

Governor Earle Launches $65,000,000 Welfare Program

Upper left—Governor Earle making ceremonial address at the General State Authority's ground breaking at Lakewood State Village. To the Governor's left are President Glover of Laurelton, J. B. Kelly, Assistant Executive Director of the State Authority, and Warren Roberts, Auditor General, member of the Authority Board. Upper right—View of Girls' Chorus and orchestra seated on platform. Lower left—Governor Earle and some of the Lakewood patients. Lower right—The Governor takes a bite out of terra firma with huge steam shovel.

GOVERNOR EARLE STARTS $65,000,000 BUILDING PROJECT AT "STATE VILLAGE"

Governor Earle dug a hole in the soil near Laurelton, Union county with a small silver shovel, last Thursday, and began the work on the $65,000,000 building program of the General State Authority.

The chief executive broke the ground in the presence of his mother, Mrs. George H. Earle, Jr., in whose honor the Laurelton State Village was chosen as the first project in the vast rebuilding plan.

The State is getting $20,000,000 from the federal PWA as an outright grant for the program. The remainder is to be borrowed.

Hunters to Get "Game News" Free

In order that all hunters of the State may acquaint themselves with the Pennsylvania Game News, a monthly magazine of the game commission, a half million complimentary copies of the October issue of the publication are being shipped to all license buyers.

STATE S. S. CONVENTION TO CELEBRATE DIAMOND JUBILEE

The 75th Diamond Jubilee State Sunday School convention was held in Philadelphia, Pa., October 13, 14 and 15.

From a small, struggling organization, serving sporadically a few hundred Sunday schools scattered all over the State, it has grown to be a strong, aggressive, firmly-grounded Association, with a constituency of over 10,000 Sunday schools.

"AN EVENING OF MUSIC" ENJOYED AT TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

An exceptionally well rendered "Evening of Music" was observed in Trinity Reformed church on Sunday evening. Soloists from State College and Lock Haven as well as local talent took part.

The program follows: Bourree—Bach, Miss Olive Brown and Mrs. D. R. Keener. The Swan—Saint-Saens, Miss Brown.

How Beautiful Upon the Mountains—Harker, Miss Odenkirk. Hymn 61 (Reformed church hymnal), Sung by entire congregation.

Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 3-9.

Next week is fire-prevention week. According to Fire Marshall W. F. Treager, of the Penna. Motor Police at Harrisburg, a reduction in fire losses throughout the State was noticed for several years, but the trend this year has been upward.

Truck and Auto Collide.

Wednesday night of last week a truck operated by Donald C. Hill of Bellefonte was severely damaged and a roadster driven by John Kline of Denver, Colorado, was completely demolished when they crashed into each other near Zion, on the Pleasant Gap road.

The construction of the new road between Old Fort and Centre Hall Station will necessitate the relaying of the main water line in that section.

YOUTH KILLED IN COLLISION OF TRUCK AND SEDAN AT POTTERS MILLS, RT. 322

Richard Zellers, 18 years, of Highspire, lost his life in a motor accident at Potters Mills, Monday night at 7:30 o'clock.

The young man was driving an International truck and had crossed the Seven Mts. and was on his way to State College. At the intersection of Route 52 with Route 322 at the Warren Slack home, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benjamin newlyweds, of Brooklyn, N. Y., stopped at the traffic sign momentarily and then proceeded onto the main highway.

Her husband was uninjured. Patrolman G. F. Hirschbaum and Pinkeliner of the Pleasant Gap station of the Motor Patrol, investigated the accident.

Civil Service Exams. Announced.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced open competitive examinations as follows: Medical social worker, $3800 a year; associate medical social worker, $3,200 a year; and assistant medical social worker, $2,600 a year.

Reception for New Pastor.

A reception was held in St. John's Lutheran church, Millheim, Tuesday of last week, by members of the congregation and friends, numbering approximately one hundred and fifty.

66 PASS TESTS FOR AUTO DRIVER'S LICENSE

Driving privileges were granted to 66 persons following tests given by the examining detail of the Pennsylvania Motor Police at the National Guard Armory at Bellefonte all day Monday. Seventeen failed to pass the examinations.

