DR. RUNKLE'S SERMON, DELIVERED AT 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF CHURCH

The Reporter is pleased to publish the excellent sermon delivered by Rev. J. M. Runkle, D. D., Ph. D., of Altoona, at the one hundredth anniversary celebration of the Lutheran and Reformed congregations at Tusseyville held Sunday a week ago:

"Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it."
—Ps. 127:1.

Henry Longfellow in his poem entitled, "Builders," reminds us of the fact that we are all builders:

"All are architects of fate
Working in the walls of time
Some with massive deeds and great
Some with ornaments of rhyme."
There are three types of buildings that you and I are erecting to which I would call your attention.

1st. we are Character Builders. Not reputation but character builders. Reputation is what the world thinks we are; character is what we really are. Character as some one has said is what we are in the dark. It is what we are and do when there is no human eye to see and no human ears to hear. In the building of character like in all other building the structure we rear depends upon the kind of material we use. There are certain things that are absolutely essential to the building of character:

(a) The first is clean thinking. No man can hope to build a pure character who is constantly filling his mind with immoral literature or constantly hanging upon the walls of sacred memory obscene pictures; for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

(b) In the second place, it requires determination. The art of saying no at the right time and in the right way. There are two ways of saying no; the one is to say no and mean it; the other is to say no with a yes wrapped up in it. When the Tempter came to our first parents in the garden they said no, but the Tempter knew that in that no there was wrapped up a yes. When the Tempter came to Jesus He too said no, but He said it in such a way that even Satan knew that He meant it.

(c) In the third place we must recognize the Expulsive Power of the Good. That means that the only way to keep our hearts and minds so full of Jesus Christ and truth that evil does not have a chance to enter. Jesus Christ built the most perfect character the world has ever known. And in the building of that character He not only observed what I have stated above but He also used the means which God has provided for the building of character; namely, prayer, Bible study and the Church.

For except the Lord build the house they labour in vain that build it.

II. In the second place we are Home Builders.

What a wonderful word that word home is! John Howard Payne was perfectly right when he wrote:

Mid pleasures and palaces though
We may roam,
Be it ever so humble, there is
No place like home."

But to build a real home requires more than simply living in a fine house, well furnished. Sometimes we forget that fact and omit the more important piece of furniture, namely the family altar. Some one has well said, a home without religion is like a house without a roof. When the trials and troubles come, as come they will, the churchless home must fall because it is built upon the sand.

Too many marriages are simply, man-made marriages and too many homes are simply man-made homes and unless the Lord build the house they labour in vain that build it.

III. In the third place we are Kingdom Builders.

When Jesus Christ was on the earth He built the Kingdom of God and He commanded His disciples to carry on the building of that Kingdom until it should cover the whole earth even as the waters cover the great deep.

How shall this Kingdom be built? The Inspired Word tells us not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit saith the Lord. Sometimes we forget this great truth and rely entirely too much on man-made methods. We imagine that beautiful church buildings, large choirs, big organs, eloquent preachers and plenty of organizations are sufficient to bring about the building of the Kingdom of God. Then, too, Denominationalism has often played a very strong part in our work of Kingdom building. We have been more concerned about making church members than in making Christians. We have urged them just to come in and join our church but Jesus reminds us of the fact that only the man that is born again of water and of the Spirit can see the Kingdom of God. The result has been that there are many men and women in every church who do not know the first principles of Christianity. Stanley Jones one day was talking to a number of boys in India and he said to them, "Now I want you to be perfectly frank. Why are you not Christians? Why are you not willing to become Christians? What do you think of Jesus Christ? Why do you not love Him?" One of the young men arose and said: "Mr. Jones, your Christ is wonderful, but you, you Christians are not like Him." We hear a great deal about the unconverted outsider but I frankly admit I am not as much concerned about the unconverted outsider as I am about the unconverted insider; because if the church will be saved in its fulness it will not

SOUTH SIDE DEMOCRATS TO MEET WEDNESDAY EVE. ADDRESS BY IVAN WALKER

Members of the Southside Democratic Club and their friends, ladies and gentlemen, will meet at the club's headquarters, the I. O. O. F. hall, Centre Hall, on Wednesday evening, August 18, 8:00 o'clock, at which time Ivan Walker, Democratic candidate for Judge in Centre county, will speak on current issues, political and otherwise.

