

Spring Mills

A COLLECTION OF NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND PERSONALS FROM GREGG TWP.'S METROPOLIS.

Gregg Vocational Commencement—A class of sixteen was graduated at the Eighteenth Annual Commencement exercises of the Gregg Township Vocational School held in the high school auditorium at Spring Mills last Wednesday evening. The program centered around the general theme—"Ideas and Ideals of Horace Mann" as applied to problems of Personal Character, General Welfare, and National Existence. The class speakers Frances Zerby, Frances Frazier and Cora McCool discussed very ably the above topics which are of vital importance today. Superintendent William W. Evans of Columbia County Public Schools delivered an excellent address on the subject "Who is Best Educated?" Music for the exercises was furnished by the high school orchestra. The graduates were: Franklin H. Bartges, John B. Bron Robert C. Campbell, Spurgeon K. Condo, Richard P. Feltenberger, Frances N. Frazier, Robert B. Henschel, Paul W. Homan, Leonard Ilgen, Gladys D. Keller, Cora M. McCool, Allison L. Musser, Anna M. Neill, Russell L. Spayd, Dean N. Ziegler and Frances L. Zerby.

Married—Paul Henninger, of Centre Hall, and Miss Madalene Ziegler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Ziegler, of Spring Mills, were married recently. No details other than noted above were obtainable from the couple. The newlyweds at present are living with the parents of the bride.

Bruce Meyer, Ralph Ziegler, Harvey Rote, Albert Crader and Guyer Grove were deep-wat' fishing off Chicamuxen, Chesapeake Bay.

Miss Miriam Tschudy entertained her Sunday school class by taking them to the State College movie theatre on Friday afternoon. Miss Tschudy will spend the summer vacation at her home in Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Myers, now living in Abington, Va., are expected at their home here over the week-end.

Mrs. Paul Grove, engaged in the Laurelton State Village, spent the week-end vacation in Spring Mills.

Mrs. Grace McCool motored to Sunbury and brought back with her Miss Lottie McCool who had been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frael Snyder, in Sunbury.

Celebrates 76th Birthday—The 76th birthday of Mrs. Mary McCool was celebrated fittingly by members of the family at Woodward cave. A basket lunch was served. Mrs. McCool has long been a resident of Spring Mills and has many friends hereabouts who wish her many repetitions of her natal day.

The P. O. of A. is planning a festival for July 10th.

Entertains CCC Officials and Ladies Dr. and Mrs. George C. Thomas, on Saturday evening, entertained a group of CCC officials and their wives from Half-Way camp in Brush Valley Narrows, where the former is resident physician. The ladies and gentlemen were entertained at the Thomas home in Spring Mills. Cards proved prominent in the amusement line. The refreshments were voted most excellent by the guests.

Mrs. S. L. Conda, a patient in the Centre County hospital, was brought to her home on Sunday. Her condition is regarded as fair.

Cashley H. F. Erdley spent Sunday at his cabin along Penns Creek, close to Penns View, west of the first tunnel. He relates there were a goodly number of fishermen along the stream, but the catch appeared to be light.

The program offered by the children of the Lutheran S. S. on Sunday evening was well rendered to a capacity house. Rev. Wagner made a very appropriate address directed to the junior element in church and school.

Children's Day Service—A children's day program will be executed on Sunday evening in the Methodist church by the members of the Methodist-Reformed Union Sunday school.

Mrs. Guy Corman and mother, Mrs. Anne Smith, on Sunday, motored to the Williams cemetery at Martha where the parents of the latter, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Wagner, rest.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stover, and Miss Josephine Stover, on Monday, motored to Sunbury, taking with them Walter Wolfe, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Myrtle Burrows, of York. At Sunbury Mr. Wolfe and Mrs. Burrows boarded a train for their respective homes.

June, four years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hanna, reported ill last week, is now quarantined for scarlet fever. She is not seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Gentzel in Auto Wreck—In an auto wreck which occurred the latter part of last week in the vicinity of Mifflinburg, both Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Gentzel, of Shamokla, were injured. Mrs. Gentzel received a broken leg and was taken to a hospital. Her husband's injuries were less serious, having been cuts and bruises. No details are known here. Mrs. C. P. Long, a sister of Mr. Gentzel, is at present at the Gentzel home in Sunbury.

Bruce Bailey and Charles Grenoble repainted the roof on the G. C. King residence. A new roof was put on the small barn on the former R. D. Musser place now owned by A. C. Mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bailey and daughter, Albert Grenoble and Miss Adaline Grieb, the latter couple of Tylersville, enjoyed their noon lunch on Sunday at Poe Paddy Park.

G. Blaine Bitner representing the Spring Mills Lodge, I. O. O. F., at sessions of the State Grand Lodge in Philadelphia, was taken to Lewistown by his brother, Bright Bitner, on Sunday, and from there traveled by train to Philadelphia.

Dalestown—N. H. Ziegler is having the high retaining wall at his home

In Spring Mills rebuilt. He has occupied the place since April. The large frame house was erected by the late Phillip Dale, a lumberman, who operated a saw mill near the site of the Ziegler property. He also built all of the improvements west of the Ziegler place, on Long Ave. For a long period that section of Spring Mills was named "Dalestown" for the builder. The wall was repaired by B. F. Kennedy and J. B. Albright.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mullinger, spent Saturday and Sunday at Lock Haven where they enjoyed a turkey dinner prepared by Mrs. Gephroble.

Mrs. R. H. Shook and Mrs. Mabel Musser spent Saturday with their sister, Mrs. Calli Old, in Lock Haven. Merchant C. E. Ziegler and Mrs. LuLu Brungart took dinner at the Logantun hotel on Sunday.

REBERSBURG

Lester Meek, wife, and two children of Bellefonte, spent the week-end among relatives.

The Cleve Brungart family from Centre Hall visited at the home of Cella Brungart.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ripka and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Burkholder from Potter township called on Mrs. Harvey Musser, who lives with the Geo. Waltes.

LaVand Bierly took Miss Kane to her home in Kingston on Sunday where she will remain until the opening of the fall school term.

Mrs. Martha Luse was taken to Washington, D. C. on Tuesday, where she will enter a Lutheran church home. Her many friends wish her good health and contentment.
