mrs. Clyde Lingle continue to improve.

Alumni Dance—The benefit dance which the Gregg Alumni held in the high school auditorium at Spring Mills on Friday night was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Music was furnished by "Bob Lyons All Stars" from Sunbury who played a fine variety of music for both round and square dancing. It is estimated that approximately two hundred persons paid admission to the dance, with a profit of approximately $25 being realized by the association. The balance will be used in purchasing some equipment for the new building. The Gregg Alumni Association, during the winter, paid off the piano which is at present in the building. Funds were derived from two former dances and donations. The group is to be commended for the fine spirit they have displayed in conducting various benefits for the purpose of more fully equipping the new auditorium-gymnasium.

Gregg township is collecting a two-mill road tax. The millage is reduced because of the aid given for roads by the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Catherman and son, of Hartleton, visited with friends here, and with Mr. and Mrs. John Slack, in Coburn.

M. L. Royer is preparing to paint the interior of the C. E. Hettlinger home now being remodeled.

High School Entrance, Exams—Thirty-two Gregg Twp. Eighth Grade pupils took the entrance examination at Spring Mills last Friday. They were: Kenneth Albright, Mary Coble, Dolores Condo, Mildred Crader, Alice Evert, Barbara Fetterolf, Bernice Fetterolf, Lorraine Grove, Helen Haugh, Ruth Hennigh, Bernice Horner, Mabel Johnson, Geraldine Lingle, Maxine Long, Hazel McCool, Jean Musser, Marie Noll, Mary Osman, Roy Ripka, Donald Rossman, Gladys Shawver, Lois Shook, Gladys Strickler, Pauline Stitzer, Harold Walker, Glenn Wolfe, Betty Weaver, Faye Yearick, Mary Zettle, Hallard Zettle, Ruth Zubler and Sara Zubler. Several pupils were ill Friday and will take the test at a later date.

One and one-half tons of dynamite were set off on Saturday in the Allison stone quarry to set free a large quantity of stone for the base of the new road being built east from here. Twenty-two openings were made, varying in depth from twenty to 36 feet. Two shots were made, one or seven and the other of fifteen openings, at 10:00 a. m. and 2:00 p. m.

Sgt. Lan'z, of the Penna. Highway Patrol, spoke to the Safety Class at their regular scheduled time last Monday. He related many incidents of importance in connection with the safe operation of motor vehicles. The class was glad to have the opportunity to ask many questions, the answers from which gave much valuable information.

Ten thousand brown trout fingerlings were shipped to the Spring Mills Fish and Game Association for rearing in the pools especially built for that purpose. The assignment came from a Federal hatchery. By late summer or fall the fingerlings are expected to be large enough to be placed in streams in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zerby, of Penn Hall, and Mrs. Zerby's mother, Mrs. Jeff Heckman, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Houser.

Mr. and Mrs. Domer Emerick, of Altoona, visited with the former's mother, Mrs. Phoebe Emerick, in Centre Hall, and came on to Spring Mills where they also visited with Mrs. Robert Kennelly, a sister of Mrs. Emerick. Other guests at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leitzel, of Lewistown. Mr. Leitzel is a brother of Mrs. Kennelly and Mrs. Emerick. Mrs. Adam Sheesley, of near Mifflinburg, also a sister of Mrs. Kennelly, was her guest at the same time.

Lester Condo, the Penn Hall garageman, recently secured one of the new Willys cars—a four-door sedan—with ample room for three on a seat. The car is credited with being able to carry you from 30 to 35 miles on a gallon of gas.

FARM CALENDAR. Timely Reminders from Pennsylvania State College School of Agriculture

Care for Young Turkeys—Turkey poults can be brooded in the same way as chicks with different types of brooders, brooder houses, or batteries, say Penn State poultry specialists. A slightly higher temperature is required for poults than for chicks, ranging from 90 to 95 degrees Fahrenheit at the edge of the hover during the first week.

Keep Record of Cows—A plan or program providing for a permanent record of the identity, pedigree, and production performance of all animals in cow testing association herds has been established by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Finish Market Lambs—Foresighted farmers are planning now for some type of temporary pasture for finishing market lambs later in the summer. Dwarf Essex rams or oats and rape combined, soybeans, and sweet clover all make splendid temporary pasture according to Penn State sheep specialists.

Keep Mares Active—It is easier to feed a working brood mare than an idle one, declare Penn State horse specialist. A well-balanced ration is essential, using good feeds containing plenty of protein, lime, and phosphorus.

Plant Sweet Corn—Planting dates for sweet corn are from early in May to the first of July, explain Penn State vegetable gardeners. Planting distances are either 10 or 12 inches in rows 3 feet apart or hills checked 3 by 3 feet with three plants in a hill.

Observe Rural Sunday—May 2 is Rural Life Sunday. Rural churches will provide special programs, and rural groups will cooperate in observance of the day.

You Pay Less TO OWN IT TO RUN IT 1937 Ford V-8 If you think that "all low-price cars cost about the same" — forged it! They don't. Ford makes a car — a 60-horsepower economy Ford V-8 — that sells from 30 to 60 dollars under the prices asked for any other car of comparable size. The lowest Ford prices in years! Check delivered prices in your town and see for yourself. Of course, first cost doesn't prove "low cost" — you must consider operating cost also. The "60" has definitely established itself as the most economical car in Ford history. Ford cars have been famous for economy for 34 years, so that means something! Owners who have driven it thousands of miles report that the Ford "60" averages between 22 and 27 miles on a gallon of gasoline. FORD MOTOR COMPANY
