

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

While operating a jointer Clyde Durov had one of his fingers pretty badly cut, a few days ago.

A Mothers' Day program will be given in the Tusseyville Evangelical church on Sunday evening at 7:30.

Mrs. Dome, Smeltzer, who with her husband recently moved into a part of the Mrs. Susan Durst home, is ill.

A Children's Day pageant, "A Child's Quest for Christ," will be given in the Lutheran church, Sunday evening, June 6th.

Mrs. W. W. Reitz, of Ithaca, N. Y., drove to Centre Hall, Saturday, and will remain with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Thomas, and sister, Miss Jennie Thomas, for several weeks.

Machine drilling for water is being done on the Bradford farm at Old Port and also at Brownie's new place of business in Seven Mountains, south of Potters Mills.

George E. Heckman, farmer east of Centre Hall, is hampered at the present time with a bad case of rheumatism in one of his lower limbs. He is confined to the house at present.

Miss Dorothy Blazer, a student in the Thompson Business College, Harrisburg, is at her home at present on a week's vacation. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blazer, of Earlstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Flory and daughter, Shirley, set up housekeeping in the Hironimus home, Allison street, Centre Hall. Mrs. Flory was formerly Miss Alice Weber, of Rebersburg.

The Garret carpenters from Rebersburg have completed a two-car garage on the Geary property, formerly the Kerlin home, and are now altering the residence to provide accommodations for two families.

St. Paul's Methodist church of State College, on Sunday, observed its 25th anniversary of the dedication of its present church edifice. Dr. Morris E. Swartz, of Newberry church in Williamsport, was the principal speaker.

The East Branch Christian Endeavor will have a rally on Tuesday in the Evangelical church at Rebersburg. Several county officers and Rev. Houseal will speak. Rev. Babcock will present some slides on the Life of Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindsey are new residents in Centre Hall. The couple came here from Williamsport. Mr. Lindsey is employed at White-rock, Pleasant Gap. The couple are living in one of the G. Gardner Grove apartments.

Mrs. Alice Weaver, of Huntingdon and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Banks Vaughn, of Mt. Union visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Spyster, relatives. Another caller at the same home was Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Parks.

Members of the local Reformed Sunday school are jubilant over the attendance of the Sunday morning session, which according to records, was the largest in five years. The contribution of the group was also the largest in the same period.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Shelton, of Akron, Ohio, now visiting with Mrs. Shelton's mother, Mrs. Susan Meyer in Penn township, and Mr. and Mrs. John Forster, of Aaronsburg, visited with Miss Grace Smik and Mrs. Lavan Smith, in town, over Sunday.

Miss Lenora Foust, night superintendent of the Tubercular Department, Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, is seriously ill at the hospital, her father, H. E. Foust, at Potters Mills was informed a few days ago. Her temperature was given as 104 degrees.

Several most modern Wayne gas pumps have been installed at the Hazan Garage. The pumps are not only ornamental in appearance, but permit the customer to see the amount of the sale in dollars and cents, number of gallons and rate per gallon. Mobilgas is being rendered through them.

Beginning September 1st, dentists will be required to do what they long contended was ethical—refrain from advertising. A sign outside their offices bearing name, and the word "dentist" is about the limit. The regulation is provided for in a law passed recently and signed by the Governor on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mastellar, of De-wart, Mrs. Laura Lee and Robert Breon, of town, motored to Richmond, Va., on Friday evening, returning home on Sunday evening. The visit to the Virginia city may terminate in an event of great importance in the life of the latter, at some time not so far distant.

C. Robert Neff, who quit the teaching profession to take over farming operations on his newly-acquired acres (the Stoner farm) at Tusseyville, is making some decided improvements in the appearance of the farm home. One noted improvement is giving the old home an "about face" so that the front entrance and porch will face the new concrete road, built a few years ago, which after cutting through the farms in that section had the effect of putting the highway to the rear of the residence.

Mrs. W. W. Kerlin, on Tuesday evening, entertained a group of boys of high school age, members of the class in the Lutheran Sunday school she is teaching. It was the annual gathering at which officers were elected to guide the projects mapped out for the coming year. An entertainment feature was the showing of moving pictures taken in Florida, at Culver (Ind.) Military school and in this immediate vicinity. The evening was topped off with refreshments followed with games, etc.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Uber visited with friends in Butler, beginning of this week.

Mrs. Lizzie Mullen, who has been visiting with relatives in Orange, N. J., is back to her Altoona home.

Miss Matilda Onachilla spent the week-end with Miss Anne Wert, a former schoolmate in Lock Haven Teachers' College.

Barbara, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Potter, contracted scarlet fever. A younger sister, Eleanor recovered from the same disease a few weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fetterolf and son Drew, and Mrs. F. K. Frank, on Sunday, motored to Berwick where they visited with Andrew Zettle, his son, Archey Zettle, and family.

The Ray Decker family takes this method of thanking those who lent assistance during the illness and subsequent death of Mrs. W. M. Grove, mother of Mr. Decker.

Mrs. Wilbur McClellan and son Marlyn, of Lock Haven, were with relatives in Centre Hall while Mr. McClellan, an insurance agent, attended to business affairs in Eastern Pennsylvania.

W. L. Jacobs, Miss Margaret Jacobs, and Miss Anna Sweeney for a few days the past week were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Jacobs, in Steubenville, Ohio, having made the trip by motor.

