COUNTY FARM LOAN ASSN ELECTS DIRECTORS, ORGANIZES

Approximately 42 people attended the annual meeting of the Centre County National Farm Loan Association held at Y. M. C. A., Bellefonte, last Thursday, to hear the report of the Association's activities and elect directors, says Charles R. Rhodes, secretary-treasurer.

Directors elected for three-year terms were: Ward Krape, Bellefonte, R. D.; Ellery T. Parsons, Pennsylvania Furnace, for two years; Harry W. Frantz, Centre Hall, R. D.; Gilbert C. Waite, Port Matilda, R. D. 1; for one year; Earl R. Armstrong, Bellefonte, R. D. 2.

After the stockholders' meeting the new board of directors held an organization meeting and elected Ward Krape, president; Ellery T. Parsons, vice-president, and a loan committee consisting of Ward Krape, Gilbert C. Waite and Harry W. Frantz.

John Gruenwald, who held a sale of South Dakota horses here on Monday afternoon following the sale by Wm. Gruenwald, wishes the Reporter to state that he will return with another load in the near future.

Deaths

BRADFORD—Nancy Jane, widow of George W. Bradford, died at the home of a son, Paul E. Bradford, in Centre Hall, on Wednesday morning after an illness due largely to her advanced age, which at the time of her death was 87 years, 1 month, 24 days, having been born in Harris township, January 15, 1851 a daughter of Daniel Bohn, born in Holland, and Sarah Jane Garbrick, a native of Boalsburg.

Funeral services will be held from the home and Reformed church, at 2:00 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, and burial made at Boalsburg by the side of her husband who died in 1922.

The surviving children are Albert and Daniel Bradford, Willard, Ohio; William and Mrs. Anna Bible, Phoenixville; Mrs. John Marz, D. Milton and Paul E., Centre Hall, a brother, Wm. H. Bohn, of Willard, O., is the only survivor of the Daniel Bohn family.

There are living 46 grandchildren, 45 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

SCHRECKENGAST—Private funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon for Ernest Raymond Schreckengast, 53, prominent Millheim merchant, who died in the University hospital, Philadelphia, early Saturday afternoon from complications following a 10-day illness.

The son of Adam and Elizabeth Rhymsstine Schreckengast, the deceased was born in Nittany January 26, 1885. On March 18, 1914, he married Blanche Hartman, who survives with one son, Paul W., at home.

Also surviving are one brother, Ward, of Jeannette; one half-brother, Bruce, of Millheim; and one half-sister, Mrs. Bruce Hart of Altoona.

Mr. Schreckengast was a member of the Millheim Evangelical church and of the Centre Hall P. O. S. of A.

Funeral services were in charge of the Rev. Harry A. Houseal, pastor of the Evangelical church at Millheim. Burial was made in Fairview cemetery, Millheim.

TRESSLER—Gerald Tressler, one-year-old son of Ralph and Grace Cummings Tressler, on the Daup farm near Potters Mills, died in the Lewistown hospital Saturday morning following an operation. In addition to his parents the child is survived by several brothers and sisters.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the parental home with the Rev. W. K. Hosterman of Centre Hall officiating. Burial was made in Zion Hill cemetery near Coalyer.

WINEGARDNER—Mrs. Sara (Page) Winegardner passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. N. Palmer at Portage, last Saturday, following an illness of several months.

She was the daughter of Abram and Elizabeth Page and was born in Millheimtown, Perry county, almost ninety years ago. Her husband, John Winegardner, died more than thirty-five years ago. Deceased had a family of eight children: William Winegardner, and Mrs. Emma Stuck, both of Coopersburg; J. L. Winegardner and Mrs. Elizabeth Hosterman, both of Millheim; Mrs. B. N. Palmer and Mrs. J. G. Eby, both of Portage. Two daughters, Gertrude and Mrs. Ada Malone, preceded her to the grave. Surviving also are seventeen grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren. Burial was made at East Salem, Juniata county.

MASON—Osman Reisman Mason of Julian, R. D., died Wednesday night of last week at the Dorsey Cronister home, where he had lived since the death of his wife five years ago. Mr. Mason, who was 82 years old on Feb. 7, had been ill with pneumonia since the Saturday previous to his death.

Born in New Brunswick, he married Maggie McCord of Moshannon. Mr. Mason was the last surviving member of his family, there being no surviving children, brothers or sisters.

Funeral services were held from the Cronister home at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon with the Rev. A. O. Herr of Bellefonte officiating. Interment was made in the Beaver cemetery.

BICKLE—Mrs. L. R. Bickle died at her home above Waddle, Wednesday night of last week from complications following several weeks' illness. Mrs. Bickle, who had been suffering from a goiter condition for some time, was in her early fifties.

