

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Miss Ruth Reiber spent the week-end at Howard at the K. R. Wolfe home.

Mrs. Sallie Reitz is ill at the home of Mrs. W. H. Strohecker in Centre Hall, where she makes her abode.

Mrs. Anna Depew and daughter Mary Kling, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday with Mrs. Depew's brother, John P. Shields, at Mt. Union.

Mr. and Mrs. John Galbraith, of Youngstown, Ohio, spent last week at the John Rudy home, Mrs. Galbraith being a sister of Mrs. Rudy.

Miss Betty Ebricht, accompanied by a boy friend, was at the home of her parents over the week-end. Miss Betty is working for her master's degree in Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hess and young son Niel, of Winfield, were week-end guests of the parents of Mrs. Hess. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Burkholder, near Centre Hall.

Miss Grace Smith and Mrs. Lavan Smith, with their nephew, Clyde Smith, driving the car, spent Tuesday in Harrisburg where they visited another nephew, Russell Smith.

Mrs. Ella Shoop, on Saturday, went to Wilkensburg by bus to be with relatives. She will return prior to the discharge of her stepson, William D. Shoop, from the Centre County hospital.

Mrs. W. F. Keller has been ill during much of the past week, due to a nervous attack to which she is occasionally subject. During the beginning of this week she was able to be out of bed for a part of each day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams and another lady at the Williams home on Monday left for Florida where they will remain for the winter. They are making the trip in a trailer owned by the Williams for two years.

Clyde Smith rode his motorcycle from New York City to Centre Hall on Sunday and is spending a short time with his aunts, Miss Grace Smith and Mrs. Lavan Smith. He is engaged in electrical work in the big town.

Miss Sarah Odenkirk, a student in music in the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, accompanied Mrs. W. W. Reitz on a motor trip to her home here. Mrs. Reitz was surprised to find her mother, Mrs. Margaret Thomas, 86, ill and in bed, on her arrival here.

The relocating of the main water line in the borough between the railroad crossing and the south corporation line has been completed, and now the large wrought iron pipes lie underneath the berm of the new roadway. Pipes were laid across the road at three points: at the V. A. Auman and David Stoner homes and the Stoner farm.

The storeroom in the Penns Valley bank building, long occupied by C. F. Emery and at present by his son Howard Emery, as a general merchant, is undergoing a general renovation and improvement. When completed the store room will have a modern appearance and will be more convenient for both merchant and customers.

Earthen berms were being built along the concrete road over Nittany Mountain at Centre Hall prior to the concrete receiving a heavy coat of amesite to cover the many defects in the concrete, but now it appears the project has been abandoned, at least for the present. The original plan was to give a new wearing surface from a point a few hundred feet this side of Nittany Mountain top to the intersection of the brick road below the big turn on the north slope of Nittany.

The Keller road leading from the borough line by the way of the Sharer, Keller, Homan, Fetterolf, Crust and Lose farms to the Old Fort-Spring Mills State highway, is receiving a heavy layer of crushed stones. Light berms were first built up on both sides to keep the stones from spreading. It is understood the stones are furnished by the state, the road having been taken over by the state through recent legislation. The stones are trucked from Milroy and are furnished by Lester Shaffer.

Mrs. Hattie Meyer recently spent a few days at her former home at Pine Glenn.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Anna Depew and daughter Mary attended the funeral of Mrs. Depew's sister-in-law, Mrs. Ambrose Depew, at McAllisterville.

It is reported that C. A. Spyker purchased the former Brungart home from Max Herr. The writer was unable to contact either of the interested parties, consequently gives you the rumor only.

Lewis Garbrick, the local milk distributor, was awarded the contract to carry the mail to and from the Centre Hall railroad station. Mr. Garbrick also runs a bus for carrying school children from Potter township to the Centre Hall grade school and Earlstown school.

