A suggestion: Hang a holly wreath on the door. Put red and green bulbs in a twin socket mounted on the porch ceiling. Put strings of colored lights around the doorway, as shown above.

Attach the wiring for outdoor decorating to the socket of a porch or entrance light as illustrated if you don't have a convenient outlet on the front porch or by the entrance.

A convenient and inconspicuous method of furnishing current for an out-door lighting display is by bringing the wiring through a cellar or first-floor window as shown
