

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. Edward Durst has been taking frequent treatments for sinusitis from a State College physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Saupp, on Monday, moved into the Centre Hall hotel apartment. Mr. Saupp is a State highway inspector.

The Spring Mills Independent basketball team will play the Centre Hall Independents, on the Centre Hall floor, Monday evening.

John Bitner, of Potters Mills, in delicate health for some months, is now with a sister, Mrs. Roland Foust, in Altoona.

The State Highway Department recently sanctioned the use of guide fog lights, formerly banned. Many of these lights were in use on cars locally.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Smith expect to move to Axemann in the near future. Mr. Smith is employed by the Neidich Brothers Limestone Co., State College.

George Smith, who moved to Axemann last week, moved into a home purchased by him from Simon Rote. The location is almost opposite the Smith Pontiac garage.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Condo, of Greensburg, and their daughter, Mrs. Stuart Rand, of Pittsburgh, attended the funeral of Mrs. Condo's sister, Mrs. Ida Snyder, whose body was interred at Centre Hall on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Keemer Runkle, son and daughter, of Middleburg, spent Sunday with Miss Laura Runkle at the Centre Hall hotel. Mr. Runkle is employed in the auditing department of the State Treasurer's office, Harrisburg.

S. E. Sharer, farmer and later engaged in huckstering, of Linden Hall, was a caller at this office Monday. He was somewhat pleased to say that his three sons, like himself, managed to go along without depending on any of the agencies giving aid.

Dr. and Mrs. Chester Bardole and Mr. and Mrs. Mack Maloney, of Williamsport, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Priest. Mr. Bardole, as his title indicates, is a physician, and Mr. Maloney is a teller in the First National Bank in Williamsport.

The deal whereby the milk route and a portion of the equipment owned by L. H. Garbrick was to pass to James Brooks, failed to materialize. When the parties concerned met with an attorney to draw up a contract, a misunderstanding as to the cash involved was in evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ebright are preparing to move their household goods to Newport, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Ebright recently was elected to the cashiership of the First National Bank in Newport, an institution with more than a million dollars of assets.

Miss Helen Rines, who contracted scarlet fever a short time ago, has about fully recovered. The quarantine is expected to be removed on Saturday. Prior to becoming ill she had been employed at Pleasant Gap. She was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rines, west of the borough limits, during her illness.

Nancy, thirteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brooks, is suffering from abscessed ears, and in addition contracted measles a few days ago. The child had not been away from the home for some time, and is not known to have contacted any one having or any one having been exposed to the febrile disorder. Dr. Allis, of Lewistown, on Tuesday evening, used the lancet on the ears, which afforded relief.

Ordinance No. 4, Centre Hall borough, passed on Monday evening by the council, is advertised in this issue of the Reporter. The ordinance refers wholly to sidewalks and provides for their construction on all streets and alleys of a width of thirty feet or more, and the repair of the same, if so ordered by the council. A careful reading of the advertisement will be of interest to all property owners. The council at the same meeting prepared a budget for the current year.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

On Monday evening the Senior Service class in the Lutheran church gave a shower for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Breon, newlyweds, at the home of Mrs. Laura Lee. A large number of useful articles were presented to the couple.

Miss Betty Ebright, who is taking post-graduate work in the University of Pittsburgh, was accompanied to her home here by Allen Bayer, of Bakerton, Ohio. Miss Betty, in connection with her college work, is employed in Gimbel's store, Pittsburgh where she is getting the practical knowledge necessary to the course she is pursuing, which has to do greatly with fabrics.

The Senior Service class in the Lutheran Sunday school gave a farewell luncheon for Mrs. H. L. Ebright, a member of the class, at her home on Tuesday evening. The class members were largely represented. The evening was spent most pleasantly. A much appreciated gift to Mrs. Ebright was a book on poems by the late Mrs. Ada Butz, of Centre Hall.

HERE IT IS--The Queen OF I.E.S.* APPROVED LAMPS

SOMEWHAT taller than most floor lamps, the I. E. S. approved 3-Candle Floor Lamp is indeed graceful and statuesque.

You'll be proud of it for its beauty alone. But you'll appreciate even more the flood of rich, diffused light it provides—in levels of 300, 200 and 100 watts, as you prefer. It also has three Mazda lamps in the candles.

Here is cheer for the living room and real eye-ease for your family. I. E. S. approved 3-Candle Floor Lamps are moderately priced—ask your lamp dealer to show you the models he is displaying.