CASHIER OF FIRST NATIONAL TO RETURN HOME THIS WEEK

Mrs. Frederick B. Priest and daughter Janet, of Williamsport, became residents of Centre Hall last week and are occupying the George McCormick property, recently vacated by William McCormick.

MOTOR ACCIDENT ON CENTRE HALL MOUNTAIN

Centre Hall Mountain, in the vicinity of the watering trough, was the scene of a motor accident midnight last Wednesday, when Earl W. Hildreth of Philadelphia, received a dislocated shoulder when his car crashed into a guard rail.

TITAN METAL PLANT ORDERED TO RETAIN ALL "STRIKE" EMPLOYEES

A National Labor Relations Board examiner filed an intermediary report instructing the Titan Metal Products company, Bellefonte, to "cease and desist" from "unfair labor practices" in violation of the Wagner Labor Act.

4 YEARS' SENTENCE FOR FORMER LYCOMING CO. TREAS.

Fearns E. Butler, Lycoming county treasurer from 1932 to 1935, was sentenced to four years in the county jail, fined $2000 and costs on two charges of embezzlement of county tax collector's funds, Thursday afternoon by Judges G. B. Metzger and D. M. Larrabee.

FORMER LOCAL BUSINESS MAN DIES IN CALIFORNIA

William W. Boob, former Centre Hall business man, passed away in Los Angeles, Calif., Friday, September 10th, and was buried the following Tuesday in that city.

Deceased was a son of Robert B. and Sarah (Sheary) Boob, both deceased, of Aaronsburg. He spent his boyhood days in that town.

In his early twenties Mr. Boob came to Centre Hall with his wife (nee Cora Reifsnnyder) and daughter, Miss Grace Boob, and remained here for about ten years. Miss Grace will be remembered as the golden-haired little girl who spent a very happy childhood in Centre Hall.

Mr. Boob's business was that of manufacturing wheels, especially buggy wheels. This in the day when automobiles were still unknown, dating from the latter 90's to the early years in the present century.

He leaves one daughter, previously mentioned, now Mrs. O. G. Frick, of Chicago, Ill.; also two brothers, Lewis of Akron, Ohio, and G. Clyde Boob of Millheim.

County Has Case of Infantile Paralysis.

Centre county has a case of infantile paralysis. It is the first case reported, and Dr. W. R. Heaton, attending physician for the victim, 4-year-old Mary Lou Chutko, said he would recommend closing the Hawkrun schools.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL.

Friday afternoon, S. W. Smith was brought to his home from the Lewisville hospital, where a little more than two weeks ago he underwent a major operation. He was accompanied by Miss Mildred Kauffman, R. N., of the Lewisville hospital.

REVISED SOCCER SCHEDULE FOR LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL

The soccer games between Centre Hall and State College will be revised due to the condition of the State field. State will appear here Friday of this week, and the local squad will play at State College October 29.

6000 VOTERS ARE STILL UNREGISTERED IN CENTRE

Just what is responsible for the apparent apathy on the part of 6000 voters in Centre county who up until last week had failed to register under the permanent registration plan, is not known.

Sale at "Rhonymede," Oct. 5.

The disastrous barn fire on the "Rhonymede" farm, Saturday a week ago, placed unusual hardships on the stock and implements, and this has forced Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks to have a speedy sale which has been set for Tuesday of next week (October 5th).

With an Indomitable Spirit Characteristic of the Man, Developed Through Thirty Years of Taking the Bad with the Good.

George Searson, of Centre Hall, upon the loss of his threshing machine in the Rhonymede barn fire, immediately set out to get a new machine, and in three days after the loss of the threshing had a new Frick on hand, which he brought home from Harrisburg.

John H. Puff, 75, of Centre Hall, lost the first joint of the small finger on his left hand in an accident last Thursday afternoon.

He was holding a bar which Edward Riter was striking with a sledge to loosen rock in a ditch at the Centre Hall station, when there was a slight misunderstanding between them as to when it was proper to strike.

Hitler recently entered pleas of embezzlement of $1,000 and $1,500 of county tax collector's funds.

