Deaths

HAUGH.—Harvey Haugh, 79-year-old retired Haines township farmer dropped over dead at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Norman Hazel, at Aar-onsburg, from a heart attack.

Mr. Haugh was born in Gregg township, April 10, 1858, the son of John and Sally Haugh. He married Margaret Elizabeth Hoover, who preceded him to the grave.

Surviving are five children, as follows: Rufus P. of Centre Hall; Robert H. of Washington; Mrs. Eva Grove, of Spring Mills; Mrs. D. Carrie Shook and Mrs. Norman Hazel, of Aaronsburg. Two brothers, Henry Haugh, of Spring Mills, and John Haugh, of Aaronsburg, also survive.

Burial was made at Madisonburg.
Rev. Harry A. Housel officiating.

BAIR.—As the result of a wound of a bullet from a small-calibre rifle discharged accidentally when the weapon was laid on a chair, LeRoy Bair died in the Lock Haven hospital on July 11th. He lived as a tenant on the Strouse farm, north of Penn Hall.

The accident occurred May 14.
Deceased, the son of Jacob W. and Josephine Bair, was born at Nittany, March 21, 1913. He was married to Mabel Neese, November 13, 1934, who survives with two children, Walter and John. His mother also survives, as well as these brothers and sisters: Harry Bair, of Minnesota; John W. of Elmira, N. Y.; Wm. F., Elvie Katherine Bair and Mrs. Elizabeth Garlety, all of Mill Hall.

Funeral services were held Wednesday of last week, and burial made in the Heckman cemetery, Rev. Griesing officiating.

HESS.—Harry T. Hess, who has been in the Home for Incurables in Philadelphia for the past 18 years, died at the institution on the 12th inst. He was a lifelong resident of Boalsburg and operated a store there prior to his illness.

Mr. Hess would have been 59 years old October 26 and is survived by one brother, William Hess, of Boalsburg.

The Grange Encampment and Fair Committee will meet on Grange Park this (Thursday) evening.

HUNDRETH ANNIVERSARY OF TUSSEYVILLE CHURCH

Appropriate ceremonies will mark the 100th anniversary of the dedication of the present brick church at Tusseyville, on Sunday, August 1st.

The edifice was erected by the Lutheran and German Reformed congregations, on land deeded to the two congregations.

On the anniversary day there will be two sessions—in the forenoon at 10:30 o'clock, and in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. At the first session, which will be formal, Rev. James M.
Runkle, of the Reformed church, Altoona, and Rev. Wm. J. Wagner, retired, of Boalsburg, will deliver short sermons.

The afternoon session will be informal in character and reminiscent.
The event will really celebrate three important anniversaries in the history of the congregations:

The 140th anniversary of the deeding of the land by William Early, Esq., to representatives of the two congregations.

The 125th anniversary of the organizing of the congregations.

The 100th anniversary of the dedication of the present church edifice.

CASHIER PRIEST ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Centre Hall First National Bank, on Tuesday evening, Fred Priest, who recently became cashier of the bank, was granted a three months' leave of absence. Mr.
Priest developed a lung infection and is now in camp McDewitt under the care of a most experienced specialist.

The board at the same time appointed Henry Hoffer, Phillipsburg, a clerk in the bank. Mr. Hoffer has had large experience in the banking business.

BENNER STORE BUILDING
SOLD TO DEWEY KRUMRINE

The Benner store building, close to the Centre Hall railroad station, will be razed or rolled to another site to make room for a modern gas station to be erected by Dewey Krumrine, State College, who recently purchased the building and site.

The store building is now occupied by the Vogt Motor Co. as a show room.

CHILD BURNS TO DEATH

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Stamm, aged three years, burned to death from a fire following an explosion of a coal oil can. The fluid was being poured when the explosion occurred. The mother, a flame with fire, plunged into a large watering trough and then ran into the house for her child, whom she found enveloped in flames in her crib. All the clothing, except shoes, were burned from her.

The Stammers live above Waddle, on the Bond Hartsock farm. The damage to the house was less than $100.

LOW BID FOR NEW ROAD
COPPED BY HUTCHINSON

L. M. Hutchinson, Mt. Union, was low bidder on the six miles of road between Centre Hall and Spring Mills, bids for which were asked by the State Highway Department. The Hutchinson bid was $222,567. The letting was in two sections—one from the western terminus of the road just completed to the Farmers Mills road, leading by the brick school house east of the Eungard farm, and the other from that road to Old Fort and thence to Centre Hall railroad station. The bid on one section (presumably the eastern) was $122,999, and for the other, $99,568.

The South Dakota horse dealers were all at the Monday evening horse sale held by Wm Gruenwald. John Gruenwald came up from Vicksburg where a sale was held, and Robert Dodds was with Wm. Gruenwald at Centre Hall.

TUSSEYVILLE

Mrs. Alwilda Bitner returned home Sunday from a visit to Youngstown, Ohio, with her son and family.

Misses Beryldine and Celesta Bryan of Centre Hall spent several days with their aunt and grandparents.

Miss Mary Swartz spent the past week in Bellefonte at the M. W. Williams home.

Roy Debes, of Harrisburg, Perry Detwiler, and family of Spring Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bryan of Centre Hall were Sunday callers at the A. O. Detwiler home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Grove of Huntington spent Sunday at the W. S.
Martz home.

HORNER—STONER.

LeRoy Paul Horner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Horner, of Centre Hall, R. D., and Edna Ruth Stoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stoner, of the same address, were united in marriage, June 23, by the Rev.
Clarence Wert at his residence in State College. The bride is at the home of her parents, while the groom, a graduate of Centre Hall high school in the class of '33, is employed at State College.

The Glasgow reunion brought to the community a number of the clan who have not been here frequently during the recent past. Among these are Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamby, of Philadelphia. The latter will be recalled by many as the daughter of the late John Y. Glasgow, of Colyer, deceased; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Elander, of Yuma, Arizona, and Mr. and Mrs.
Stanley Glasgow and daughter, Phyllis, of Philadelphia. The Hambys tarried with the George Searson family in town, the Elanders and Glasgows with their mother, Mrs. James Glasgow, at Coburn.

Cyrus W. Hunter, Stormstown, who died in his 91st year, was the oldest living alumnus of Penn State College.

HERE ARE THE Extra Services YOU GET WITH AN ELECTRIC RANGE: COOL—Oven insulated on all six sides instead of only five. There is also a minimum of heat radiation from platform cooking. Result: A comfortable kitchen.
CLEAN—No soot or grease deposits on curtains, walls or utensils. Foods don't stick to inside of utensils.
FAST—Cooks as fast as foods will cook.
CHEAP—Costs only about $2.00 a month to operate.
TIME-RELEASING—Foods are cooked without need for watching or testing, because of time and temperature controls.
SIMPLE—Fewer utensils required.
Many cooking operations eliminated, such as basting and searing of meats.
CERTAIN—Accurate temperatures—no guesswork.
BEST FLAVORS—Foods retain their natural juices and nourishing elements.