Mr. Walker is an aggressive speaker, and well informed. One of the objects of the gathering is to give Southside Democrats an opportunity to become more intimately acquainted with their candidate.

LOYSVILLE BAND GIVES TWO FINE CONCERTS

The two concerts given by the Loysville Orphans' Home Boys' Band, on Thursday, were the best ever rendered by the organization in its frequent visits here. The offerings were performed under difficulties, but their leader, Paul J. Fisher, did not permit the handicaps to in any way interfere with the rendering of a concert of classical numbers.

Outstanding numbers included "Goin' Home," Largo, from New World Symphony—Dvorak.

"Sabbath Chimes"—A Reveille, featuring bells.

"Trojan Prince," overture, by Holmes.

"Merry Widow Waltz"—Lehar.

Marches: "Washington Post," "Rifle Range," "Joy Riders," "T. O. H. Band," "Loysville Orphans' Home."

Prof. Fisher is a born musician. He is a native of Reading and a graduate of West Chester State Teachers' College. He has been leading the band since October of last year.

The concerts were sponsored by the local Lutheran Sunday school, which held a picnic on Grange Park on the same day and a festival in the evening.

Almost at the opening of the concert it threatened rain, driving the audience to the large auditorium, but before the program opened on the stage the clouds parted and music was continued on the band platform on the outside. A half hour later shelter was again sought.

The festival proceeds were close to a gross of $100, but the net is estimated at around $25.00.

The offerings for the band were close to $40.00, which figure was much below that of former years.

BURKHOLDERS GATHER AT RAUCHTOWN CAMP

On Sunday Dr. and Mrs. Felix S. Burkholder and children Merton and Mary, of Flint, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Burkholder and children Troy, "Bud" and June, Wopkingen Condo, of Milroy; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur E. Burkholder, of Philipsburg; Miss Mable Wrights and Mr. McLaughlin, of Philadelphia; Miss Ellen Burkholder, of State College; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Deeder and Miss Pauline Burkholder, of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace and son Bruce of Penna. Furnace; Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. McClintic and children, Stanley and Margaret, of State College; Mr. and Mrs. Morris A. Burkholder and son Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Burkholder, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zellers and daughter Nancy, Mrs. Bruce Knarr and daughter Josephine, Mrs. James W. Royer and sons Wendell and Kenneth, of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burkholder and daughter Freda, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce W. Ripka, son Dean and granddaughter Wava of Centre Hill, motored to Rauchtown recreation park and there between showers partook of a sumptuous picnic dinner. The tables were so heavily laden that they actually groaned. Some of the guests returned by way of Jersey Shore others by West Milton and Lewisburg. All thoroughly enjoyed the outing despite the rainy noon hour.

John Nicholas Emerick Hints to Me!

The hints of John Nicholas Emerick, in this section, will hold a meeting in the Presbyterian church, at Myers cemetery, Buffalo Run valley on Saturday, August 14, at 8:30 p. m. The Emerick fortune will be discussed.

LARGE CROWD ENJOYS CLOVER FARM PICNIC

Approximately 20,000 persons from nine counties in the central part of Pennsylvania jammed Bland Park last Thursday to make the eighth annual Clover Farm picnic one of the most enjoyable and most successful of all.

The complimentary admission tickets were given out in profusion, entitling the wearer to all privileges and concessions of the park. Everywhere the amusements were crowded with happy children, as well as grown-ups. The airplane exhibitions and parachute jumpers thrilled all. Hundreds availed themselves of an airplane ride many of them being free.

