Miss Lois Whitehill, of State College, visited her aunt, Mrs. Edw. E. Bailey, for a few days last week.

E. A. Frank, manager of the Sheffer Dairy Store, underwent a tonsilectomy in the Allis private hospital, Lewis-town, Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hess and young son, of Winfield, were at the home of Mrs. Hess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Burkholder, over the week-end.

Mrs. Elmer Campbell, of Linden Hall, was a visitor in Centre Hall during a part of last week, stopping with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alexander, and calling on many of her friends.

Thursday, June 24, the senior class of the Harris Township high school will hold a festival. The East Centre County Junior Band will furnish an interesting program of music for the evening.

Calvin D. Weaver, of Penns Cave Station, was a caller at this office on Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver live on what has long been known as the Woods farm and of which they became the owners by purchase a few years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Confer, of Bellefonte, have moved to their new home down Bald Eagle Valley, and are now located on R. D. 2, Howard. Mrs. Confer was formerly Miss Evelyn Bradford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bradford, Centre Hall.

F. M. Fisher arrived home from Wilkesburg, on Friday, where both he and Mrs. Fisher had been with their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Corman. Mrs. Fisher is reported as having improved somewhat from a nervous breakdown.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Emery were motor guests of their daughter, Mrs. Frank McClellan, of State College, on a trip to Mifflinburg where the day was spent with the eldest daughter of the Emerys, Mrs. R. R. Finkle, and family. The three McClellan children were also with their mother.

Mrs. W. E. Park, of Asheville, N. C., was in Centre Hall with her sisters, Mrs. Martha Boozer and Mrs. C. W. Slack, from Friday to Sunday, and from here went to Riverton, N. J., to visit another sister, Mrs. W. Gross Mingle, before returning home. Dr. Park is a surgeon in Oteen Army hospital, near Asheville.

Miss Helen White over last week-end was a guest of Miss Thelma Baker, Trout Run, and Miss Mary Graden, Williamsport. On Monday she attended commencement exercises at Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport. One of the young men preparing for the ministry who graduated was Marcus Randall, who is stationed on the Trout Run Methodist charge.

While sitting on the porch of her home on Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Paul Bradford suffered a severe heart attack and when she undertook to walk into the house, completely collapsed. Dr. Light was called and gave professional service, resulting in improvement of the patient. Mrs. Bradford had not been in good health for some time.

Among improvements to be made on Grange Park this year is the extension of the six-foot-high woven wire fence with steel posts and several strands of barbed wire on an angled top. The new section of fence will be along the railroad and will extend westward almost to the "white station" site, a distance of 500 feet. At present parking lanes are being made.

The personal registration of voters in Centre Hall and in all districts in the valley was extremely light, and represented but a small percentage of voters in either of the major parties. It will require considerable agitation between now and September 1st to induce anything approaching a complete registration. Taxpayers do not seem to appreciate that registering is one of a few requirements to become a qualified voter.

A "tourist" was hit and knocked into the gutter by an unknown motor operator, Saturday evening about 9:30 o'clock, at a point near the intersection of the Rayona camp road with State Highway Route 222, Seven Mile. A number of cars had stopped, but no assistance was given the man until Donald Coldron came onto the scene. He suggested the stranger, who gave his name as Clarence Gibson, and Lancaster his destination, be taken to the Lewis-town hospital, which was done. The man's injuries were about the back and neck.

Mrs. Paul Fetterolf, Mrs. Fred Stover, Mrs. F. K. Frank, of town; Mrs. Ernest Ziemer, Bellefonte, and Mrs. Merrill Nale, of Millmont, with Kenneth Frank at the wheel, on Wednesday of last week motored to Mifflinburg where they were guests for the day of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stover, uncle and aunt of the ladies. Other guests at the home at the same time were Mr. and Mrs. Bower, son and daughter, of Illinois, and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Jamison, foster parents of Mrs. Bower, of Mifflinburg. A count at the dinner table made the party sixteen.

If you are hungry for an eye-full of beauty, walk up West Church street and spend a bit of time looking over the lawn, shrubbery and flowers at the H. W. Harper home. Every tree and plant shows constant care, and this will continue until the cold blasts cut down the flowers and brown the grass. At this time there are many flowers in bloom and the lawn is at its best. While Mr. Harper, a genius in various lines, keeps the lawn mower and sickle in perfect order, it is Mrs. Harper who furnishes the power to drive them. She is a lover of flow-ers and finds great pleasure in growing and caring for them.

The Democratic Women's Clubs are planning a picnic on Moshannon park, Tuesday, July 20.

CHEVROLET TRUCKS

Chevrolet users say:

"They're the most economical trucks for all-round duty"

Perfected Hydraulic Brakes . . . Greatest Pulling Power in Their Price Range . . . New Steelstream Styling

CHEVROLET
FOR ECONOMIC TRANSPORTATION

"Give us a truck with ample pulling power . . . one that is economical . . . one that will give reliable service over a long period for the least money."

That is the demand of all truck operators, and thousands of Chevrolet users will tell you that the best answer is—Chevrolet trucks!

Chevrolet trucks have the greatest pulling power in their price range . . . because they have a New High-Compression Valve-in-Head Engine which wrings the last ounce of power out of every gallon of fuel.

Chevrolet trucks are the most economical for all-round duty . . . because they give maximum gas and oil mileage, and will keep on serving over a long period with minimum care and attention.

And Chevrolet trucks are safer, more modern, more durable . . . because they're the only low-priced trucks with Perfected Hydraulic Brakes, New Steelstream Styling, Pressure Stream Lubrication, and extra-strong Chevrolet construction throughout.