The grade school building in the Bush Addition, was afire Monday during school hours. The fire was observed by a pupil. The teacher, Frances Rine, dismissed her forty pupils in perfect order, and on leaving the school room they took everything moveable with them. The fire was later extinguished with chemicals.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Stanley Brooks, on Monday, left for a week's outing through the Shenandoah Valley, and on south to Hagerstown, Winchester and the Skyline Drive to Staunton National Bridge, Roanoke, Richmond and Washington, D. C. From there their course had not been decided on but it may be to Philadelphia and New York City. Baby Brooks has been left in the care of Mrs. Robert Wetzel, while the Brooks garage interests will be conducted by Ralph Emerick and Lynn Breen.

There is a possibility that F. V. Goodhart will be brought to his home from the Pennsylvania hospital, Philadelphia, within the next week. He appears to have fully recovered from his original illness, but recently a new affliction—phlebitis—inflammation of a vein on the inner side of the right leg near the ankle, made its appearance and since then he has been confined to bed. Mrs. Goodhart and Miss Grace Wible went to Philadelphia on Friday, returning on Sunday night. They were at his bedside much of the time they were in the city.

Mrs. H. R. White and Miss Jennie Thomas entertained two groups of associates on Thursday and Saturday evenings at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) White. The first gathering was comprised of members of a bridge club in which the hostesses were members and the Saturday evening group, in which husbands and "boy friends" participated, was an assembly of the Church School class members in which the hostesses are active members. At both gatherings delicious refreshments were served and the food and decorations had a distinctive touch of the Halloween season.

Democratic State Chairman David Lawrence announces that in Centre there are registered Dem. voters to the number of 9,537, and 10,471 Republicans, giving the GOP a lead of 937. In 1936 the same party had 14,307 against 11,195 Democrats, registered voters, giving them a lead of 3,112.

A Monument Erected-- to the memory of a loved one is a substantial expression of your lasting affection. To select one that will be appropriate requires careful consideration—for it must last through all the years to come. Let us co-operate with you by submitting suggestions based upon our wide experience as memorial sculptors.

"THE GADABOUT," 3-ACT COMEDY, TO BE PRESENTED BY C. H.-P. HIGH SCHOOL

"The Gadabout," a three-act comedy, produced by the Centre Hall-Potter high school pupils, directed by Mrs. Richard Parsons and James Myers, is expected to be ready for showing in three or four weeks, in the high school auditorium.

Lewis Hull, the father, who is portrayed by Jack Kirkpatrick, a self-made journalist whose disposition is becoming soured by imaginary illness; Viola Hull, the mother, whose principal duty is to worry over her family and smart enough to take advantage of the position, is played by Ed-gar Harter. Jean Slack plays the part of Diana Hull Eastman, the newly married daughter whose only real fault is a streak of obstinacy.

The town will be canvassed within the next week. Democratic State Chairman David Lawrence announces that in Centre there are registered Dem. voters to the number of 9,537, and 10,471 Republicans, giving the GOP a lead of 937. In 1936 the same party had 14,307 against 11,195 Democrats, registered voters, giving them a lead of 3,112.

sell Reish—the uncle, a happy-go-lucky young bachelor who has been too busy traveling to settle down. Letty Hamton—Frances Runkle—the colored maid, comedy type of Negro maid who takes liberties in the household. Oscar Pharis—Donald Foust—Hull's employer, an "important" type of business man. Lora Thorne—Lena Fye—his secretary, a likeable business-woman type. Chester Duran—John Wm. Dashem—a friend of Bill's an average type of young man who is always "willing to oblige." Charlotte Bordin—Martha McClellan—an actress friend of Bill's, attractive and rather theatrical. Francis Snyder will be in charge of the lights.

Vote for all the Amendments except No. 5. The last Amendment calls for borrowing $42,000,000 not now needed. The Republican organization is opposed to the passage of all the Amendments, principally to No. 2, permitting a graduated income tax which will save the man in moderate circumstances on future taxes.

In this issue are political advertisements boosting the election of Judge Fleming. Their appearance, and especially at this time, in the Reporter, does not carry with them the indorsement of the ed itors.
