

Spring Mills

A COLLECTION OF NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND PERSONALS FROM GREGG TWP.'S METROPOLIS.

M. T. Duck, long a paint-brush artist, has been employed in painting a residence for Daniel Houser, in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Slack autoed to Brownsville last Saturday to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stoner of Centre Hall were weekend visitors at the home of John Bair.

The annual reunion of the Duck and Wert families will be held at the Woodward Cave on Saturday, July 17. In case of rain the reunion will be held the following Sunday.

The ladies of the P. O. of A. Camp No. 293, Spring Mills, will hold their festival on the athletic field, Saturday.

James Kerstetter, who has been employed in Cincinnati, Ohio, spent a few days with his family at Penn Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bartus, of Sunbury, spent a few days at the home of the former's father, Ivy W. Bartus.

Miss Lona Hanson, in training in the Geisinger hospital, is enjoying her vacation at the home of her father, Harold Hanson. This week she and her father are taking a pleasure trip to New Berlin, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Dukeman of Clearfield, visited the sister of Mrs. Dukeman, Mrs. C. C. Bartus, last Monday.

Bitners Go West and North—Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Bitner of Avis visited with Mrs. Ida Hackenberg on Sunday. Mr. Bitner, along with his brother Henry, of Lewisburg, intend to leave for Nebraska to visit their brothers, James and Daniel, who have been living in that State for a number of years. A daughter of the former couple, Miss Grace Bitner, of State College, also visited at the same place. She intends going to Montreal, Canada, and from there to Labrador, thence to Alaska, for her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hettlinger, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hettlinger, and daughter Irene, all of Paoli, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fisher, of York, were Fourth of July guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Hettlinger in Spring Mills.

John Zabler Gets Position—John R. Zabler entered the services of an extensive Vocational school at Oley, ten miles northeast of Reading, and began teaching agriculture, on Tuesday. He is employed for the twelve months of the year. The school has an enrollment of about 800 pupils, and is completely fitted to carry out vocational work. Mr. Zabler is a Penn State graduate, and is credited with having secured the best job of any of his classmates. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Zabler.

The carnival at Millheim was largely attended by young people from this section.

Mrs. Fern Mann, of Milton, visited her sister, Mrs. Bright Bitner, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman motored to Clearfield on Wednesday and brought back with them Mrs. Annie Smith who had been with her sister, Mrs. M. M. Overly, and family for two weeks.

Mrs. Pearl Decker had a new electric refrigerator installed by Mr. Heisey.

Visitors from Ohio—Charles Shook, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Shook, Miss Audrey Hench, of Rittman, Ohio, visited on Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shook and Mrs. Cora Shook.

Other Ohio visitors in this section came from Bellevue and were Mrs. Myrtle (Beatty), Hazel, her son and wife, and the couple's child, also Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Beatty. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Shirk, of Glen Iron. The elder Mrs. Hazel and Mrs. Shirk and Mr. Beatty are sisters and brother, and were reared at Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hockett of Millheim, on Sunday called on Mrs. Sylvia Grenoble.

Mrs. Magnus Duck was taken to the Geisinger hospital, Danville, on Wednesday of last week. Her husband and Carl Duck were at her bedside on Sunday, and found her somewhat improved. The indications are she will not need hospital attention for a much longer time. Mrs. Duck has been in rather delicate health for several years.

Merrill Walker Injured Spine—Merrill Walker, of Farmers Mills, while employed in State College by a contractor, fell when a scaffolding collapsed and injured his spine. The accident occurred Tuesday forenoon. He was taken to the Centre County hospital.

H. F. Erdley visited at Penna Brook, Hershey, the Military Reservation at Indiantown Gap, returning home on Tuesday morning. He was accompanied to Cochransville by Mr. and Mrs. Speaker Hartman. He reports wheat is being "hailed in" in Lancaster county, and a heavy rain at Amity Hall, Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stover, son Ellsworth and daughter Dorothy motored to Rolling Green Park, on Sunday, and found agreeable entertainment.

A double-header ball game between Williamsport and Hazleton, at Williamsport, was witnessed on Sunday by John C. A. Heckman, Amer Bartley, John Goodhart and Russell Hbuser. The first game was won by Hazleton, 4-2, and the second by Williamsport, 4-0.

Lemont comes to Spring Mills this (Thursday) afternoon to open the second half of the Tri-Valley series.

Jean Watts, a high school girl, lost her spectacles at or near the Vocational school building. The finder returning them will be suitably rewarded.

4-H Club to Hold Bake Sale—A bake sale that should be given liberal patronage will be held on Friday evening on the Vocational school lawn, but in case of rain in the school house. The young people will also offer entertainment. The club is made up of seventeen members, all of whom are live wires in the organization. The roster: Isabel Musser, Marie Long, Dolores Condo, Barbara Fetterolf, Bernice Fetterolf, Mary Osman, Jean Watts, Mary Zettle, Ruth Zuhler, Lois Shook, Rosella Walker, Gladys Showers, Betty Robinson, Marie Noll, Mabel Johnson, Maxine Long, Sarah Zuhler.