The largest family attending the picnic was the Mattillo family, of Lilly, Pa., with 16, and they were awarded a bag of flour.

The picnic was made possible thru the 140 home-owned Clover Farm merchants, the Bayer-Gilliam Co., distributors of Clover Farm goods, and the 150 American manufacturers and packers whose products are sold through the Clover Farm stores. It was a great day and the thousands who were made happy are very appreciative.

DEMAND FOR TENTS AT GRANGE FAIR AGAIN FAR EXCEEDS SUPPLY

Grange Fair premium books have been distributed. The management is proud of its appearance as well as its contents. Campers and prospective exhibitors will find necessary instructions and directions. By observing the rules and regulations contained therein much confusion and annoyance may be avoided in entering exhibits as well as the opening of the camp. Extra copies of the premium book are available at office of the secretary.

The camp—that unique feature for which Centre County Fair is distinguished and marks one difference between it and other fairs in the East—is in process of organization on Grange Park tent erection is underway; floors and stakes being placed in position. These gradually take form and—tents up—line streets and avenues in orderly fashion ready to receive returning friends, and to make new friends for the camp. Each year this annual outing on Grange Park arouses the liveliest enthusiasm. And in this connection the committee desires to make public a statement in which it expresses regret the supply of tents is not large enough to satisfy all requests.

Tents, all lighted, rent for $3.00 for the 14x14 ft. size, or $7.00 for the 12x12 ft. size. Floors, bench, bunk and table in each tent. Electricity for cooking is $1.50 extra for the week.

The superintendent in charge of games and music has in view a number of new and exciting sport features which will be presented on the Park during fair week, certain to draw crowds and arouse interest anywhere. Ball games between some of the leading clubs in the county have been scheduled.

Arrangements for music indicate some of the best bands in Centre county will be on the fair grounds with promise of fine concerts from day to day. The popular amateur program will again be a part of the many entertainment features provided for the week.

Superintendent of general concessions is able to report a more interesting department than usual, having booked a number of good, clean shows, several new rides and other high-class entertainment. Without doubt the space allotted to this department will be filled with a variety of amusing and interesting features.

An unprecedented display is promised of all kinds of farm implements and general equipment. Dealers are securing space and making plans to have on hand the latest word in invention and improvement. Plenty of space is available and much of the machinery will be in actual operation. Automobiles and trucks of numerous makes will also be given ample display space as well as due attention. Altogether making of this important department a very interesting and informative section of the fair ground.

From information at hand barn and exhibit buildings will be crowded for space. Products of Centre county farms, gardens, orchards and homes will be placed on display, filling them to capacity. Plans and preparations continued during the entire year, makes certain the assurance of a splendid farm show, one outstanding in the history of the Grange Fair.

FESTIVAL THIS EVENING.

The Centre Hall baseball club will hold a festival this (Thursday) evening on the high school athletic field. A special attraction will be the East Centre County Band. A baseball game starting at 5:00 p. m., will be played between the home team and Pleasant Gap.

All the season's delicacies will be served at the festival, and bingo will be in operation for further amusement and entertainment. The boys will appreciate your support.

LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA.

Compton, Calif., July 25, 1937.

Enclosed please find money order for another year's subscription to your much-appreciated paper. We are always glad to receive the home news and perhaps you would be glad to hear from other former Centre Hall residents. My daughter Mildred, on her return trip to Yuma stopped to see Ross Bushman and his mother and enjoyed an hour's visit with them, and found them in good health and enjoying California climate as well. Mildred being one of Mr. Bushman's former pupils, they had many things to talk about, especially old-time school days.

Hope the heat is not too great in old Pennsylvania. Sincerely,
MRS. O. F. FUNK.

