

Spring Mills

A COLLECTION OF NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND PERSONALS FROM GREGG TWP.'S METROPOLIS.

Rev. Miller on New Field—Rev. Ivan L. Miller, who succeeds Rev. Seth Russell as pastor of the Penns Valley M. E. Charge, and J. C. Robinson, manager of the Grace Silk Mill, were in Centre Hall on Saturday, where the minister made pastoral calls. Rev. and Mrs. Miller are living in the parsonage and are rapidly forming the acquaintance of his parishioners. Rev. Miller is a young man and came here from Glenn Hope, Clearfield county.

On passing through Spring Mills during last week C. A. Boyer, a Sunbury railroad office man, called on his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. King.

John Zerby Home Sold—The John Zerby home, at Sober Station, was sold at sheriff's sale to Rufus Zerby. The place contains a little over one acre of land and improvements.

About fifty children of pre-school age in Gregg township received toxoid injections for the prevention of diphtheria. The treatment is not compulsory. About half as many other children were given a physical examination.

Eighteen to Comprise Freshman Class—All but three candidates to enter the Freshman class of the Gregg Township Vocational school successfully passed the examination. There were twenty-one applicants, eighteen of whom were accepted.

Pupils passing entrance exams are Mildred Crater, Lena Fetterolf, Lorraine Grove, Russell Houser, Leotta Houser, Phyllis Inschwiler, Tony Kroat, Kathryn Lingle, Christine Noll, Betty Jane Robinson, Dean Stitzer, Evelyn Shavey, Betty Weaver, Glenn Wolfe, Rosella Walker, Leona Wolfe, Richard Young and Russell Igen.

At the close of the grade schools, the scholars with their teachers all enjoyed a picnic. Seventy and eighty grades with their teacher, J. Russell Condo, picnicked at Woodward Cave; fifth and sixth grades, with their instructor, Harry K. Condo, picnicked at Penns Cave, and the lower grades, with Miss Reartick and Miss Wagner, spent the day at Sand Spring.

Bridge Over Penns Creek—The State highway bridge on Route No. 45 over Penns Creek is about completed. It is a very substantial structure and has a good appearance.

The grading over the old dam and through the deep cut back of the Fetterolf mill house is being completed. It will require considerable labor to complete the road. The opening of the highway to the public will not likely be accomplished until mid-summer.

Mrs. Harry Long of Liverpool has been spending the week visiting her home and friends. She was the former Ida Hettinger. She spent Monday at the Elmer Hettinger home.

On Tuesday George Bartley moved into the L. M. Royer property. A new floor is being laid in the G. B. Meyer Fairlawn store which adds to the store building's appearance.

Harry Trout left on Tuesday for Mt. Union where he will be employed permanently in the office of L. M. Hutchinson. Mrs. Trout will remain here.

Patricia Grove, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Grove, is again home from the hospital, and is improving satisfactorily.

Mrs. James Kerstetter of Penn Hall was taken to the Centre County hospital on Sunday and operated on on Wednesday. She was reported doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Eisenhuth on Wednesday started housekeeping in the property owned by Mrs. H. H. Eisenhuth, recently vacated by George Bartley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Swabb made a business trip to Harrisburg on Wednesday.
