

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

John Spyster, employed at York, was at his home during the week-end.

Mrs. Lillian Slick, her son, William and wife, of Canfield, Ohio, were in Centre Hall the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Foreman, of Bakerton, Cambria county, motored here for a visit among friends during the past week.

Bob Lyons' orchestra from Sunbury will furnish the music for the high school alumni reception and dance to be held in the high school building this (Thursday) evening.

Announcement has been made of the appointment of S. A. Bierly, of Rebersburg as inheritance tax appraiser of Centre county, vice George G. Fink, resigned. The position pays a salary of $2000 a year.

Wm. H. Breen, farmer in the Penns Cave district, called here Tuesday morning to advertise for rent a house and lot. Mr. Breen will make a second attempt to rear turkeys, hoping to do better than last season, when the young birds were destroyed by vermin.

A son was born in the Centre County hospital to Mr. and Mrs. George H. Stover on Saturday morning. He will carry George as one of his names. The old bird, the Stork, continues to hover in Centre Hall in the same community, waiting for a welcome sign.

Bruce D. Rowe, of New Bloomfield N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. James K. Keller and children, of Lancaster, were in Centre Hall for the week-end. The former was with his sister Mrs. J. W. Bradford and Mrs. J. S. Booser, and the latter with Mr. Keller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Keller.

George K. Himmey and Stanley R. Brooks went to Harrisburg on Friday and brought back a 1 1/2-ton International dual-wheel chassis and cab to be used by the former on his milk route leading to the Sheffield milk plant, Spring Mills. The bed of old truck will again be put into use.

Herbert W. Stover, of Coburn, who the past year has been dog enforcement officer of this district, has been appointed a State auditor for Centre county, effective June 1st; and it is reported that Dr. Wagner Geiss, of Bellefonte, will look after the enforcement of the dog law in the future.

While engaged as a mechanic in re-roofing a garage for J. T. McCormick in State College, Luther Campbell, of Shingletown, fell to the ground a distance of twelve feet. He is 65, and there is some suspicion he might have suffered a paralytic stroke, causing him to fall. He was taken to the hospital for examination and care.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Peterson and son Marshall, arrived here on Sunday on the return trip to Tuscaloosa, Alabama, where Marshall is a student in the Alabama State University, and became guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin. Mr. Peterson is an advertising man and writes and prepares for the printer, matter for illustrated catalogues of the higher grades.

Counsel for E. E. Weiser have filed an application for a re-hearing in court in the case of Richards vs. Weiser, citing seventeen reasons why the decision handed down two weeks ago by Judge Fleming should be changed and be granted the right to erect a garage on the site of the Andrews home, corner of Allegheny and Howard streets, Bellefonte, recently purchased by him.

F. M. Fisher arrived in town from Williamsburg during last week and on Saturday afternoon returned to the same place where he and Mrs. Fisher have been with their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. E. Roy Corman, since the 8th of May. Mrs. Fisher is gradually recovering from an illness that began the latter part of April. She expects to remain with the Cormans until her health is more fully regained.

The farm homes recently having become or about to become able to reach electric light and power lines over the West Penna System are being wired. G. Frank Smith received the contract to wire the Charles E. Neff and Samuel Grove farm homes along the Earlstown road. The wiring of the former Detwiler farm home now owned by P. P. Henshall and the Fred Slack home along Route 45, east of Old Fort, has been completed by the same electrician.

Edward B. Thompson, of Pittsburgh, was a motor guest on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil F. Harrington, and Cecil Harrington, Jr., and wife of the same city, as far as Centre Hall, and later on to Lancaster, where on Wednesday they attended commencement exercises, C. E. Harrington, a younger son, being a member of the class. The elder Mr. Harrington is connected with a Pittsburgh firm installing stokers in manufacturing establishments for burning pulverized coal, and before returning home had a conference with the board of directors of the Burnham plant at which the merits of the stoker system were brought to the surface.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reesman, of Camden, N. J., as has been their custom for some years, motored to Centre Hall over Memorial Day, arriving here Friday. Mr. Reesman is clerk to the City Commission, a position held since leaving the body as a member. He left on the Reporter's desk a booklet entitled "Industrial Camden," a directory of industrial information prepared by the Board of City Commissioners, under the direction of the Department of Public Affairs, with the assistance of the Federal Works Progress Administration and other local agencies. The booklet is novel in its makeup and presents an array of information about Camden. The city in 1930 had a population of 118,700, and 25,520 dwellings occupied by private families. There are 2,089 stores, the sales in 1935 being $38,765,000; employees in stores, 4,665 and total payroll, $4,513,000.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Ralph Kennedy of Maryland won the blanket at the O. E. S. drawing.

Mrs. Hudson and Miss Martin, of Steubenville, Ohio, were guests last Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary.

Mrs. Virginia (Geese) Miller, Philadelphia, recently raked in a minor political job when she was named registration assessor in her district.

Miss Jean Musser, daughter of Stuart Musser, of Brush Valley, spent Tuesday night with Miss Jean Bartholomew. They attended class night exercises in the high school.

