

REGISTER FOR WORK AT STATE EMPLOYMENT OFFICE

Secretary of Labor and Industry Ralph M. Bashore, commenting on Unemployment Compensation benefits stated payments did not begin on January 3rd, as many thought. January 3rd was the earliest date on which claims for Unemployment Compensation could be filed.

"Persons out of a job must register for work at the State Employment office nearest their home, file a claim for Unemployment Compensation and be ready, able and available to accept another suitable job if offered by the Employment Service. In the event that another job is not found for a worker within three weeks, then Unemployment Compensation checks will be mailed to the worker, direct to his home," Secretary Bashore declared.

The Secretary emphasized the point affecting payment of benefits. He wants persons eligible for benefits to remember that the Unemployment Compensation Law requires claimants to register for work at the nearest State Employment office and to comply with the rules prescribed by the Department of Labor and Industry.

"The principal thing to remember," said Mr. Bashore, "is that an applicant for Unemployment Compensation must return to the State Employment office where he is registered, once a week for three consecutive weeks, unless he finds another job, and that if another suitable job is found for him he is required to accept it, unless the job is declared open by reasons stipulated in the law."

"If another job is not found, benefit checks will be mailed the worker weekly—but all recipients of Unemployment Compensation checks will be required to report their availability for work even during the periods check are being received. This is another important factor eligible workers should remember."

Compensation payments will be made to any eligible employe in a covered industry who is or who becomes unemployed on or after January 1, 1938, and who has complied with the following requirements:

1. Within a workers base year, has earned wages from employers of not less than thirteen times his weekly compensation amount.

2. Registered for work at the nearest State Employment office in his locality in such manner as the Department of Labor and Industry has prescribed.

3. Made a claim for compensation in the proper manner prescribed by the Department.

A State Employment office is located in Bellefonte, in the old post office building, Spring street, and is in charge of A. E. Mingle of Coburn.

SENATOR NORRIS SAYS

F. D. R. MAY RUN IN '40

Senator Norris, veteran Nebraska independent, said that methods of "delay and coercion" employed in opposition to the administration may "bring a demand that President Roosevelt seek a third term."

Norris said in an interview that opponents have resorted to "propaganda and control of the press" in efforts to block the Roosevelt program. "I can't help but notice the apparently unanimous agreement between newspapers, prominent business men and the utility men to fight Roosevelt's program," the Nebraska said.

"They may succeed in delaying it for a time, but they can't do it always."

"If the opponents of Roosevelt continue their methods of delay and coercion until the expiration of his term then I think there may be a demand that President Roosevelt seek a third term."

4-H LAMB CLUB ROUND-UP HELD; AWARDS MADE

The Centre County 4-H Lamb Club Round-Up was held in the stock judging pavilion at State College on Wednesday of last week according to R. C. Blaney, county agent.

Members received awards as follows: blue or first place ribbons: Beulah Peters, Stormstown; Daniel Stearns, Lemont; Robert Homan, State College; Donald Ross, Centre Hall; red or second place ribbons awarded to Helen Homan, State College; David Noll, Centre Hall; Dean Ross, Centre Hall; Wm. Sigel, Stormstown; third place awards or white ribbons went to Richard Luse, Centre Hall; John Delaney, Centre Hall; Arthur Hartle, Bellefonte; Inez Luse, Centre Hall; Mac Bennison, Howard; Harold Rockey, Boalsburg.

Awards were based on the individual merit of their pens as follows: placing in ring, daily gain, and record books.

The Centre county group will exhibit in nine pens at the State Farm Show. These pens were selected on individual merit as determined by the judge, P. C. McKenzie, and are as follows: Helen Homan, Daniel Stearns, Robert Homan, David Noll, Richard Luse, Dean Ross, Beulah Peters, Arthur Hartle, and Donald Ross.

The remaining six pens were purchased by Lee Smeltzer of Pleasant Gap. Owners of pens eliminated at the local round-up were awarded prize money by the Centre County Bankers' Association to help defray their expenses to the Farm Show. All pens exhibited at the Farm Show will receive a minimum of $8.00 prize money.

In addition to the 194 CCC camps closed the last week in the old year it is planned to close 200 more in May, 1938, will leave 1200 camps in operation, providing for 225,000 men.

AWARDS MADE IN LIGHTING CONTEST; J. F. WETZEL CAPTURES FIRST PRIZE

The Centre Reporter's Christmas Home Lighting Contest came to a close on Thursday evening preceding Christmas when the judging committee viewed all homes that had been entered. The judges reported difficulty in making their decisions and had to re-visit some of the homes a second time to reach a conclusion.

