A COLLECTION OF NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND PERSONALS FROM GREGG TWP.'S METROPOLIS.

Petitions for Underpass—A petition was circulated by Harry Corman and was largely signed by residents here asking the State Highway Department to construct an underpass at the intersection of the Penns Cave road and the new road being built over the hill back of the present home of H. W. Fetterolf. This would permit traffic on the Penns Cave road to go under instead of over the new road. The outcome of the petition is variously viewed. Some predict the move is too late, while others hold the petition requests will be granted.

Work on the road was begun on Monday. A steam shovel dug itself in on the east side of the hill by mid-afternoon when a break halted further progress. A second steam shovel was cutting the tops of hills at the C. H. Eungard farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Hackenbury, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heckman, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Houser were among the large number of persons from widely scattered sections of the country to spend a part of Sunday at Poe Paddy park and enjoy a dinner spread under trees.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McCool of Altoona on Monday visited with Mrs. Jams McCool and left with them their two daughters, Ellen and Ruth.

Cows late one night last week, visited the garden of Mrs. Birdie Krape and Rev. Seth Russell, J. C. Robinson, living in the neighborhood, learned of it and left a good bed to drive the animals to a place of safety.

Harry Condo to Build Home—A contract was let to A. D. Smith, a local builder and contractor, by Harry K. Condo for a frame dwelling house, complete and ready for occupancy. The structure will be erected at once on a lot on the west side of the W. W. Reitz residence, occupied by Randall Meyer, on the north side of Long Avenue. The lot was purchased from J. C. Lee. Mr. Condo is a teacher in the Spring Mills grade schools. He and Mrs. Condo and young son Richard are living with Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Condo, parents of Mr. Condo.

Mrs. Silvia Greenoble visited at the C. H. Eungard home on Sunday.

John F. Harter, living with Ezra Harter near the Georges Valley church, purchased a new motor car. He is a painter and is regularly employed at Penn State.

Mrs. Mabel Finkle and Mrs. Grace McCool both had a birthday on Sunday and motored to the mountains to enjoy a birthday evening dinner.

Miss Lottie McCool visited with Mrs. D. M. McCool and Mrs. Grace McCool.

Mr. and Mrs. Windom Gramley and son John Gramley were guests on Tuesday of last week at the Smith-Corman home. The junior Mr. Gramley is principal of the Clymer high school, a position held for several years.

Bressler Home Purchased by Commissioners—The Wm. H. Bressler home, at the big turn at the western approach of Spring Mills on State Highway Route 45, was taken over by the Centre County Board of Commissioners to accomplish the obtaining of a right-of-way over Penns Creek and connecting with Route No. 45 to the front of the property in question. The new portion of the road will run close to the residence on the north side and through a large stable. Mr. Bressler, it is reliably reported, has purchased the E. T. Jamison home and will move into it in the near future. The home is now occupied by two families—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heckman and Mr. and Mrs. Hackenbury. The latter couple will vacate.

Clair Allison, second son of Harry Allison, is spending his vacation with his father. Mr. Allison lives in Jamestown, N. Y., and is engaged as an accountant with a large manufacturing concern. He is accompanied by his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rockey, of Altoona, on Sunday visited with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Condo. The ladies are sisters, daughters of the late Adam Finkle. Mr. Rockey is a mail carrier in Altoona.

The improvements at the grist mill are being pushed to completion. Mill will be ready for grinding considerably earlier than at first thought.

Mrs. Guy Corman and mother, Mrs. Annie Smith, attended the meeting of the Past Templars Ass'n at the home of Mrs. Walter Parsons, at State College, on Friday evening. Mrs. Parsons at the same time celebrated a birthday anniversary.

Two Couples Visit Falls—John Stover, of Coburn; Miss Eva Boyer, of Millheim; Paul Weagley, of Spring Mills, and Miss Caroline Gramley, of Rebersburg, spent the week-end at Niagara Falls and Coudersport. At the latter place the ice mine was inspected with much pleasure.

The remainder of the trout in the local developing pools, about 2400 were distributed during last week to places in nearby streams where it is confidently believed they will develop to a legal length for catching by next season.

Mrs. Annie Smith and Mrs. Guy Corman and Mrs. Sarah Corman, on Sunday, motored to Beech Creek and returned by way of Snow Shoe. It was a delightful mountain drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester McFadden, of Grand Blanc, Mich., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Bitner. The ladies are cousins. Mr. McFadden is employed by the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel company, and is on vacation at present.

J. C. Lee, station agent at Spring Mills, accompanied by Mrs. Lee and daughter, are on a visit to the eastern part of the state with their son and two daughters. While Mr. Lee is on vacation W. E. Fogleman, of Williamsport, is in charge of the station.
