Barbara, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Potter, underwent an appendectomy in the Centre County hospital.

Mrs. S. S. Kreamer and daughter Miss Rebecca Kreamer, of Lewistown were week-end guests at the Bartholomew home.

Warren Wilson is visiting his aunt, Mrs. C. A. Spyster, in town, and Miss Jane Spyster is at Marklesburg, the home of Warren, for the week.

Miss Betty Edmonson, of Altoona, is a guest for the week at the W. W. Kerlin home. She is a young school girl who makes her presence felt among her companions.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Reiber, in Centre Hall, on Sunday night. This incident places a boy between two sisters in the Reiber family.

Miss Jean Stambaugh, of Unionville, is a guest of Miss Jean Bartholomew. The girls formed an acquaintance while they were hospital patients.

Mrs. Ruth (Osman) Haas, of Winter Haven, Florida, greeted friends on Grange Park beginning of the week. Mr. Haas is editor of the Chief, a daily newspaper in Winter Haven.

Miss Pearl Singfield, of Pittsburgh, is spending a few days with Miss Ann Wert, a school mate at Lock Haven Teachers' College, where both were students and graduated a few years ago.

Miss Grace Wible, who spent much of the summer at the Presbyterian Manse, returned to Beaver Springs to resume teaching in the schools at that place. The schools at Beaver Springs will open Monday.

F. V. Goodhart a patient in the Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia, continues to improve. This statement is deduced from reports made by attending physicians by telephone to Dr. C. H. Light.

Miss Maude Zerby, who for some time past has been caring for Mrs. Byron Fink, in delicate health, at Phillipsburg, is spending this week at the fair with her father, John W. Zerby, and brothers and sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Slack, of Coburn, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Stover, Mrs. Ann Kersetter and Miss Bess Meyer, the latter of Philadelphia, at a family dinner in honor of their daughter, Virginia's first birthday.

For the first time on Grange Park vendors of merchandise, and eating stands, were obliged to pay a mercantile tax, except of course, if it could be shown that the party or parties were legitimately established elsewhere in business and had paid the regular mercantile tax.

Miriam and Gloria Brooks, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brooks on Saturday returned from a three weeks' visit with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Irwin, in Wilkesburg. Mrs. Irwin accompanied her niece and remained for a few days during this week.

Following the favorable decision of the district attorney in Union county on the question of whether or not non-registered voters were qualified to sign a "dry" petition, the commissioners in that county have ordered the printing of ballots for the seven districts asking to vote on the wet and dry question.

The detour sign at the diamond was broken into small parts and scattered the width of two lots on Sunday morning at 1:30 o'clock. The car or truck came down the mountain. Broken parts of a headlight were found at the scene. The signs at that point have been frequently destroyed, but none so completely as the last one.

An additional transformer was installed Wednesday afternoon of last week at the Centre Hall sub-station. This will take care of the vast amount of current used on Grange Park. Last year West Penn Power was much alarmed due to the excessive demand made on the equipment. With the addition of a third transformer they are resting easy.

Mrs. Frank McClellan and children of State College and Mrs. C. F. Emery, of Centre Hall, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Finkle and daughter in Mifflinburg. Mrs. Finkle and daughter accompanied them on the return trip, spending several days with the former in State College. They returned to their home in Mifflinburg Sunday evening.

The summer season at Camp Susquehannock, Susquehanna county, near Montrose closed last week. Three men from here were engaged there and have returned home. R. W. Bohn, teacher in the local grammar school, completed his tenth season at the camp; his father, D. C. Bohn, closed his fourth season, and Ralph Arney his second camping season.

Thomas S. Johnson, one of Lewis-town's leading business men, was a caller at this office Monday evening, having come here to give the Grange Fair the once over. Mr. Johnson conducts a shoe store, succeeding former generations conducting the same business at the same place. This long succession of Johnsons won for the present Mrs. Johnson prestige highly prized.

Miss Effie Confer was taken to the Centre County hospital on Tuesday of last week and on Wednesday underwent an operation for the removal of a tumor. Her condition since the operation has been very favorable. Since the breaking up of her home along Sinking Creek, close to the E. W. Ripka farm, Miss Confer has been living with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reish, in Centre Hall.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS OF THE COMMONWEALTH, FOR APPROVAL OR REJECTION AT THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION TO BE HELD NOVEMBER 2, 1927, AND PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

No. 1A. A JOINT RESOLUTION. Proposing an amendment to section one, article eighteenth of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

WATCH cooking Go Electric! COOKS OF LONG EXPERIENCE CHOOSING ELECTRIC RANGES!

MRS. J. H. MILLS, CONNELLSVILLE, PA.

"I HAVE USED AN ELECTRIC RANGE FOR THE PAST TEN YEARS. I WOULD NEVER THINK OF GOING BACK TO MY OLD METHODS OF COOKING, AFTER THE WONDERFUL SERVICE AND ECONOMY MY ELECTRIC RANGE HAS GIVEN ME. THE AUTOMATIC TIME CONTROL GIVES ME MUCH MORE TIME FOR OTHER HOUSEHOLD DUTIES, AND I CAN DEPEND ONE HUNDRED PERCENT UPON MY RANGE TO DO THE COOKING JOB FOR ME."

70 OF EVERY 100 ELECTRIC RANGES ARE BOUGHT BY WOMEN WHO HAVE COOKED FOR 10 OR MORE YEARS!

Electric Roaster Cooks This Delightful Oven Meal with Perfect Ease

- MEAT LOAF (Your favorite style)
- SCALLOPED POTATOES (As you like 'em)
- BUTTERED BEANS (Or peas, carrots, etc.)
- BROWN APPLE CRISP (Or Indian Pudding or any steamed fruit pudding)

ONE thing that surprises most electric roaster users—in addition to the fact it performs so MANY cooking jobs—is the simplicity of operation.

"There is little more to it," says one woman, "than putting the foods in and taking them out again. Of course, the current must be turned on and the temperature control set, but the cook book tells you what heat to set it for and how long the foods are to cook."

A meal such as the one indicated above may be cooked in the roaster in any desired portions—for as few as two persons or as many as ten. No watching is necessary—and tastes are delicious!

Ask Your Dealer About Electric Roasters

DO you know that 36 of each 100 housewives who buy electric ranges have cooked from 10 to 20 years? And that another 34 of each 100 purchasers have cooked for MORE than 20 years?

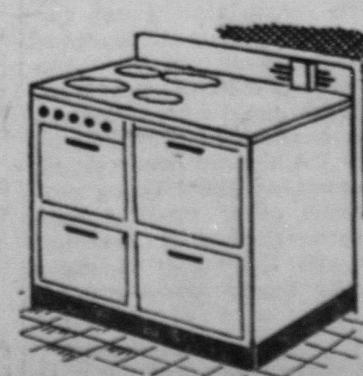

It is significant that so many cooks of long experience are turning to electric cooking. They recognize the advantages of the modern electric range over old-style methods. They know that the electric range—

- Assures kitchen comfort
- Provides greatest cleanliness
- Cooks cheaply. (The average monthly cost on West Penn lines is about $2.00)
- Provides fast cooking. (As fast as foods will cook)
- Assures finest flavors (Foods retain their natural tastes and nourishing elements)
- Requires the least amount of time and work

If YOU are not yet cooking electrically, make the change now. Today's electric ranges are surprisingly low priced.
