MUNICIPAL THEATRE MILLHEIM SHOWS 7 & 9 P. M.

Here They Are, Folks! Friday & Saturday this Wk.

"HOLLYWOOD HOTEL" MOVING IN TOWN

Everyone in the United States possessed of a radio has undoubtedly heard that big weekly broadcast called "Hollywood Hotel," supposedly originating from an immense and luxurious hostelry in the capital of Film-land, which has been the most popular air program for the last three years.

And now "Hollywood Hotel," in the form of a musical comedy, is coming to the Municipal Theatre, Friday and Saturday as a presentation from Warner Bros. It is not merely an episode entertainment, like its namesake of the ether-waves, but a fully plotted dramatic show with a star-studded cast.

Dick Powell has the most important part—that of a young crooner who comes to Hollywood with promises of a movie job, and gets into all sorts of difficulties before he wins success.

The Lane sisters, Lola and Rosemary, have the leading feminine roles—the former as a temperamental movie star who refuses to appear at a premiere, and the latter as a totally obscure hotel worker who takes Lola's place on the big night.

Louella Parsons, famed dramatic critic and originator of the "Hollywood Hotel" air show, plays herself in the picture, acting as mistress of ceremonies and introducing a great number of stars to her audience in the famed "Orchid Room."

Among the boys of funmakers who have important roles are Hugh Herbert, Ted Healy, Glenda Farrell, Johnnie ("Scat") Davis, Alan Mowbray, Mabel Todd, Allyn Joslyn, Grant Mitchell, Frances Langford and Edgar Kennedy.

Then, too, there are Benny Goodman's Band and Raymond Paige's orchestra. What swing fan could ask for more?—SEE IT!

America's Greatest Food Authority Now Writes for This Paper

C. Houston Goudiss

We announce with pride a new feature in this issue, "What You Eat and Why," by C. Houston Goudiss, noted food authority, radio speaker, author and lecturer, famous as the man who knows food "from soil to serving, from table to tissue."

One of these articles will appear each week, and we know housewives and mothers will look forward to them for the accurate, worthwhile information they contain on foods and their relation to health. This is not a recipe column. Mr. Goudiss has designed it to serve as a link between laboratory and layman in the food field, interpreting modern scientific knowledge in the language of the home maker, giving her the elemental facts regarding new discoveries and the part played by food in building and maintaining health.

Every woman wants to know what foods will benefit her family and why, and that is just the information that Mr. Goudiss will give. Watch for the articles each week, make a scrap book of them for ready reference. They contain valuable information every home maker has been wanting.
