Deaths

LINGLE.—Mrs. Dena Caroline Lingle, widow of John David Lingle, passed away at her home in Spring Mills, Saturday night at 10 o'clock. Her death was sudden, due to a heart attack.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from her late home and continued in the Georges Valley church, Rev. W. K. Hosterman, of the Evangelical church, of which the deceased was a member, officiating. Interment was made in the Georges Valley cemetery.

Deceased was a daughter of the late Solomon and Elizabeth Shook Lingle, and was born in Penn township, June 21, 1873, hence was aged 64 years, 4 months and 2 days. Surviving are these children: Mrs. James J. Ripka, Spring Mills; Mrs. Robert Rider, Danville; Miss Stella Lingle, Laurelton. Also the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. A. C. Dunlap, Spring Mills; W. H. Lingle, Centre Hall; Mrs. H. H. Eisenhuth, Spring Mills; N. C. Lingle, Greenville, Mich.; Mrs. Harry Wingard, Coburn.

BITNER.—A. Newton Bitner died at his home at Watsonstown Saturday evening, aged about 70 years. He was a son of Benjamin and —Durst Bitner, and was born in Potter township. His parents moved to Illinois when the subject of this sketch was a small boy, but the youth soon returned to Penn's Valley, making his home with the Bibbes east of Centre Hall.

He took up railroading and was located at Paddy Mt. station for some years, and later was transferred to a station between Milton and Montgomery.

There survive him a widow, formerly Miss Rose Goodlander, and a son, Dr. Eliaire Bitner, a surgeon in the navy.

Burial was made on Tuesday in the Lincoln church cemetery, near Hartleton.

HARTER.—Mrs. Myrna Harter, wife of Paul Harter, of Altoona, died at the Mercy hospital, that city, Saturday morning a week ago, following several weeks' illness with complications. She was a daughter of Clair and Alma Wolf Gramley and was born at Smulton, this county, on June 4, 1912. Surviving her are her husband, one brother and three sisters: Henry Gramley, of Aaronburg; Miss Mildred Gramley, of Reading; Mrs. Charles Somers, of Tyrone, and Mrs. Elizabeth Loger, of Denver, Col.

Burial was made in the Carson Valley cemetery.

WEST PENN MERCHANDISE
PLANS EXPLAINED TO LOCAL DEALERS

Thursday night's meeting of the electrical dealers in the Episcopal Parish House, Bellefonte, proved interesting from several standpoints. It was arranged by officials of the West Penn Power Company for the purpose of explaining the details regarding the company's plan to step out of the electrical appliance merchandising business December 31. Over twenty dealers from the State College and Bellefonte districts were on hand.

P. H. Powers, West Penn's vice-president, conducted the meeting. He explained that it is the company's desire, in retiring from appliance merchandising, to assist independent dealers by engaging only in general promotional activities. Harry Restofski, Sales Promotion Manager, gave the highlights regarding the large market that exists for electrical appliances and equipment. He was followed by Wm. D. Peters, now in charge of electric range sales for West Penn. Mr. Peters told of the growing interest in electric cooking and electric water heating, mentioning also the home planning services made available to dealers whose customers may be interested.

West Penn's plan to quit merchandising and leave the field to independent dealers has elicited much favorable comment, not only here but nationally. Those in attendance the other night were most enthusiastic with the promotional assistance the utility has offered.

Wm. Spotts, State College, was granted retirement allowance by the State School Employees' Retirement Board. He was in service for ten years

TUSSEYVILLE

Mrs. Fred Brown of Colyer accompanied Mrs. Frank Hennigh and children on a trip to Lancaster county on Wednesday, returning the following day.

Mrs. Wm. Swartz and Mrs. Arthur Fortney of State College, were recent callers at the Fortney home.

Miss Beatrice Jordan of Colyer spent several days the past week at the Charles Slaterbeck home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Garis and daughter Bernice attended the funeral of a relative of the former at Sugar Valley on Saturday.

A. W. Holderman and family made a business trip to Bellefonte on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCormick and son Jon, of Mt. Penn, spent the week end at their former homes, those of A. L. Slaterbeck and G. H. McCormick.

Mrs. S. T. Swartz and daughter Mary were week-end visitors at the M. W. Williams home in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Grove and daughter Colleen spent Sunday at the W. S. Martz home.

Dick Mowery and wife of Newtown were recent visitors at the Milton Kline home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Detwiler were Sunday dinner guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Snare.

W. D. Shoop is improving nicely from an operation for an ulcerated stomach, on Thursday of last week, at the Centre County hospital. His condition is entirely satisfactory at this writing (Tuesday) to the operating surgeon and hospital superintendent.

Improvement from now on is almost certain to be more pronounced from day to day.

