

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Hershey Park is becoming a popular resort for Sunday trips by young people from this section.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Goodhart, of Johnstown, spent the week-end with friends and relatives in Centre Hall.

Misses Frances Burns and Margaret MacHenry, of Houtzdale, spent a day with the C. D. Bartholomew family during last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Buckwalter, of Roselle, a suburb of Elizabeth, N. J., were week-end guests at the Packer-Brooks home. They returned home Monday.

The Rev. Karl W. Bowman was formally installed pastor of the West Kishacoquillas Presbyterian churches of Belleville and Allensville at a service held in the Belleville church.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Thayer, Mrs. Myra Hendrickson and son Clair, of Youngsville, visited with relatives in Potter township over the "Fourth." The ladies are daughters of Mrs. Carrie Horner and the late Rev. Andrew J. Horner, formerly of Potter township.

Mrs. Margaret Strohm and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Strohm, of Scranton, and Mrs. Lola Person, of New York City, arrived in Centre Hall the latter part of last week and remained over the holidays incident to July 4th falling on Sunday.

Mrs. Laura Lee, Mrs. Grace Breen, Miss Laura Breen and Bobby were taken to Dewart by Lynn Breen, on Monday, where they spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Sari Masteller, Jack Glenn, another member of the Lee-Breen family, is at the Masteller home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Goodhart, on Saturday evening and Monday, entertained a number of relatives and friends, among whom were her mother, Mrs. Catharine Lee, of Centre Hill; the latter's son, Roy Goodhart, of Irvington, N. J., and Mrs. Virginia Miller, of Philadelphia.

Judge M. Ward Fleming made the decree forbidding E. E. Wisler erecting a garage on the corner of Allegheny and Howard streets, Bellefonte, permanent. Mr. Wisler will appeal his case to the State Supreme Court and feels confident the Centre County Court decision will be reversed.

Miss Alice Burkholder, R. N., has secured a position in Philadelphia with the Visiting Nurses Association, a Public Health Agency. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Burkholder, Centre Hall, a graduate of Centre Hall high and trained for nursing in the Methodist hospital Philadelphia.

Miss Mary Dashem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dashem, Centre Hall, R. D., and cousin, Miss Patty Harshbarger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harshbarger, Altoona, called on the Reporter recently. Miss Patty much enjoys life on the farm and stretches her visits with her uncle and aunt to the very limit.

A steer, valued at about forty dollars, fell into an abandoned well on the Rhoneymede farm, on Sunday, and died from injuries before being brought to the surface with the aid of a wrecking car operated by Stanley Brooks. The section about the old well had been fenced, but the barriers became broken down, it appears. The well is some forty feet deep.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dillet, of Chicago, Illinois, are spending two weeks in this section and Newport, the latter place the former home of Mrs. Dillet. Mr. Dillet has held a position for twenty years in the accounting department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in Chicago. He left Centre Hall in 1909, but has frequently returned. The couple are traveling by motor car.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brooks motored to Pittsburgh during last week and brought back with them their daughter, Gloria, who had been with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Irwin for a month, also Prof. L. O. Packer and brother, Hensyl Packer. The latter will remain here for some time to recuperate after an illness. He is employed by the Lewis Foundry company as a mechanic.

A car operated by Ira D. Siegal, of State College, in failure to properly make the turn at the "black barn," below Pleasant Gap, early Sunday morning, resulted in the injury of two. Siegal had a fracture of the left arm and chest injuries, while his companion, Charles N. Fisher, also of State College, sustained a broken nose, fracture of the right leg and chest injuries. The damage to the car is estimated at $200.

Miss Helen Moon, of Johnstown, was a week-end guest of Miss Bertha Sharer, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sharer, near town. Miss Moon is a graduate of Lock Haven State Teachers College and is attending the summer session, taking advanced work. Another student in the Lock Haven educational institution visiting in town is Miss Marion Coffey, of Lock Haven, who is visiting with her brother, Clarence Coffey, and family. Mr. Coffey holds a position at the CCC camp, at Colyer.

T. C. Henney and daughter, Mrs. Anna Erb, and granddaughter, Miss Lila Erb, of Latrobe, were guests Saturday and Sunday of Mrs. Lucy Henney and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Henney. On returning home they took with them Mrs. Lucy Henney for a two weeks' stay. Mr. Henney left Potters Mills forty-seven years ago during all of which time except the first few months was spent in the Pittsburgh area, giving service in a steel plant, and is working there at this time.

LOCALS.

Mrs. C. A. Spyker and daughter, Miss Alice, on Tuesday, motored to Huntingdon on business. On returning the same day they brought with them Mrs. Sarah Donelson, of Marklesburg, mother of Mrs. Spyker, for a week's visit with her.

Donald Stover, of Coleville, died in the Latrobe hospital, Saturday morning, following injuries received in a motor wreck. Mrs. Stover is in an extremely critical condition in the same hospital from injuries in the same accident. Mr. Stover was aged 31 years.

Boys from town at the Juniata Valley, Boy Scout camp, Seven Mts., are Ernest Frank Jr., Jack Riegel, John Knarr, and Charles Ramer. The camp is in regular session, a number of Scouts there being from other points. The youths named above are members of the local Boy Scout organization, under "Ben" Wagner, leader. This particular camp period opened Thursday and will continue for two weeks.