The winners and the awards are as follows:

First prize, an electric roaster, to Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wetzel; second prize, a double slice bread toaster, to Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin; third prize, table study lamp made in accordance with certified I. E. S. specifications, to Rev. and Mrs. I. R. Keener.

Honorable mention is also given to the homes of Dr. H. R. White, F. V. Goodhart, D. C. Mitterling, J. Wm. Bradford, Meredith Coldron.

Possibly a dozen other homes in the town had pretty illumination, chief among which was that of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Daup.

The Centre Reporter desires to thank all who participated in making the contest a success. Probably more home lighting and decorating was done this year than at any previous time in the past. We are particularly appreciative of the services rendered by the judging committee, consisting of Mrs. R. S. Jamison, Mrs. George K. Rimmer and Jack Coldron.

WHITE GIFT SERVICE IN REF. CHURCH, CHRISTMAS EVE

A most lovely White Candle and White Gift service was held in Trinity Reformed church on Christmas eve. In spite of icy roads a surprisingly large audience was in attendance.

The service was begun by familiar Christmas carols played on the trumpet from the belfry of the church by Prof. David Graybill, and accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Delas R. Keener, who also had charge of the combined junior and senior choirs.

Many European and American carols were sung antiphonally by the choirs, preceded by interesting descriptions by the pastor.

During the singing of Away in a Manger by the junior choir, the wee children from the Beginners Department, bearing white gifts, traveled toward Bethlehem, indicated by a star. These gifts later were sent to Bethany Orphans Home at Womelsdorf.

The choir, dressed in white, were led in the processional and recessional by the acolytes, the Misses, Agnes and Mary Delaney.

The church was decorated beautifully with evergreens and many white candles, under the direction of the committee composed of Robert Bradford, Mrs. Gervin Schaeffer, Mrs. H. R. White and Prof. J. F. Wetzel.

IVAN WALKER TAKES OATH OF OFFICE, MONDAY NOON

Ivan Walker, a practitioner before the Centre county courts for twenty-five years, became judge of that court on taking the prescribed oath at 12:00 (noon) on Monday, before an audience that filled the spacious court room.

The second item of importance at that time was the announcement of the merger of the desorption, probation and parole office with that of the juvenile court office. Swengel Smith, of Bellefonte, will fill these positions.

After quoting a brief paragraph of law, Judge Walker announced the abolition of the office of cost clerk, and placed the duties of the district attorney as provided in the law quoted. A saving of $2000 annually was anticipated by these changes.

Other appointments announced were: D. Paul Fortney, court clerk; J. T. Merryman Boggs township, Archie C. nfer Gregg township, Joseph Welch Phillipsburg, and Mrs. Joseph L. Runkle, Bellefonte, tipstaves. J. K. Johnston, Esq., E. L. Willard, George S. Denithorne, J. T. Henry, J. L. Yarnell, Charles Hudson, J. S. Searly, and D. F. Houser were named a board of viewers.

The oath of office was administered by Prothonotary White to district attorney-elect Musser Gettig.

Miss Mary L. Hartle, secretary to Mr. Walker for a number of years will be retained as his secretary in the judge's office.

BROOKS BUYS GARRBRICK MILK ROUTE; POSSESSION FRIDAY

The Garbrick milk route and a part of the pasteurizing plant in Centre Hall has been purchased by James D. Brooks and beginning tomorrow (Friday) service will be available on it for both raw and pasteurized milk. The Garbrick equipment purchased will be moved to the Brooks dairy farm, west of Centre Hall, and will enlarge the facilities of the plant operated since the Frank dairy was taken over.

The purchase of the Garbrick plant by the Brooks dairy places the milk retail business in this section under one head, a condition long desired by customers to insure complete service. The Brooks dairy will continue to produce the greater part of the milk retailed.

The dairy building erected on the Garbrick premises will be taken over by Vern Garbrick, who will carry on his electric welding there. He is now proceeding to erect a home directly west of the dairy building.

MR. AND MRS. A. R. LEE CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lee, of Boalsburg, observed their golden wedding anniversary on Monday, Dec. 27th. More than 100 members and friends of the family were present.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lee are lifelong residents of Centre county and have made their home in Boalsburg for 27 years. They first went to housekeeping in Bellefonte, where Mr. Lee was employed by a lumber company. Later they began farming for T. D. Boal.

Their marriage took place at Pottery Mills and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. King, then pastor of the Centre Hall charge of the Evangelical church.

Three daughters in the family are Mrs. Mary Breen, of Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Tammie Houtz, of Boalsburg; and Mrs. Eloise Gilliland, of Oak Hall Station. Jacob Lee, of Spring Mills, and George Lee, of State College, are brothers of Mr. Lee and Mrs. Philip Bradford, of Centre Hall, is his sister.