MILLER MOTOR COMPANY SPONSORS MOVIES

One of the nineteen trucks equipped with moving picture apparatus traveling through rural districts, stopped in Centre Hall on Friday and in the evening gave an entertainment on the high school athletic grounds. While the trucks are under the direction of the Chevrolet company, the local set-up was sponsored by the Miller Motor Company. A small part of the program was devoted to advertising, and the features showing the mechanics of the Chevrolet cars were highly interesting. Devoted entirely of advertising were three feature pictures shown on the screen. A second showing, all new features, will be exhibited on Grange Park during the coming fair.

SMITH—REESE.

At the passage of the Reformed church on Saturday evening at 7:00 o'clock, a very pretty wedding ceremony was enacted when Melvin Smith, State College, and Miss Margaret Reese, Centre Hall, were united in marriage by Rev. D. R. Keener, who used the well-known marriage service of his church.

The couple were accompanied by Miss Ruth Walker, and Russell Ballanger, both of State College, in the capacity of bridesmaid and groomsmen respectively.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Charles Coldron, Centre Hall, by a former marriage. She has been employed at State College for several years. The bridegroom is a native of Pocono Lake. His parents are deceased. He graduated from Penn State in the class of '36, majoring in art and dramatics. Since graduating, like his bride, has been employed in the college town.

The young people have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for a happy wedded life.

NO UNDER PASS FOR PENNS CAVE ROAD

It appears to be definitely settled that there will be no underpass for the Penns Cave road at Spring Mills which means the road will go over the road now under construction at grade.

The report current that the Bressler dwelling house had been taken over by the board of commissioners is incorrect. Of course, the small Bressler barn, as well as the hotel barn, will be demolished.

RHEUMATISM "CURE" COST FARMER $24.00

A band of gypsies robbed Frank Tressler, 65, Tyersville farmer, of $24 when they stopped him on the highway and offered to cure his rheumatism.

It took the gypsies just three minutes to rob and rob Tressler and then escape in their automobile.

It is believed to have been the same band that robbed Daniel Runkle, Penn Hall, of more than $50.00 two weeks ago.

SUGAR VALLEY 4-ROOM SCHOOL ANNEX APPROVED

Plans for a one-story, four-room annex on the east side of the Sugar Valley Vocational high school building at Logan were approved by the joint school board. If the plans are approved by the State Department of Education, the matter of a bond issue will be submitted to the voters in the three districts interested, at the November election.

FRESHMAN WEEK AT PENN STATE, SEPTEMBER 9-15

Over 1,400 freshmen will become acquainted with the Pennsylvania State College, its curricula, personnel and buildings, during the week of Sept. 9 to 15, Registrar William S. Hoffman announces.

During their week on the campus before the regular fall semester of the college opens, freshmen will be introduced to the deans of the various schools and heads of the departments, and will be given advice concerning their chosen courses of study. Conferences with student counselors on problems of student life will be held. Other activities include registration, placement tests, physical examination, library practice and campus tours.

TRAILER OWNERS MUST GET LICENSE

The 23,999 Pennsylvanians who own trailers and semi-trailers—from the single-wheeled luggage carrier to the huge van—must get titles to the vehicles by September 1.

Applications were mailed by the Department of Revenue to all owners. The fee is $2.

Owners of home-made trailers without serial numbers must apply for a special number plate in addition to the title.

"Coupling devices must be of approved types if the trailer or semi-trailer is used as living quarters or to carry passengers. Fire extinguishers must be part of the equipment.

Every commercial or house trailer must have at least three red flags and fuses, to be used if the vehicle is disabled on the road.

Coming, Monday and Tuesday of next week—"Pick A Star," with Paty Kelly, Jack Haley, Rosina Lawrence Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy.

MRS. R. S. JAMISON NAMED ASSISTANT TO PRINCIPAL

Thursday evening the Centre Hall-Potter school board elected David I. Graybill, Middleburg, to succeed William E. McCormick, who recently resigned to accept a position as a research man in the laboratory of the Wilson Products Company, Reading.

