

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. Thomas Delaney and daughter Agnes spent the week-end with the former's brother, Henry M. Hoy, in Salona.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Venrick of Centre Hall entertained friends at dinner Saturday evening at their cabin in Krise Valley.

Potatoes and apples are cheap in price. The former are selling at 55c to 60c per bushel, and the latter at about the same price.

Charles D. Bartholomew entered the Centre County hospital yesterday (Wednesday) and is scheduled to undergo an operation upon a kidney today.

Mrs. H. L. Ebright accompanied Mr. Ebright to Atlantic City, where she will spend the week while Mr. Ebright works in southern New Jersey for a securities institution.

Rev. and Mrs. Seth Russell, the former pastor of the Penna Valley Methodist church, together with Misses Doris Moltz and Jane Spyster, attended a young people's conference held at Clearfield on Friday and Saturday.

Upon the resignation of H. M. Hoserman, Boalsburg, of his position in the purchasing agent's office, Penn State College, the vacancy was filled by the appointment of Paul McCormick State College. He was a member of the class of '35.

A valuable cow belonging to C. D. Bartholomew fell and broke her hip. She was ordered killed to relieve suffering as soon as the owner learned of the accident. The animal was one in a herd of cows kept on the Bartholomew farm tenanted by Lester Immel, a short distance west of town.

Attention is now being given to apple picking, and the crop is a heavy one. One outstanding orchard within the borough limits is that of Edward Durst, where young, vigorous trees are groaning under a burden of laden limbs of fruit. The varieties are mostly Baldwin and Winesap. The trees are indeed a sight to behold.

Mrs. W. Frank Bradford accompanied Mrs. F. V. Goodhart to Philadelphia during last week to visit the latter's husband, a patient in the Pennsylvania hospital in that city. They found Mr. Goodhart improving in a general way and anxious to return home. The trip by the ladies was made by rail from Lewistown.

Those who attended the President's Birthday Party in Centre Hall last January will remember the Penn State Varsity male quartette which delighted the crowd with their singing. The group has been signed up with radio station KDKA at Pittsburgh and made their first broadcast Saturday evening. The quartet comprises Jack Platt, of State College; Richard O'Connor of Mineral Point; James Unangst of Quakertown, and Charles Tilden of Hastings. Donald Dixon of DuBois is the pianist for the group.

Sumner Auman, of Potters Mills and Miss Edith Delaney motored to Bloomsburg and took in the last day of the fair.

Miss Alice Snyder of Hustontown and Mrs. A. M. Siper, of Gettysburg, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharer.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Moore spent the week end with relatives at Elysburg, and also attended the Bloomsburg fair, on Saturday.

Mrs. John H. Knarr is expected to return home from the State hospital, Phillipsburg, the last of this week, after having undergone an operation for the removal of two goiters, Thursday of last week.

George Cronnauer, wife and son, and baby, of Newark, N. J., came to Centre Hall by auto on Friday on their way to visit relatives in Patton. Mr. Cronnauer is a grandson of Mrs. Ella Shoop, of town.

Robert H. Goodhart, of Altoona, who had been ill for four weeks at the home of F. V. Goodhart, in Centre Hall, recovered sufficiently to return to his home on Tuesday. Mr. Goodhart suffered a heart attack.

A slight alteration in the local Lutheran church resulted in changing the pastor's study-room into a Sunday school class-room. A door was cut in a partition to permit easier and more convenient ingress and egress.

Power lines for electric light and power have been extended by the West Penn Power company to four farms in the Tusseyville section during the past week or more. These are the farms on which live Clarence Miller, Gilbert Timney, Arthur Rishel and Harry McClellan.

Misses Irene Zerby, of Clearfield and Maude Zerby, of Phillipsburg, and their small nephew and niece, William and Joan, children of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fink, Phillipsburg, visited with the father of the ladies, J. W. Zerby, where the children are at present being entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vogt, on an automobile trip visited Niagara Falls, Canada, friends in Detroit, Michigan and Toledo, Ohio, and the Exposition at Cleveland. A few days were spent with relatives in Pittsburgh. An uncle of Mr. Vogt, Gus Brunn, of Pittsburgh accompanied them to their home for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Goodhart of Johnstown, were at the home of their son, F. D. Goodhart, over Saturday and Sunday, and on the latter day took part in the celebration of the fifth birthday anniversary of their grandson, Frank William. His legal birthday, however, was not until Monday. Returning home with Mr. and Mrs. Goodhart was Mrs. W. F. Keller, who will also visit in Greensburg.

Mrs. Mary Stahl entertained on Sunday at her home to a fried chicken dinner, the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. P. Snyder and daughter, Maudella (Mrs. Snyder is a daughter of Mrs. Stahl). Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reuner, of Duncansville; Mr. and Mrs. J. Elvin Klepser, Hollidaysburg; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Liebzig, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Fryberger, Altoona.

Mrs. Wilbur S. Lucas, of near Penna. Cave was a pleasant caller at the Reporter office Wednesday morning. She reports that farmers in that section are being troubled with rot in the potato crop, in some instances to the extent of one-half the crop.

D. C. Fohringer, Potter township constable, was a Reporter caller on Tuesday to insert a small advertisement in a matter involving livestock which strayed onto another's premises and did damage. The livestock was seized and will be sold at public sale.

Police who investigated the case report that farmer John W. Delaney, Centre Hall, was in no way responsible for having hit Calvin J. Ziegler, 60, as he walked in the path of his car after changing his course in an effort to cross the road near Wagner's mill Bellefonte, on Friday.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Jamison during the past week included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kramer of New Haven, Conn.; Mrs. Ernest Brown of Millheim; and Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary, who were entertained at a dinner Tuesday night; and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Jamison and sons Rufus and Gray, who spent Sunday in Centre Hall.

The roast chicken supper served by the members of the Evangelical church, on Saturday evening, was well patronized. Those who sat at the tables found before them much more than an ordinary church supper—it was a repast. Every dish, from the perfectly prepared chicken to the cabbage was most excellent. The serving was also done to invite favorable comment.

Too eager investigating by Warren Foust, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Foust, at the Brooks barn fire on Sunday after the conflagration, resulted in the lad receiving a burn on the side of one of his feet. The lad stepped into a pile of ashes, causing a hot coal to splash up over his low shoe and fall into it, inflicting the burn, which is unusually slow in healing.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brooks are giving thanks daily since Friday, that their belief their baby daughter had swallowed some foreign object was an error. The child was rushed to the Centre County hospital where an x-ray revealed very definitely that the mother was in error in her surmise. The child, Nancy, is nine months old and given her fond parents and two devoted sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Finkle, of Buffalo, N. Y., were visiting friends in Centre Hall on Tuesday. Mr. Finkle informs the Reporter that he and Mrs. Finkle will move to their new home in Mifflinburg, next May 1st. Mr. Finkle for the past twenty-five years has been a valued employe of the Crosby Gold Medal Flour Mill in Buffalo, and will retire next spring. At present he and Mrs. Finkle are on vacation.
