Wm. D. Shoop is making recovery from an illness of over a period of ten days.

Miss Nettie Campbell, of Bellefonte beginning of this week visited with friends in town.

Mrs. W. W. Reitz motored here from Bath, N. Y., and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Margaret Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Boyles, of Juniata, cousins of Richard Brooks, were guests on Sunday at the Brooks home.

Mrs. R. S. Jamison, on Monday evening, entertained a dozen ladies from Centre Hall and Bellefonte at bridge.

Miss Sarah Ziegler, of Rebersburg, underwent an appendectomy Thursday morning. She is a daughter of Mrs. H. C. Ziegler.

Mrs. Lizzie Whorley, who had been at the Shoop home for two weeks, on Wednesday returned to her home in Altoona.

Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Wagner and family are on a ten days' vacation at the home of the former's father, E. C. Wagner, near Elysburg.

Mrs. Kathryn Mark, widow of Prof. Wood Mark, of Blair county, was a guest for a part of last week of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mark.

Dr. C. G. Lewis, of Steubenville, O., spent Monday with W. L. Jacobs in town. From here he went to Mifflinburg where his father-in-law is postmaster.

Mrs. Lettie Goodhart Williams, of Barnes Corners, N. Y., and Mrs. Cleve Eugard of Spring Mills, were Tuesday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beck and son William of Cumberland and Mr. Beck's mother and granddaughter, of Harrisburg, visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hosterman on Sunday.

Betty Jane, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. MacMorran, of Spring Mills, was a guest on Friday and Saturday of Betty and Jane Vogt, children of Mr. and Mrs. George Vogt.

Miss Mary Coble has been meeting with success in caring for Mrs. Lanson Burris, who had been seriously ill for many weeks. At present she is able to be up for the three meals a day. Miss Coble is a niece of Mrs. Burris and lives in Williamsburg.

J. I. Fetterolf is an expert tomato grower as will be readily seen on looking over his garden. The tomato stalks are more than eight feet tall and have clusters of mammoth vegetables. They are mostly the beefheart variety, perfect in shape, and in quality unexcelled.

The Vogts, Edward and George, of Centre Hall; P. A., of Danville, and J. L., of Montandon, attended a clam bake at Elysburg, sponsored by a fire company. Mrs. George Vogt and three children remained with the Vogt family at Montandon while the brothers attended the bake.

F. V. Goodhart, suffering from a nervous breakdown, has been confined to bed since the night of August 5th on which day he conducted a funeral against the express advice of his physician. His condition today does not show any improvement. Miss Mary Garver, R. N., is the nurse in charge.

The robber who cut a corner from the glass in the front door at the Brooks service station on Tuesday night, July 27, and carried away two new tires, was apprehended in Elmira, N. Y., on Monday. More than thirty similar charges are filed against the man. He is said to have admitted the theft committed here.

Mrs. Catharine Burris, of Lancaster, accompanied by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hackert, and their young daughter Betty, of Lindley, N. Y., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lanson Burris, in town, on Tuesday. The elder Mrs. Burris, widow of Charles Burris, had been visiting her daughter and family at the New York home and the stop here was made on her way back to Lancaster.

Before his week's vacation in Centre Hall terminated, Frank O. Moyer received official notice of his promotion to the main office of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Co. in Cleveland, O. and reported to that office on Monday morning. He had been employed, since March of this year, as time-keeper in the linseed oil factory of the company. The notice was received with great pleasure by the young man.