Britcher's Auction SALE!

The undersigned will expose to sale at his auction barn, 2 miles northeast of MIFFLINTOWN, on WEDNESDAY, MAY 12 at 10 o'clock A. M.—

25 Acclimated Horses

Horses brought here by the farmers and dealers in this vicinity. Tex Rickard will be here with a carload of high grade horses.

50 High Class Dairy Cows

These cows are bought and consigned by George Swartz, D. C. Price, Lee Swartz, G. B. Leshner, Ira Brumbaugh, George Mook, Clark Britcher. They are bought in Blair, Huntingdon, Centre, Mifflin, Juniata, Snyder and Northumberland counties. All right from the farms and ready for profitable production.

BUTCHER CATTLE, HEIFERS BULLS AND STEERS

We have tried hard to get for this Spring Sale the best lot of stock that I have had at my barn for a long time. Our consigners know a good cow or horse, and will appreciate your help along with us.

Meals served at auction place, FLOYD A. BRITCHER

BOALSBURG

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lindaman at the Centre County hospital on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dale, of the Branch, and daughter, Mrs. Ralph Ricker, of West Chester, were visitors at the home of Miss Anna Dale, on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goheen and children, Richard and Betty Lou, were week-end visitors at the Goheen and Meyer homes.

The Reformed church lawn has been greatly improved by grading and the planting of shrubbery.

The town flower bed is ablaze with the color of brown and gold tulips.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foust and daughter, of Alexandria, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hosterman, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kuhn and daughter, of Williamsport, were among the week-end visitors in town. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mothersbaugh and Mr. and Mrs. John Reese, of Altoona, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Mothersbaugh on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mothersbaugh and daughter Ruth were Sunday dinner guests of their son, Lynn, and family, near Potters Mills.

The charge of manslaughter against Zeke Fike, Mill Hall, R. 2, for having struck and killed Edgar W. Showers, a Nittany cripple, February 16, was ignored by the Centre county grand jury.

POTTERS MILLS

Edward Evans and wife, of Pittsburgh, have returned home after visiting with his cousin, Miss Caroline McClaskey, for the past ten days. Mrs. Edith Dale, of State College, took supper Saturday evening at the F. F. Palmer home.

H. E. Foust received word on Saturday that his daughter, Lenora, is again seriously ill in Philadelphia.

J. H. Bitner, F. F. Palmer and wife visited Mrs. Harvey Musser, in Rebersburg on Sunday. Mrs. Musser has been confined to her bed for two weeks with cold and heart ailment.

FRED LUSE, Manager. CENTRE HALL

JERSEY CORN FLAKES 6c package

AUNT JEMIMA PANCAKE FLOUR 2 boxes 19c

EARL JUNE PEAS 3 cans for 23c

STELLAIRE CORN STARCH 7c package

TOMATO KETCHUP 14-oz bottle—2 for 25c

JACK & JILL DESSERTS 3 packages for 13c

COLLEGE INN SOUPS can 10c

BROOMS each 49c

Weis Quality Macaroni, Noodles and Spaghetti 3 pkgs for 23c

DILL OR SOUR PICKLES quart jar—2 for 33c

Weis Quality MAYONNAISE 8-oz 14c

Weis Quality MAYONNAISE 16-oz size 23c

Weis Quality COFFEE 1-lb tin for 25c

PEA BEANS pound 10c

DEL MAIZ NIBLETS 2 cans for 25c

OYSTER CRACKERS 3-lb pkg 29c

G. H. McCormick, wife, and James Burd motored to Indiana, Pa., Sunday, where they met E. G. Mingle, Mrs. McCormick's father, from Aaronsburg, who had been spending the winter in Akron, Ohio, and who has gone to his home to spend the summer.

Mrs. Hannah Auman, of near Co-burn, is spending some time with her son, Ira, and family.

Mr. Wilt and family, of Greenwood, visited Sunday at the F. F. Palmer home.

The Hosterman & Stover Co.

Sell, Install and Service the equipment of the following manufacturers of

MILK COOLERS

ICE :: ELECTRIC :: GAS ENGINE

WILSON CABINET CORP., SMYRNA, DEL. THE HAVEN COMPANY, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS BRUNNER MANUFACTURING CO., UTICA, NEW YORK VICTOR PRODUCTS CORP., HAGERSTOWN, MD. GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY

SEE Our Display of Milk Cooling Equipment

Information and prices cheerfully given

The Hosterman & Stover Co.

MILLHEIM

The FIRST NATIONAL BANK CENTRE HALL, PA.

If you have some little folks like these to take riding with you, we know you'll want to give them the maximum protection afforded by

PERFECTED HYDRAULIC BRAKES

You'll want to give them the full safety of CHEVROLET THE ONLY COMPLETE CAR-PRICED SO LOW

NEW HIGH-COMPRESSION VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE—NEW ALL-SILENT, ALL-STEEL BODIES—NEW DIAMOND CROWN SPEEDLINE STYLING—PERFECTED HYDRAULIC BRAKES —IMPROVED GLIDING KNEE-ACTION RIDE*—SAFETY PLATE GLASS ALL AROUND—GENUINE FISHER NO DRAFT VENTILATION—SUPER-SAFE SHOCKPROOF STEERING*.

MILLER MOTOR CO. CENTRE HALL, PA.