Mrs. George Searson, ill for some time from complications, has of late been able to sit on the porch of her home, indicating marked improvement in her physical condition.

Miss Elsie Weaver and Miss Emma Walzer, of Wilkesbarre, were entertained over the week-end by Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Jamison. The ladies are former college chams of Mrs. Jamison at Penn State.

Lynn Blazer, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blazer, on Thursday, underwent a tonsillectomy in the Centre County hospital. The young man only recently recovered from a severe attack of rheumatic fever.

Monday evening, Mrs. Anna B. Kittleberger and daughter, Miss Louise and Miss Elizabeth, spent a few hours at the Bartholomew home on their return from a Memorial day visit to W. W. Kittleberger and wife at Palmerston. Mr. Kittleberger is a son and brother of the ladies as mentioned.

Wm. H. Lingle is making slow recovery from an illness dating close to April 1st, and is now able to take daily walks through his garden. Mr. Lingle left his farm, near Tusseyville, in the spring to live in Centre Hall. After being here but a short time he became ill and has since been confined to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blazer, of near town, recently motored to Selingsgrove where they visited with Mr. Blazer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Blazer, living retired. Miss Dorothy Blazer presided over the Blazer household during the absence of her parents. She is a student in the Thompson business college and in about a month will complete her course.

The Reporter is pleased to note in its columns that Miss Roberta Smith was able to be removed to the home of her father, R. M. Smith, in Centre Hall, on Monday, from the Williamsport City hospital where she had been a patient following a motor accident four weeks prior. She was brought here by a sister, Miss Estella Hosterman, and a graduate nurse, Miss Mary Jane Neil, the latter from the hospital. Miss Smith's condition is very favorable.

I. Y. Moyer and daughter, Miss Ruth Moyer, of Cleveland, Ohio, motored to Centre Hall on Sunday and called at the W. W. Kerlin home. Mr. Moyer is living retired, while the daughter holds a responsible position with the Nickelplate Railroad in its Cleveland office. Mrs. Harry Litchward, another daughter of Mr. Moyer, located at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, is on her way to the States and will likely visit here later. Mrs. Moyer was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rearick, both deceased, and a sister of W. O. Rearick, Milroy.

Mrs. Mary Stahl, on the west border of the borough line, was favored during the past week with the presence of her children, Mrs. Robert E. Snyder and daughter, Miss Maudella, were the first to appear, later Mr. Snyder, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Stahl Narbeth, and on Monday, Asher C. and Bruce Stahl came on from Altoona. They found their mother in good health and spirits. Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Stahl left on Wednesday, stopping with a son, Thomas, at Waynesboro, before going home. The young man is employed as an accountant in the offices of the Landis Machine Co.

Relatives and friends from out of town who attended the funeral of Christ C. Durst, Tuesday afternoon included: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Condo and son Charles, Greensburg; Mrs. Earl McQuillan, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Ida Snyder and daughters, Mrs. Harry Bowersox, and Misses Romie and Isabel Snyder, and Harry Bowersox, Mifflinburg; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schure, Hartleton; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Schnura, Mrs. Matthew Burrell, Hartleton; Mrs. Mary Bartsch, State College; Miss Louise Blystone, Greensburg.

THREE YACHTING GROUPS OPEN ECHO BAY SEASON

The Standard-Star, New Rochelle, N. Y., in its issue of May 24, devoted the greater part of a page to the description of the opening season of the Echo Bay Yacht Club. The page also showed several large pictures of groups of prominent figures in the club, a full picture of Commodore D. Earl Fleming being one of them. Commodore Fleming is a Centre Hall product. In the opening paragraphs of the account of the affair were found: A throng of members and guests estimated at 800 gathered on Echo Island Saturday afternoon for the flag-raising ceremonies, followed by a tea dance, which marked the official opening of the 1937 season for Echo Yacht Club.

As the prize band of Boy Scout Troop 3-A from North Avenue Presbyterian church played, and officers from New Rochelle Yacht Club assisted in the ceremonies, colors were raised at 5 o'clock under the direction of Commodore D. Earl Fleming, Vice Commodore Louis Goss and Rear Commodore Theodore N. Westlake. Commodore Fleming gave the address of welcome and presented as representatives of the Yacht Club Commodore J. Meade Alexander, Rear Commodore Frank L. Adams of Mount Vernon and former Commodore, Arthur H. Titus.

The Sweet Girl Graduate

Linoleum block print engraved by Russell Reish, Centre Hall-Potter High school student.

LOCALS.

A report of class night exercises at the local high school, Tuesday night, must of necessity be held over until next week.

E. W. (Jim) Burkholder returned to Winfield, on Tuesday, expecting to operate one of a fleet of fourteen 6-ton GMC trucks purchased by Smith Bros., operators of the Smith Bros. quarry at Winfield.

Harriet, aged 2 1/2 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Vogt, who underwent a double mastoid operation in the Lewisport hospital on May 22, is improving and may be able to leave the hospital at the close of this week.

CENTRE COUNTY HOSPITAL NOTES.

