SCARLATINA AND SCARLET FEVER CAUSED BY SAME GERM

There is no difference between the scarlet fever of today and that of 30 years ago. Both are caused by the same germs or organisms. While the greater number of cases seen today may be milder than in years past, we still see the same type of complications—discharging of the ear, often followed by mastoid trouble and the necessity for emergency surgical treatment and swollen glands which often "break down." The disease is caused by certain types of germs which for a poison that tends to affect the heart and kidneys. Every case of scarlet fever leaves its indelible mark somewhere in the patient's body. It may be the heart or the kidneys, then when these organs become over-taxed in their functions they may fail because of the scar left by an attack of scarlet fever that may have occurred years before.

Celebrate with us the 300th Anniversary of the Founding of Pennsylvania

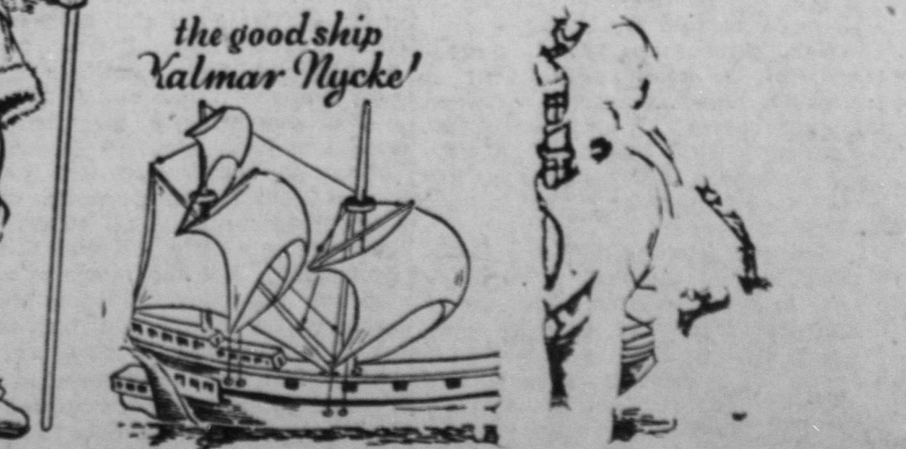

Authorized by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth, the Governor has issued a proclamation declaring April 8, 1938, a Legal Holiday in Pennsylvania, in order to celebrate—with thanksgiving—300 years of "Godly Civilization". It will be called "Forefathers' Day" as part of a three-day celebration—April 7th, 8th and 9th—throughout the State.

Three hundred years ago, on April 8th, 1638, a hardy band of pioneers, led by Peter Minuit aboard the good ship Kalmar Nyckel, four months out of Gothenberg, Sweden, landed on these shores. They called this colony New Sweden. This was the foundation of Pennsylvania a civilization.

Towns and cities throughout the State will hold school exercises, parades, air shows, "Forefathers' Day" luncheons and dinners. We cordially invite our friends from other States throughout the Nation to participate. In Philadelphia there will be a giant three-day celebration, climaxing on Saturday, April 9th, at 9:00 A.M. with a monster parade of Federal, Military and Naval forces; the entire Penna. National Guard under General Shannon; Police and Firemen; Patriotic, Civic and Fraternal organizations and School groups; all to be reviewed by Governor Earle and the 300th Anniversary Commission. Following will be a thrilling aircraft demonstration by National Guard, State, Army and Navy planes.

Plan right now to help Pennsylvania do honor to the noble band of Swedes who founded it. Eit'er join with your local community or plan a trip for this great Anniversary. Thirty thousand miles of glorious, modern highways, throughout scenic and historic Pennsylvania stretch out before you. Come by Motor, by Train, by Bus. An old-fashioned welcome awaits you.
