PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH, FOR APPROVAL OR REJECTION AT THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION TO BE HELD NOVEMBER 2, 1937 AND PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

No. 1A. A JOINT RESOLUTION. Proposing an amendment to section one, article eighteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

That section one, article eighteen of the Constitution of Pennsylvania be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives; and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each House, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their journals with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general or municipal election in at least two newspapers in every county in which such newspapers shall be published; and, if in the General Assembly the amendments chosen, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each House, the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall cause the same again to be published in the manner aforesaid; and such proposed amendment or amendments shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the Commonwealth in the manner aforesaid; and at such time at least three months after being so agreed to by the two Houses, as the General Assembly shall prescribe; and, if such amendment or amendments shall be approved by a majority of those voting thereon, such amendment or amendments shall become a part of the Constitution of Pennsylvania; and amendments shall be voted upon separately.

No. 2A. A JOINT RESOLUTION. Proposing an amendment to section one, article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the ninth article thereof:

That section one of article nine is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. All property taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of property within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and shall be levied and collected under general laws; but the General Assembly may, by general law, exempt from taxation a uniform value in money of the total taxable value of each person's property or of the taxable value of homesteads, and also all property used for public purposes, actual places of religious worship, places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit, institutions of purely public charity, and real and personal property owned, occupied, and used by any branch, post or camp of honorably discharged soldiers sailors and marines. Uniformity shall not be required in the case of income inheritance, estate and other excise taxes which may be graded or graduated and provide for exemption; but all such taxes shall be levied and collected under general laws.

No. 4A. A JOINT RESOLUTION. Proposing an amendment to article fourteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by adding section eight.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

That article fourteen be amended by adding thereto section eight as follows:

Section 8. The County of Philadelphia as a municipal corporation separate and distinct from the City of Philadelphia is hereby abolished. Functions of county government within the city and functions of the Philadelphia county shall be performed by officers of the city who shall be appointed or elected, as may be provided by law; but nothing in this section applies to the manner of selecting judges and magistrates. Except as the General Assembly may otherwise provide, the tax-levying body of the city shall control all expenditures from the city treasury. Laws shall be enacted to provide that all appointments and promotions of officers and employees, paid out of the city treasury, shall be according to merit and fitness. No officer or employee, whose compensation of the requirements of whose office are met in whole or in part from the city treasury, shall receive for his own use any fee or commissions for any work done in the course of his employment by any public agency, and all such fees or commissions received shall be paid into the city treasury for the use of the city. No law regulating the affairs of cities or counties shall be held invalid as local or special because of the inclusion of provisions giving effect to this section.

Section 2. That no inconvenience may arise from the changes in the Constitution of the Commonwealth and in order to carry the same into complete operation, it is hereby declared that—

This amendment shall be effective immediately upon its adoption.

Immediately upon the adoption of the amendment all county and court officers and employees, paid out of the city treasury of Philadelphia, shall become officers and employees of the City of Philadelphia, and, until the General Assembly shall otherwise provide, shall continue to perform their duties and be elected, appointed, compensated and organized in such manner as may be provided by the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth in effect at the time the amendment becomes effective, but elected county officers, in office when this amendment becomes effective, shall be permitted to complete the terms for which they were elected.