Mr. Graybill is a graduate of Middleburg high school and Susquehanna University. For the past two years he was employed by the National Youth Administration to organize bands in Snyder county.

In college he majored and minored in science and mathematics.

Mrs. R. S. Jamison, English teacher in the local high school, was named assistant to the principal.

POTTER SCHOOL BOARD ELECTS TEACHING CORPS

On Friday evening the Potter township school board at a meeting held in the Centre Hill school house, elected a full corps of teachers, including three not heretofore employed in the district for the 1937-38 school term.

Plum Grove, Miss Bertha Sharer, Centre Hill, Miss Lilae Brooks, Tusseyville, Miss Dorothy Brown, Tusseyville, Ernest J. Wagner, Colyer, George Sweeney, Earlsvorn, Miss Dorothy McMichael.

Potters Mills, grammar, Oscar Bierley; primary, Miss L. Geraldine Hoover.

Miss McMichael is from Stillwater, Columbia county. She is a graduate of Benton high school and Bloomsburg State Teachers College. She elected Rural Education work at college.

Mr. Bierley, Hubersburg, is a graduate of Walker township high school and Lock Haven State Teachers College. Miss Hoover, Altoona, is a graduate of Altoona high school and Lock Haven Teachers College.

4-H CLUB WORK FOR 32 IN CENTRE NOW ON

4-H Club Week at State College will be the center of interest for thirty-two Centre county boys and girls this week, according to Centre County Agricultural Extension Representative Eleanor J. Smith and R. C. Blaney.

Elimination live stock judging contest will be held for agricultural club members, and the following teams will represent Centre county in the State competition which is an important part of the Club Week program. General Live Stock Judging Teams: Arthur Hartle, Bellefonte, R. D.; Henry Illingworth, Jr., State College, R. D.; John Delaney, Jr., Centre Hill, Swine Judging Team: Donald Smith, Centre Hall; Robert Homan, State College, R. D.; Willard Sigel, Stormstown. Alternates on these teams who will judge as individuals are Harold Roskey, Bogalsburg, and David Noll, Centre Hall.

Girls representing home economics clubs are as follows: Garment Judging—Pine Grove Mills club, Prueella Edmonds; Unionville club, Georgianna Holt, Alice Brugger; Moshannon club, Marjorie Barger, Elops, Beals, Kaltry Kerin; State College club, Barbara Lang, Peggy McKenzie, Lillian Bender, Anna M. State club leaders announced that they expect an attendance of over 1000 4-H Club members from all counties in the state. In addition to the judging contests, the Club Week program includes many educational features as well as recreation.

MOTOR FUEL BEING TESTED FOR ANTIKNOCK

On July 29, the Atlantic Refining Company extended, through road tests, an elaborate research program which has been under way in their laboratories for many months. The work has centered principally about the antiknock quality of gasolines. Realizing that laboratory results, while accurate and reproducible, do not cover all the conditions met in actual operation, experimental fuels will be tested on the road under conditions ranging from mild to the most severe conditions encountered in city and country driving.

Ten cars representing the major portion of those in general use, will be driven over a section of road near Lewisport, with Sunset club house, Seven Mountains, as the northern turntable. Each car will carry a driver and a trained observer, who will note the performance of the gasoline under test. The technique employed will be to match the experimental fuels against standard reference fuels of known laboratory performance, thus providing a comprehensive road rating of each fuel in terms of octane numbers.

The road tests, scheduled to cover seven or eight weeks during the hottest period of the year, will be repeated later in the year in order to obtain similar data under cold weather driving conditions.

The young men performing the service for the Atlantic company are quartered at Green Gables, Lewisport, and come to the Sheffer Dairy store, Centre Hall, for their, midday lunch.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

Postmaster C. W. Boozer is driving a new Ford V-8. He has always held to the Ford line.

Mrs. Tressie McClellan, who underwent a major operation in the Lewistown City hospital recently, is back to her home here and continues to improve.