Mrs. Lee's sister and brothers are Mrs. Henrietta Confer, of Milroy; Ralph Smeltzer, of Spring Mills, R. D.; and Wm. Smeltzer, of Mossy Rock Wash. There are eight grandchildren in the family.

The Gleaners' Sunday school class of the Evangelical church was entertained by Mrs. George Sweeney at her home. Those present were Mrs. George Ralston, Mrs. George Johnson, Genevieve Ruble, Ruth Hartley, Mrs. Agnes Jamison, Mrs. Wm. Hanna, Mrs. John Schaeffer, Gertrude Ishler, Mrs. Hayes Ralston, Mrs. Wm. Fiedler, Mrs. Harold Bradford, Mrs. John Whitman, Mrs. Reuben Rickert, Mrs. Samuel Bitner, Mrs. Lawrence Hartley, Mrs. W. K. Hoeterman. Gifts were exchanged as a feature of the Christmas season. Decorations and refreshments were appropriate to the season.

"TIGER" STAFF MAKES TRIP TO HERSHEY; THIRD PLACE AWARD FOR SCHOOL PAPER

Five members of the "Tiger" staff of the Centre Hall-Potter high school and Mrs. Agnes G. Jamison, advisor, spent two days of the Christmas vacation at Hershey attending the convention of the Pennsylvania School Press Association, and brought back a third place award for the "Tiger" in competition with all other school-news magazines in the state.

Mildred Homan, Lois Rees, Ralph Arney, Robert Gerhart, and Jack Kirkpatrick were the first staff members from Centre Hall to attend this annual convention which this year surpassed all other records with an attendance of twelve hundred.

Ross Downing of the United Press; Samuel W. Grafflin, and William Haskell of the New York Herald Tribune, men well known in the field of journalism, were the principal speakers and the "Ice Follies of 1938" in the Hershey Sports Arena provided the chief source of entertainment.

Mrs. Jamison, who is a member of the executive committee of the press association, expressed her gratification that the "Tiger" had received an award this year as the competition was unusually keen. All the other awards in the news magazine division of the contest went to large schools, Williamsport, Dallastown, Swarthmore and Bethlehem high schools.

INTERIOR OF EVANGELICAL CHURCH BEING IMPROVED

The chancel in the Evangelical church is being rebuilt, the auditorium will be furnished with entirely new and modern pews, and the floor covered with a new Brussels carpet. The walls will also be papered and wood-work repainted. The chancel will extend the entire width of the church and will be elevated two steps from the main floor and separated by panel work with a top rail. The pulpit will be located on the right and the lectern to the left, as viewed by the congregation.

The pews, manufactured by a firm engaged in making church furniture will arrive early in February, and during that month special services of a dedicatory nature will be held.

The carpentry work is being done by the Garrets of Rebersburg, while the paper hanging and painting will be executed by J. M. Coldron.

LUTHERAN PARISH BALANCED ALL ACCOUNTS FOR 1937

Penns Valley Lutheran parish, made up of five appointments—Centre Hall, Tusseyville, Georges Valley, Farmers Mills and Spring Mills—Rev. L. Arthur Wagner, pastor, made an enviable financial record during the calendar year just closed. Each congregation was able to meet every financial obligation of the year. These included benevolence apportionment, pastor's salary, and all current local expenses. In addition to this during the flood early in the year, the parish paid $150 to a fund operated by the Synod. This was credited as extra benevolence. Each congregation upon settlement found a balance in its treasury.

Of the more than thirty thousand quarts of canned fruits and vegetables donated to the Tressler Orphan's Home during the past year, Centre Hall parish was mentioned among the three largest contributors.

PORT MATILDA UNDERTAKER, 56, MOTOR CAR VICTIM

Samuel S. Osman, justice of the peace and undertaker in Port Matilda, was instantly killed on Sunday following Christmas by a car operated by Bernard H. Englehart, principal of the Muncy-Muncy Twp. high school. The man's neck was broken, skull fractured and he received internal injuries.

A jury empaneled by the county coroner exonerated the school man. It was claimed the unfortunate man turned abruptly into the path of the car.

LETTER FROM NEW MEXICO

Silver City, New Mexico, December 18, 1937.

Dear Reporter: Herewith money order for $3.00 to advance Reporter subscriptions of myself and brother, R. S. Kerr, for another year.

Mrs. Kerr and I are here, visiting a niece, Mrs. Tucker, who before her marriage to the Rev. Roy Tucker in 1935, was Laura L. Williams, of Chicago. They came here this past summer from a charge in Middleburg, Vt.