John Ryan, of Lancaster, a fraternal brother of Glenn Long at Franklin and Marshall College, visited with Mr. Long at the parental home in Spring Mills. State College and other points of interest were visited by the young men and companions on the 5th.

Spring Mills Wins Successive Games—The Spring Mills baseball team won two successive games when they defeated Pleasant Gap, on Saturday, by a 3-2 score in a 13-inning game. On Monday Pine Grove Mills was defeated by a 7-0 score. Lee Brown made three hits out of four times up in the Pine Grove Mills game and at Pleasant Gap he did a 3 to 5. Dean Ziegler hit 3 out of 5 in the P. G. M. game.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Hockenberry, of Spring Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Barton Searer, of Lewisburg, and Miss Emily Brown, of Milroy, motored to Atlantic City on Saturday and returned Monday. It was their first trip to the shore and proved to be one of great interest and pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hockenberry motored to State College on Sunday and returned home by a circuitous route.

Mrs. Theodore Brown, of near Atlantic City, N. J., her nephew and wife, visited with Samuel Brown, father-in-law of the former. Miss Mabel Brown, a daughter, of Sunbury, was also at the family home at the same time.

About the New Road—Contrary to general expectations there will be no under-pass on the new road for the accommodation of traffic over the Penna Cave road intersecting with Route No. 45, at the bridge. The Penna Cave road will pass over the new road at grade.

The bridge spanning the creek will have a 24-foot roadway and a 5-foot walk. The hill cut, back of Fetterolfs, means the handling of 27,939 cubic yards of earth.

In a general way the new road will follow the old road bed, except to be pushed north or south at curves, but no radical changes are made.

Mrs. S. L. Condo continues to be about the same as for the past few weeks. Mrs. Margaret Godshall is assisting to care for her.

Daniel Shook, of Coburn, called on Mr. and Mrs. G. C. King, Sunday.

BOALSBURG
Mrs. Edith S. Dale of State College, accompanied by her guest, Miss Scott, of Pittsburgh, called on friends in town on Saturday.

Paul Ripka submitted to a tonsil operation at the Centre County hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre, of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Belle McIntyre, of California, and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McIntyre, of Altoona, were visitors in town on Sunday.

Roy Raymond, of Pittsburgh, spent several days last week at the home of his sister, Mrs. George Homan, and family, returning home Friday. Mr. Raymond was accompanied by his niece, Marjorie and Jean Homan, who will visit indefinitely with their uncle.

Miss Anna Mary Hess returned home Thursday after spending several weeks with friends in Connecticut.

The W. H. Stuart family entertained Mrs. Stuart's sister, Mrs. Anna Graham, and family, of Norfolk, Va., over the week-end.

Mrs. Jacob Meyer recently spent several days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leo Brooks, near Spring Mills.

Mrs. J. D. Mayes, of Milton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ella Gingrich, and other friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McGirk, of Bellefonte, were week-end visitors in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mothersbaugh were guests of friends on a week-end vacation at Wildwood, N. J.

ALWAYS IN HOT WATER

OH, DADDY! WE'RE GOING TO HAVE AN ELECTRIC WATER HEATER IN OUR HOUSE. LIKE AUNT AGGIE HAS. ANY TIME WE RETURN THE SPIGOT, THE HOT WATER WILL COME OUT—ALL WE NEED. WE WON'T HAVE TO WAIT FOR IT TO GET HOT—IT'LL BE HOT RIGHT AWAY!

SAY, WHO'S BEEN TELLING YOU THIS?

OUR VISIT WITH AUNT AGGIE WAS AN EYE-OPENER, DADDY. THEY HAVE AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC HOT WATER SERVICE NOW—IN THE KITCHEN, LAUNDRY AND BATHROOM. IT'S WONDERFUL! SO CONVENIENT, SO CLEAN—AND IT'S SAFE. INEXPENSIVE, TOO.

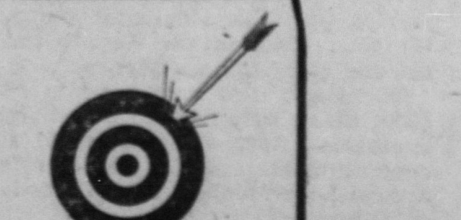

UH—HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

BUT daddy listens respectfully when his two "lady friends" talk. He knows very well that the family's present method of heating water is a perfect nuisance!

AUNT AGGIE SAYS IT COSTS THEM LITTLE MORE THAN TWO DOLLARS A MONTH. I DO SO WANT IT. WHY NOT LOOK INTO IT?

ELECTRICITY IS CHEAP ON WEST PENN LINES. I GUESS YOU'RE RIGHT. IT WON'T COST ANYTHING TO GET THE DETAILS. I'LL DO IT.

HM! Maybe daddy figures that the best way to get out of "hot water" is to get into it! At least, he'll investigate. Watch this newspaper—a week from today.

ANYWHERE ON WEST PENN LINES YOU CAN HAVE Automatic Electric Hot Water Service

IT'S NOT EXPENSIVE! Ask for a Free Home Survey and an estimate on an Electric Water Heater. No obligation!
