DID YOU RECEIVE CREDIT ON SUBSCRIPTION PAID?

Look at the label on your Reporter (or on the wrapper) this week and note whether you received proper credit on subscription which you may have paid since we last called your attention to it. Our mailing list was corrected on Saturday, and all monies received on subscription up to that time have been credited. Your label should show such credit.

Now, again, a word to those who have been remiss in their duty. It is necessary that we receive the small subscription price to keep the wheels turning. To many it is simply an oversight; they mean to pay, but somehow forget it. This gentle reminder to them, we know, will be sufficient. We hope it may be sufficient also to those who have been receiving the paper far too long without paying for it.