Jack o' Lanterns for Goblins

Jack o' Lantern sandwiches add the proper touch to Halloween refreshments for either young or grown-up goblins.

By Louise Brown

THIS YEAR when the little goblins and witches ring your doorbell and rush in for their annual frolic, what will you feed them? Of course, they'll expect to be fed—that's the best part of the party.

After they are tired bobbing for apples and playing all the other old games, young goblins will be nice and quiet if you give them a spread of Jack o' Lantern sandwiches, ginger snaps, pumpkin nutcracker, nuts and cider or orangeade.

To make the sandwiches, cut rounds of wholewheat and white bread. In half the rounds, cut eyes, nose and mouth with the kitchen scissors or a sharp knife.

Put the wholewheat faces on the white bread—and white faces on the wholewheat, with softened butter or a simple spread between.

Here are some wholesome spreads for the younger set.

Date Nut Spread—Grind ½ lb. dates and ¼ lb. pecan nut meats fine, alternating dates and nuts as they are fed into the grinder to give an even mix. Moisten to spreading consistency with 4 tablespoons of orange juice.

Mince Chicken—Chop or grind cold chicken and moisten with chicken gravy to a spreading consistency.

Grown-up goblins will enjoy these spreads.

Cottage Cheese with Olives—Rub ½ cups cottage cheese to a smooth paste. Add 2 tablespoons melted butter slowly, ½ teaspoon salt and 2 tablespoons minced olives.

Fig and Ginger Spread—Chop ¼ cups figs very fine and rub to a paste. Add 2 tablespoons ginger syrup and blend, or a small amount of finely chopped preserved ginger.

Lobster and Egg Spread—Chop 1 cup of lobster meat fine; combine with 2 hard cooked eggs which have been put through a ricer. Season with prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, salt and pepper. Moisten with salad dressing.

Windsor Spread—Cream 1/3 cup butter, add ½ cup cooked chicken and ½ cup cooked ham chopped fine. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

THE TRUTH

About the DESERTION, PROBATION and PAROLE SYSTEM

THE PUBLIC RECORDS available (1928-1936), both inclusive, show collections made and paid through this system as follows:

Support of Deserted Wives and Children - $100,012.32

Before this system existed support WAS NOT collected, therefore had this system not existed, either

(1) Deserted wives and children would have received nothing or

(2) THE TAX PAYERS OF THE POOR DISTRICTS WOULD HAVE HAD TO PROVIDE THIS SUM BY INCREASED POOR TAXES, THEREFORE, OVER $100,000 WAS SAVED TAXPAYERS THEREBY.

COURT COSTS - $30,031.51

Before this system existed PRACTICALLY NO COSTS were collected. In one of the years just previous to 1928 LESS THAN $100.00 in Court costs were collected. Therefore without this system such sum ($30,031.51) would have had to be returned to the County Treasury BY TAXATION.

THEREFORE, OVER $30,000 WAS SAVED TAXPAYERS THEREBY.

RESTITUTION - $14,034.75

Moneys and property fraudulently taken from Centre County citizens has been collected and returned to rightful owners.

LYING-IN EXPENSES - $3,138.86

This sum was paid to un-wed mothers whereby proper hospitalization was obtained and better mothers and babies given to society.

STIPULATIONS (commonly called Fines) $34,772.62

By imposing Probation Orders upon small violators and stipulating a sum of money to be paid to the county the money was paid to the County Treasury instead of being taken to Harrisburg and put into the State Treasury.

THE COST OF THE SYSTEM - $32,959.17

This includes all salaries, office, traveling and other expenses. All expenditures are passed upon by the County Commissioners and accounts are audited by the County Auditors.

THE SUMMARY

AS THE SYSTEM DIRECTLY AFFECTS THE COUNTY TREASURY—

Court Costs Collected - $30,031.51

Stipulations [fines] Collected - 34,772.17

$64,803.68

Less All Salaries and Office Costs - 32,959.17

BALANCE - $31,844.51

Plus homes re-established, wives and children fed and clothed, property returned, offenders encouraged to become good citizens, jobs obtained and a real and sympathetic interest in social welfare manifested

Light Harmonious with the Seeing Task

... Beautifies the Home

Young eyes need the protection of good light. Buy lamps which bear the I. E. S. Certification Tag. They give correct light for close seeing. The approved design prevents harmful glare, gives twice as much light as most other lamps of the same wattage. Dealers have table models for as low as $4. You can't afford to be without these safe-seeing lamps.

Almost three million of the famous Better Sight Lamps are now in use. Specifications by Illuminating Engineering Society. Look for the I.E.S. Tag.

Wide circle of adequate illumination assured by translucent filter bowl, wide shade—white inside, large enough bulb, and right height.
