BASEBALL.

Inability to hit Corrigan for more than one safe blow in 7 innings spelled defeat for Centre Hall in a postponed game Tuesday evening. While local bats were impotent, the Gap wags were pounding the Jamison offerings at all corners of the lot, forcing his retirement in mid-game. Durst relieved, but the momentum of the Gap attack was not checked for some little time.

Spring Mills, 6; Centre Hall, 1.

The surprise of the second cycle of the Tri-Valley Baseball League is the playing of the Spring Mills club. Taking the last two games in the first half, and then three straight in the second, the Spring Mills outfit bids fair to be a contender for first-place honors in the wind-up.

Last Thursday evening, on their home grounds, Spring Mills gave Centre Hall a drubbing, 6 to 1, hammering Peter Martz from the box, and taking several healthy cuts at Durst before the game finished. Although out-hit by more than 2 to 1, and outplayed at all stages, Centre Hall entered a protest on a disputed play. In the 3rd inning Lynn Brown was running home on an attempted double steal when Martz going down to second. On the base line, Brown crashed with Gerald Johnson, Spring Mills third baseman, and lay on the ground while Dean Ziegler walked over and tagged him out. Centre Hall's interference; Johnson claimed he was playing in for a bunt and therefore had a right to be in that particular location. Play was resumed. Centre Hall contends a possible rally was averted and the outcome of the game might have been different.

SCHEDULE OF GAMES

- Thursday (Twilight): Centre Hall at Lemont; Pine Grove Mills at Pleasant Gap; Spring Mills at Rebersburg; Saturday: Centre Hall at Pine Grove Mills; Lemont at Rebersburg; Pleasant Gap at Spring Mills.

LOCALS.

ALWAYS IN HOT WATER

GEORGE, I'M THINKING ABOUT INSTALLING AN AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC WATER HEATER IN THE HOUSE—ONLY THINKING ABOUT IT, Y' UNDERSTAND. ER—WHAT WOULD YOU CHARGE TO COME AROUND AND MAKE A HOME SURVEY, THEN GIVE ME AN ESTIMATE OF COST?

NOT A CENT, JOE. GLAD TO DO IT FOR YOU.

SAY, YOU'VE BEEN INVESTIGATING!

YOU'RE TELLING ME!

HM! It looks like Joe Waters isn't going to lose any time in installing automatic hot water service for the family.

IT'S SURPRISING THAT AN AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC WATER HEATER IS SO CHEAP TO OPERATE, GEORGE. I UNDERSTAND THE SIZE OF THE HEATER AND USE OF HOT WATER AFFECT COST BUT TWO PEOPLE HAVE TOLD ME IT COSTS THEM ONLY A LITTLE OVER TWO DOLLARS A MONTH.

DON'T bother telling him that electric hot water service is also CLEAN, COOL and SAFE, George—he KNOWS it. (Watch this paper next week!)

BOY! It hasn't taken our friend, Joe Waters, long to find out that West Penn's special electric water heating plan is a perfect honey!