Surviving are the following children in addition to her husband: Mrs. Samuel Lehler, Boalsburg; Mrs. Clarence Zeigler, Bellefonte, R. D. 2; Mrs. Ray Henningher, and Miss Grace at home, Walter, Linden Hall; Raymond, Bellefonte, R. D. 3; Harold, Port Matilda; and Russell.

CONFER—Funeral services were held on Tuesday of last week for Mrs. Sarah Alice Confer who died at her home in Madisonburg from complications following a short illness. The Rev. Harry A. Houseal, pastor of the Evangelical church, officiated. Burial was made in Fairview cemetery, Millheim.

Mrs. Confer, who had not been in good health for some time, had been about her home as usual that day. About 2 o'clock in the afternoon she became suddenly ill and died three hours later.

She was born in Haines township, a daughter of Levi and Catharine Guisewite Burd. Her husband was Emanuel Confer. Surviving are the following children: Fred W., Mrs. George Wolf and Thomas, of Smulton; Wilmer, of Tyrone, R. D.; Mrs. Ralph Ungard, of Salona; Mrs. T. H. Rote, Coburn; Mrs. Robert Weiser, Bellwood; and Russell Confer, of Millheim.

McMULLIN—Mrs. Leah McMullin, widow of Howard McMullin, deceased, died Thursday night in Millersburg. Surviving are eleven children, as follows: Mrs. Lyda Hibbel, R. W., Mrs. Wm. Gunther, Mrs. David Kide, John Thomas, Frank, and Mrs. Harold Schaner, all of Harrisburg; Mrs. Nan Robison, Tyrone; Mrs. Joseph Swartz, Pottersburg; and Charles of Elmira, N.Y.

The following sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Heaton, Tyrone; Mrs. Ella Walker, Mill Hall; Mrs. Kate Schroyer, and Miss Hannah Emlinizer of Millersburg, thirty grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren also survive.

Burial was made in Tyrone on Sunday afternoon.

HICKEY—Mrs. Flora Hickey, a native of Coleville, died in a Niagara Falls hospital. She was twice married. Her first husband, Newton Reareck, a brother of Mrs. J. D. Hunter of Bellefonte, died 11 years ago and to this union two sons survive, Lester and Glenn Reareck, both of Syracuse, N. Y. She later married Mr. Hickey, who died several years ago. A sister, Mrs. John Billett of Bellefonte, and one grandchild also survive.

She was aged 63 years. Burial at Niagara Falls.

DEITRICH—Henry Martin Deitrich died Friday morning at his home near Hecla Park, aged 82 years. Funeral services were held on Monday and burial made at Hubbersburg.

The wife of Mr. Deitrich, the former Margaret Amanda Hubler, died five years ago, but there survive these children: James M., John L., William D., all of Bellefonte, R. D.; Mrs. Carrie N. Gross of Camden, N. J., and the Misses Sarah and Mary, at home.

SUNDY—Miss Amelia Sundy, 85, also known as Amelia Garris, died Thursday evening at the County Home, Lock Haven, where she and her half-sister, Mrs. Jennie Weaver, had lived for 32 years. She was born in Penns Valley and had formerly resided in Bellefonte. She was the oldest in point of residence, in the county home. She had been ill for a week with a complication of ailments due to old age.

COBURN MAN FOUND DROWNED IN SMALL STREAM

The body of Nevin Vonada Confer, 25, was found in a small stream on the William Gentzel farm, near Liberty school house west of Coburn on Tuesday morning by a searching party among whom was his wife, father, and brother.

The man left his home in Coburn Monday afternoon in quest of horse-racing. When he did not return at night it was thought he had remained for the night with a relative, Mrs. Sheets.

County Coroner Heaton was summoned, but no jury was empaneled, the general belief being that the drowning was accidental following a fainting spell.

Nevin Vonada was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin A. and Sara Vonada Confer. He was born June 12, 1912, and is survived by his parents and his wife, the former Anna Jane Rishel, whom he married on Sept. 12th, 1935. A son, Udeli Monroe, also survives.

Mrs. Nelson Confer, Mrs. Albert Aumann, Miss Lena Confer, Miss Beulah Confer, Calvin, Orvis and Quentin, all of Spring Mills, R. D., and Mrs. Lester Confer of Coburn are surviving brothers and sisters.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 1:30 o'clock; burial at Millheim.

INNOVATION TO INCREASE SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICE

A special "Go to Church" bus that will collect church goers living along the Bloomsburg-Danville highway, deliver them to Danville churches in time for Sunday school and get them home in time for dinner began service last Sunday. A contract for four weeks, which will be extended indefinitely if the plan is successful, has been made between representatives of the Ministerial Association and a bus company.

A golden eagle, rarely found in North America, was caught in a fox trap near Slate Run, Lycoming county, and will be shipped to some zoo in the state. The bird has a spread of about four feet, with golden brown tipped feathers.