Silver City is an up-to-date city of about 4000 population, located in the south-west portion of the state. Cattle raising and mining are the principal industries. The winters are mild, but they do have some freezing weather, which is not surprising in view of the elevation. The town is about 5900 feet above sea level, and much of the surrounding country is higher. It is hard to imagine a more brilliant sun than the one we are enjoying today.

Enroute here we visited the Carlsbad Caverns, making the trip from El Paso by bus, a round trip of 320 miles. Also spent a little time in Juarez, Mexico, just across the Rio Grande from El Paso. Before mentioning Juarez I should have stated that the Carlsbad Caverns are very wonderful. We walked four or five miles 750 feet or more below the surface of the earth. About 30 miles of caverns have been explored but are not yet open to visitors. WM. B. KERR.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT OF LOCAL YOUNG WOMAN

Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Goodhart announced the engagement of Miss Beatrice Baumgardner to Wayne S. Biting at a buffet supper given to their close friends and relatives on Monday evening, December 27.

Miss Baumgardner is a graduate of Centre Hall high school, a graduate of the Presbyterian Hospital in Philadelphia, and is now employed in the Centre County hospital. Wayne S. Biting is supervisor of vocational agriculture in the Montgomery-Clinton school at Montgomery. He was formerly from Spring Mills where he was assistant teacher of vocational agriculture. He is a graduate of Penn State.

After the buffet supper the guests enjoyed bingo and cards.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement of Robert H. McCormick and Miss C. Isabel Bradford was formally announced on Thursday evening at a gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. McCormick, Pottery Mills.

A six o'clock dinner was served prior to the arrival at 9:00 o'clock of a group of young people. Seated at the table were Mr. and Mrs. McCormick, their son Robert and fiancée Miss Bradford, their daughter, Miss Laura Belle, and friend, Charles Jodon, Mrs. Laura McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Bradford, Robert Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wetzel, Clara Lou Wetzel, Mrs. Robert Walker, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Smith.

At the later hour invited friends came to the home to spend the evening in dancing. Delicious refreshments were served with Miss Laura Belle McCormick acting as hostess. In the center of the cake served to each individual was a message announcing the engagement of Bob and Belle as they are familiarly known to their friends. The announcement was followed with the usual congratulations to the prospective groom and the wish of great happiness for the bride-to-be.

The rooms of the home were beautifully and appropriately decorated for the occasion.

The later arrivals were Miss Geraldine Hoover, Miss Beatrice Baumgardner, Wayne Biting, Miss Sarah Odenkirk, Wm. P. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bradford, Robert Walker.

BOOZER HOME, CHURCH ST. SOLD TO J. S. BOOZER

The three-story dwelling house next to the Lutheran church on Church street, was sold a few days ago to J. Shannon Boozer, who with his family expect to move into it between this and spring.

The property was a part of the estate of the late D. A. Boozer and was occupied by his widow until her death a short time ago.

The house was erected by George Harpster, one of the Harpster brothers who carried on blacksmithing in Centre Hall. It was built before Mr. Harpster located in Freeport, Ill. Previous to this he also erected the dwelling house now occupied by W. F. Colyer.

It appears the sales price of the Boozer home was around $3000.00.

FOSTER—WILKINSON.

Miss Emily Wilkinson, of Philadelphia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilkinson, Bellefonte, became the bride of David Foster, son of Dr. J. V. Foster, State College, at a ceremony performed in the church of St. John the Baptist, Philadelphia, at 10 o'clock Christmas morning. The Rev. Russell Clapp officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by Misses Isabel Clapp and Emily Standard as bridesmaids. Edward McConnell of Montoursville was best man. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Foster left for a wedding trip to the Poconos.

Mrs. Foster is a graduate of the Bellefonte high school, class of 1930, and the Evans Dental Institute, Philadelphia, where she has been employed for the past several years. Mr. Foster is a graduate of State College high school, class of 1930, attended Temple University, Dickson Junior College and Penn State. He is now athletic coach at Litzitz high school.

The couple have been at home in Litzitz since January 1.

FIRE ON PENN STATE CAMPUS DESTROYS "BULL PEN"

Penn State's Chemistry Annex—including the historic auditorium known to thousands of graduates and students as the "Bull Pen,"—was destroyed by fire shortly after noon on Wednesday of last week. While the building loss is taken care of by insurance, the equipment and records were of incalculable value.

DR. POLING URGES SUPPORT OF F. D. R.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling, pastor of the Baptist Temple, Broad and Berks sts., Philadelphia, believes the nation should support President Roosevelt wholeheartedly in the present international crisis.