His sentence was predicated upon these shortages, part of the estimated shortages of over $100,000 of county funds.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

Prof. L. O. Packer, instructor in Pittsburgh high school, was home with his family over the week-end.

Merrill E. Meyer and Lester Condo motored to Washington, D. C., on Friday.

Bell the Gunman (with emphasis on the "man") of Lewistown, was a business caller at this office last Thursday.

The Haines township school board will sell the Pine Creek school building and lot of ground at public sale on Saturday, October 9.

Garrick's Dairy of Centre Hall extended its business to Millheim, and is now delivering pasteurized milk in that borough, along with its local trade.

Warren A. Homan, of Centre Hall, salesman for the Weiser Chevrolet Co., Bellefonte, was in Lansing, Mich., during the week, looking over the 1938 Oldsmobiles. He accompanied other salesmen.

S. J. Keating, of Altoona, U. S. postal inspector, spent Thursday with Postmaster C. Wm. Booser, going over Uncle Sam's business in the local post office. Needless to say, everything was found to be in perfect order.

At the public sale of the real estate and personal property of the late L. P. Auman, in Millheim held recently, the home was purchased by James Auman for $1200. The household effects brought comparatively low prices.

The Kishacoquillas Valley hotel at Bellefonte is going out of business as a public hostelry. The owners, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sweigart, who have been conducting the hotel for the past year or more expect to quit October 1st.

A motor party comprising Daniel Daup, Sr., Edgar Miller, Mrs. F. V. Goodhart and Mrs. W. H. Potter drove to Philadelphia on Thursday to visit Frank V. Goodhart, a patient in the Pennsylvania hospital. They were pleased to find him improving.

Democratic headquarters at the county-seat have been opened in the rooms on the second floor of the Farmers Bank building, Bellefonte. The rooms have been nicely furnished and members of the party are welcome to call at all times.

Max Herr of Centre Hall purchased the equipment of the Cherry Restaurant, in Bellefonte, and will dispose of it to advantage, if possible. Mr. Cherry, after four years in the business, returns to his former position of driver for the Johnston Motor Bus line.

If you would avoid 5% penalty on your school taxes, in Centre Hall borough be sure you pay your tax before today (Thursday) passes. Other taxes have a 5% discount if paid before October 1st and 5 per cent. penalty if remaining unpaid the last day of the year.

We are now definitely in the fall season. Daylight saving time, too, is off the ticket and this means that we of the standard-time-at-all-times schedule, will not need put on our thinking caps when turning to the radio page for the time of our favorite program, and wondering if 10 o'clock means 9 or 11 for us.

J. W. McCormick of Columbia, S. C., and Charles H. Meyer, formerly of Reesville, were in Centre Hall for a short time Thursday, on their way to Tyrone. Mr. Meyer has been with his mother, Mrs. Eliza Meyer, 90, since her recent illness, and Mr. McCormick, her son-in-law, was on a visit, which was cheering to the aged lady. Mrs. Meyer's condition showed improvement last week.

Old Nitany and Seven Mountains formed perfect sounding boards for the heavy blasting which has been going on in the Bartholomew quarry at the station, where stone in large quantities is being procured for the Centre Hall-Spring Mills road. The detonations would do justice to a Japanese artillery. These giant roars however were emitted in peaceful pursuits and there was a certain majesty to it as the mountains threw back the sound and sent it reverberating through the length and breadth of Penna. Valley.

With an indomitable spirit characteristic of the man, developed through thirty years of taking the bad with the good, George Searson, of Centre Hall, upon the loss of his threshing machine in the Rhonymede barn fire, immediately set out to get a new machine, and in three days after the loss of the threshing had a new Frick on hand, which he brought home from Harrisburg.

John H. Puff, 75, of Centre Hall, lost the first joint of the small finger on his left hand in an accident last Thursday afternoon. He was holding a bar which Edward Riter was striking with a sledge to loosen rock in a ditch at the Centre Hall station, when there was a slight misunderstanding between them as to when it was proper to strike.

Hitler recently entered pleas of embezzlement of $1,000 and $1,500 of county tax collector's funds. His sentence was predicated upon these shortages, part of the estimated shortages of over $100,000 of county funds.