Frank B. Wagner and Doris M. Moltz, of Centre Hall, were granted license to drive motor cars at a recent test given applicants in Bellefonte.

T. M. Gramley, formerly of Spring Mills, recently celebrated his 81st birthday anniversary. He and Mrs. Gramley and daughter, Miss Orpha, live in Millheim.

The I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges of Centre Hall, Spring Mills, Rebersburg and Millheim are planning to hold a picnic at Woodward Cave on Saturday, August 21.

The several extra trains over the L. & T. on Friday, became necessary following a wreck of a freight train at Howard at 8:00 o'clock. Eleven cars were severed from the main train. The track was badly torn up.

Lacerations of the scalp and abrasions on the body were suffered by Mark E. son of Mark Warwick, of Pleasant Gap, when hit by a car operated by Woodrow M. Glasgow, of Coburn. The child, it is said, ran in front of the car.

The home of the late General Benner, at Rock, near Bellefonte, may be restored and be preserved as an historic shrine. Governor Earle is a descendant of the Benners and may urge the State Scenic and Historic Commission to take action.

Kenneth Frank of Centre Hall, and Miss Veronica Seppich, of Bellefonte, on Thursday motored to Pittsburgh where they joined friends of Miss Seppich on a motor trip to Cleveland, O., where the Great Lakes Exposition was one of the attractions.

The high cost of living was much in evidence on the Lewistown fair grounds last week, where 70 cents was charged a couple who ordered each a ham sandwich, which was not buttered, and with which came one slice of tomato and a lettuce leaf.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fryer are the proud parents of twin girls, born last week. Each little lady weighed over five pounds and their names are Sherry and Shirley. This is Coburn's first set of twins in nearly fifteen years and second set in thirty years.

Mrs. Kenneth Mark, Millheim, was operated upon in the Lewistown hospital recently for the removal of a growth in her right side. Her appendix was removed at the same time. The operation was very successful and Mrs. Mark was discharged from the institution last week.

A sale of a home at Sprucetown not previously mentioned was that occupied for many years by Calvin Harshbarger, owned by the late F. A. Carson. The property was sold by Mrs. Carson, last spring, to Wilbur Confer, who lives there now. He is employed at Whiterock quarries, Pleasant Gap.

Centre County Pomona Grange will meet at Hubersburg Saturday, for an all-day meeting. Nevin L. Lee will make the address of welcome and victor Brungrat the response. A special program will be put on in the afternoon which will be of especial interest to the ladies. The fifth degree will be conferred at the evening session.

During the past two weeks Brush and lower Penns Valleys were visited with liberal showers of rain which very much increased, if not fully guaranteed, a bumper corn crop in those sections. While these fruitifying showers were working miracles in the adjoining localities, fields about Centre Hall received scarcely a trace of rain.

The National Grange will meet in Harrisburg November 10 to 15 in its 71st annual session. The meetings will be held in two of the capital's most magnificent buildings, the State Educational building and the Zumbo Mosque. The National Grange, like the Pennsylvania State Grange, has become pronounced political, espousing the cause of the Republican party in state and nation.

The Tyrone Times, usually cautious in its news items, erroneously announces that Peace Hoffer, Phillipsburg, was elected cashier of the First National Bank in Centre Hall. He is, however, a clerk in the bank. Fred B. Priest, now on leave of absence, is the cashier. During the cashier's absence from duty, his place under banking rules, is taken by the assistant cashier who in this case is Daniel S. Daup.

A. H. Stover, of the Hosterman & Stover hardware firm, Millheim, left last Sunday for Chambersburg where he will spend two weeks attending the campus of the Penn Hall private school. This school, conducted by F. Melius Christiansen, music director of St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn., is a summer master course for choral directors. Mr. Stover is director of the St. John's Lutheran church men's choir and should have a most enjoyable and profitable experience at the school with more than 135 choral directors from 27 states.