"Not only are the interests of the United States involved," he declared in his Christmas morning sermon, "but the very life of responsible Government and democratic institutions is at stake. Silence in the presence of repudiated treaties, ruthless invasions, insolent disregard of neutrals and mass murder of non-combatants is an invitation to world war."

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

H. L. Elright, former cashier of the local bank, is now employed in the First National Bank at Newport.

Former Judge M. Ward Fleming, of Bellefonte, and Wm. T. Litke, of Phillipsburg, have formed a law partnership.

Bruce D. Rowe, of Bloomfield, N. J., spent Christmas day in Centre Hall as the guest of his sisters, Mrs. J. Wm. Bradford and Mrs. J. S. Boozer.

Richard Bailey and William Weaver, employed in Baltimore, Md., were at their respective homes in Centre Hall over Christmas.

An Unemployment Compensation and Employment Office was opened in Bellefonte on Monday with Albert E. Mingle, Coburn, as director.

You are urged to read the advertisement of the First National Bank of Centre Hall in this issue. It will undoubtedly cause you to give more thought to your method of banking in the future.

Mrs. Sue Acker, of Millheim, who several months ago fell and broke a leg, and has since been confined to the Centre County hospital, made the effort to get out of her bed at the institution fell again, and broke her ankle. She will not be obliged to remain several weeks longer. She will be 87 years old this coming spring.

A daughter, who has been named Mary Ann, was born in the week prior to Christmas to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wert, Mr. Wert is employed at the Tressler Orphans Home, Loyseville. Next spring he and Mrs. Wert and the late arrival will move onto the John B. Wert, Sr. homestead, located west of Tusseyville and will conduct the farm.

A. Roy Martz and daughter, of Lewisistown, called at this office recently. Mr. Martz, who has been employed at the Viscose works for fifteen years, which dates almost from the beginning of the operations, has been retained while a limited number of employes have been discharged. He and his family attended a dinner at the John Jordan home while in the valley.

The huge earth dam in Poe Valley, constructed by the CCC camp, was filled to overflowing by rains and melting snows during December. The dam, covering an area of twenty-six or more acres, and with beaches created along the southern shore line, will be quite a recreation spot for summer tourists and outdoor pleasure seekers. Water to the depth of about four inches poured over the spillway.

The Vespers Christmas services observed in the Lutheran church for the first time at 11:00 o'clock on Christmas eve, was attended by a participating audience much larger than anticipated when the movement was started. It was a simple worship service conducted by the pastor and congregation, a junior choir furnishing the music. The church was lighted with candles and made a very pretty appearance.

Miles Barger, carpenter and builder, of Spring Mills, R. D., was a business caller at this office a few days ago. He is now building two residences in Pleasant Gap, one for Harvey Markle, on the crossroad, and another for Elwood Brooks on the Horntown road. Next spring he will begin work on three other private residences, a second one for Mr. Markle and one each for William H. Noll and Samuel Noll. Looks like the building up of Pleasant Gap will continue throughout '38.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bradford, Mrs. and Mrs. James C. Goodhart, Mrs. Catharine Lee, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blazer, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Bradford, Mrs. N. C. Kryder, Mrs. Wm. Bitner, and Mrs. M. F. Roseman, of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee, of Spring Mills and Mrs. Clyde Boyer of Sunbury, were among the large number of persons who attended the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Lee, at Boalsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Frazier, of Painesville, Ohio, were guests of the former's mother and sisters near and in Centre Hall, during Christmas week. Mrs. Frazier is a western lady and had never had the thrill of seeing a deer in its native haunts. Her brother-in-law, Dan S. Daup, undertook to gratify her and proposed a motor trip over Seven Mountains.

Eyes carefully scanned the woods without success until the Milroy reservoir was reached. Here a stately buck stood, having dismissed the precautions taken during the recent hunting season. With careful maneuvering, Mr. Frazier got a perfect "shot" at him with a camera.

Mrs. Ellen Miller, widow of the late Rev. J. K. Miller, former pastor of the local Lutheran church, now living in Johnstown, celebrated the ninety-first anniversary of her birth on Christmas day. She has been living with her daughter, Mrs. May Custer, for a number of years. The anniversary event was celebrated by the daughter holding open house for the mother, who has many friends among the officials of the Cambria Steel plant, the daughter's husband, the late L. R. Custer, having been general manager of the plant at the time of his death.

Mrs. Miller regardless of her advanced age, continues interest in the affairs of the world, and is in good health and spirits. The Reporter extends felicitations.