Among the large number of the Heaton clan who gathered on Grange Park on Sunday in a family reunion were Mr. and Mrs. John B. King. The latter, forty years ago, was employed by the Malones when the Centre Hall water plant was constructed. He much regretted the passing of such a large number of prominent citizens during the lapse of time referred to. Mr. King is now employed by the Chemical Lime Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ketner, of Hanover, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Noah Ketner, of Charlotte, Mich., and Mrs. Annie Ketner Condo, of Elwood, Ill., came East last week to attend the homecoming of the Ketners, held at Vonada Park, in Penna Valley Narrows, on Saturday. The day previous the group were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Searson, in town, the Ketners being cousins of Mrs. Searson. Mrs. Irvin Stover and Mr. Stover also attended the gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin left here for Culver, Indiana, on Friday and on returning the latter part of this week will bring with them their son William, who will have completed his third summer term at Culver Military Academy, two in woodcraft and one as a naval cadet. The Kerlins arrived at Culver on Saturday. The week's program at the Academy is one of great interest and is witnessed by large numbers of people, and brings to the Academy many distinguished officers in the army and navy.

Farmer John Rudy has not been able to follow his vocation during the past week due to illness.

Anna Marie Whiteman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Whiteman, is on a ten days' visit with a great-aunt, Mrs. Charles Kerstetter, in Altoona.

Fred Luse, manager of the local Weis grocery store, is on vacation this week, and with his family motored to Niagara Falls and other points.

OH - I FINISHED WASHING AN HOUR AGO! WHAT YOU NEED, CLARA, IS A SPEED QUEEN!

SPEED QUEEN

You buy a washer to save time... make your washing easier.

Why not buy the washer that does this the best?

If you'll shop around... make comparisons... you'll find that Speed Queen's Bowl-Shaped Tub... its double wall insulation to keep water hot... and its amazing Safety-Roll Wringer... will do more to speed up your washing than any combination of features you can find on any other one washer!

When safety bar is pressed, both rolls stop, and power is fully disengaged.

Top lifts up like a hinge. Closes by merely pushing down. Self-adjusting pressure.

Ask us about it. We shall be glad to prove it.

Jelly Making Made Easy

The precise temperature, so important in jelly making, can be obtained at a flick of a switch on a modern electric range. You'll be delighted with the "coolness" of making jelly this way—and with the perfect results.

By LOUISE BROWN

DELIGHTFUL aromas all over the land proclaim that the preserving and jelly season is at hand. Soon bright rows of jewel-colored jellies will weigh down cupboard shelves and housewives will display them with becoming modesty and justifiable pride.

Of course, the test of these jellies is whether they taste as good as they look—and whether they have "jelled" properly.

There is no place for guesswork in jelly making, but if you are using an electric range you can have complete confidence that every glass of jelly will be just right. Precision temperatures, so important in jelly making, can be obtained and maintained at the flick of a switch. And if this is your first year to make jelly on an electric range you will be delighted at the "coolness of it all," for so little heat escapes into the kitchen. Really, the thought of working in a hot kitchen is the thing that keeps most women from making jelly.

Sterilizing Glasses

But before we proceed with our jelly making, we'll have to provide for sterilization of our jelly glasses. Here's a new idea for it. The capacious steam cooker kettle is practically a made-to-order, safe and economical sterilizer.

Just put 1 cup of water in the kettle and arrange jars or glasses upside down on the rack. Then turn switch to HIGH heat until steam flows freely from vent, continue on HIGH heat for 20 minutes.

Method for Jellies

1. Select ripe or slightly under-ripe fruit. (Apples, currants, grapes, plums, quinces, etc.) Wash, remove hulls, stems, etc.
2. Cut hard fruit into pieces without peeling or coring.
3. Add enough water to barely cover fruit; less for soft fruits.
4. Turn switch on HIGH heat until water begins to bubble, then turn to LOW heat.
5. When fruit is soft, drain through bag of muslin. (Do not squeeze. Allow several hours for juice to strain.)
6. Use a small quantity of juice, about 2 quarts. (Experienced jelly makers prefer to make jelly in small quantities for they find they have the most satisfactory results this way.)
7. Bring juice to a boil on HIGH heat; skim.
8. Add equal quantity of sugar (1 cup sugar for each cup of juice) and continue cooking on HIGH heat.
9. To test jelly, dip spoon into boiling liquid and when two drops fall off the spoon simultaneously, the juice will jell. Temperature test: 200°F.
10. Pour into sterilized jelly glasses. Cool. Cover with melted paraffin. Label and store.