Patients from the south side of the county, week of May 24:

Tuesday, discharged: Mrs. Robert McCool, Spring Mills.
Wednesday, discharged: Miss Barbara Grassmiller.
Thursday, admitted: Mrs. Ira W. Lingle, Spring Mills.
Friday, discharged: Lynn E. Blazer, Centre Hall, Pa.
A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George H. Stover, Centre Hall.
There were 44 patients in the hospital at the beginning of the week.

Britcher's Auction SALE!

The undersigned will expose to sale at his auction barn, 2 miles northeast of MIFFLINTOWN, on WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9 at 10 o'clock A. M.—

25 Acclimated Nearby Horses

Tex Rickard and Tom Williamson will be here with a carload of good horses.

50 High Class Dairy Cows

These cows are bought and consigned by George Swartz, D. C. Price, Lee Swartz, G. E. Leshler, Ira Brumbaugh, George Mock, Clark Britcher. They are bought in Blair, Huntingdon, Centre, Mifflin, Juniata, Snyder and Northumberland counties. You will find her as many or more good cows than at any Central Pa. Auction, all right from the farms and ready for profitable production.

BUTCHER CATTLE HEIFERS, BULLS AND STEERS 25 Shoats, from 50 to 100 lbs. Meals served at auction place. FLOYD A. BRITCHER

WHEN IN NEED OF Planing Mill Work

of any kind, LUMBER, ROOFING, Nails, All Kinds Building Material, CALL AT—

Garrett's Planing Mill GOOD MATERIAL AND HONEST PRICES Rebersburg, Pa. Phone 16R42

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE

WANT TO BUY OR SELL? SEE US FIRST.

C. D. BARTHOLOMEW CENTRE HALL, PA.

Mrs. Frank Ishler is suffering from a severe attack of asthma from which disease she has been a sufferer for some years.

The oat and corn crops, although quite young and tender, have a decidedly fine and promising appearance. Alfalfa fields are a luxury to the eye. Grasses and clover, where there are plants, are doing well. The warm weather beginning Friday and extending into this week is forcing all vegetation at a rapid rate.

WEIS PURE FOOD STORES

FRED LUSE, Manager. CENTRE HALL

LARD 2 pounds for 27c

SHEFFORD CHEESE 29c (assorted) 3/4-lb pkg—TWO for

SUPER SUDS 35c 2 packages for

PALMOLIVE SOAP 17c 2 bars for

FELS NAPHA SOAP 22c 5 bars for

OUR LEADER COFFEE 39c 2 pounds for

WEIS QUALITY COFFEE 25c 1-lb can for

KETCHUP 17c 8-oz bot—TWO for

ICE CREAM SALT 25c 10-lb bags—TWO for

HEINZ BAKED BEANS 25c 15-oz cans—TWO for

CUT BEATS 19c No. 2 1/2-lb can—TWO for

WEIS QUALITY TELEPHONE PEAS 25c 2 cans for

WEIS QUALITY CORN 25c 2 cans for

FOR REAL VALUES SHOP AT WEIS Pure Food Stores

PENNY-A-WORD COLUMN.

FOR RENT—Seven-room house, garage, good garden, 1 1/2 acres land, fruit, along Route 95, 5 1/2 miles east Centre Hall. Possession at once.—W. H. Breen, Spring Mills, R. 2 x24

FOR SALE—About 3 or 4 tons of loose hay.—J. F. Treaster, Centre Hall.

ELECTRIC WIRING and Repair Work done at reasonable prices. Call G. Frank Smith, Centre Hall, 16R4.

HAY FOR SALE—Some loose mixed hay for sale, at a bargain.—N. E. Miller, Potters Mills, Pa. x21

FOR SALE—Kitchen range and ice refrigerator. Bargain.—Mrs. Roy S. Jamison, Centre Hall.

FOR SALE—4-burner New Perfection oil stove with top and baker.—J. Roy Schaeffer, Centre Hall; phone 41R3.

OPENING BLACKSMITH SHOP—The undersigned will open the Walker blacksmith shop, on Church street, Centre Hall, on or about June 1st. Horse-shoeing and all kinds of blacksmithing done; twenty years experience; satisfaction guaranteed.—FRANK NAPP.

The Centre Reporter, $1.50 a year.

Someone Graduating? Send your congratulations by telephone! Rates are reduced on long distance calls of 42 miles or more every night after seven and all day Sunday. THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

Enjoy Better Cooking Results and Greater Fuel Economy with a MODERN QUICK MEAL LORAIN 5-Burner Oil Stove We have sold this stove for the past 26 years Any Model, to suit your particular needs. SOLD BY H. P. Schaeffer Hardware Bellefonte, Pa.

ABOUT 10 CENTS A DAY FOR... AUTOMATIC HOT WATER SERVICE For about ten cents a day you can have automatic hot water service. How relieved you will be after the first week of this care-free service... not having to climb stairs, shovel coal or carry out ashes. What can you buy for so small an amount that will bring greater return for the whole family than low cost Automatic Hot Water Service. Special Offer Ends June 15th NOTHING DOWN-- $5 allowance for your present heater $2 per month quickly pays the balance CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA GAS CO. BELLEFONTE STATE COLLEGE