Three young lassies from Spring Mills participated in the following numbers: tap and acrobatic dance by Dorothy Miller; acrobatic dance by Arlene Grove; tap and toe dance by Lera Meyer.

The gate receipts were $64.10 and receipts at food stand, $11.30. The athletic association greatly appreciates the liberal patronage given them by the citizens of Centre Hall and surrounding towns.

FOUR PENN. LUTHERAN

SYNODS HAVE MERGED

Susquehanna Synod, East Pennsylvania, West Susquehanna and Allegheny Lutheran Synods by resolutions passed in each of the Synods meeting last week formed a merger to be known as the Central Pennsylvania Synod.

Rev. I. S. Sassaman, Williamsport, was elected president of the Susquehanna Synod for the fourth successive terms. Other officers are: Secretary, Dr. J. F. Harkins, State College; treasurer, R. L. Schroyer, Selinsgrove, and statistical secretary, the Rev. E. L. Bottiger, West Milton.

Delegates and alternates to the National Lutheran Conference at Baltimore, Oct. 5 to 12, named were: Carl Milward, Milton, with C. M. Houseknecht, Bloomsburg, and John W. Decker, Spring Mills, as alternates.

Robert S. Sassaman, son of Rev. and Mrs. I. S. Sassaman, and Elwood L. Stahl, both of Williamsport were given a one-year license to preach.

Licensed to perform ministerial rites were Robert Clark, Jersey Shore, Marlin Bottiger, Mt. Pleasant Mills, and Elmer Drumm, Sanbury.

I. S. Shaffer, Jr., of Lock Haven, and Rev. J. M. Reardon, of Mifflintown, were named directors of the Gettysburg Theological Seminary.

Rev. H. C. Berkstresser of Hazelton; Dr. John M. Harkins, State College; Preston M. Hedgins, of Lewistown, and Daniel Smith of Williamsport were chosen directors of Susquehanna University.

REFINANCING BORO DEBT; BORROWING AT LOWER RATE

In last week's issue of the Reporter appeared an ordinance calling for the refinancing of the borough debt at a lower rate of interest. The interest now paid is at the rate of four per cent for a water bond of $1000 and a 5 per cent rate of interest for $2000 borrowed from local parties on notes.

Under the new financing plan two of the longest term notes will bear interest at 3 1/2 per cent and the remainder, 4 per cent all tax free. The tax is four mills, making the interest rate 2.9 and 4.4 per cent.

The indebtedness under the new arrangement will be increased by but $2000, since a part of the funds secured by the new loan will be used to pay off the notes of $2000 now in force.

It is also the intention of the council to call in the water bond, long past due. The bond, however, will be paid from the borough's general fund and not from the sale of notes now offered.

MISS KATHRYN RISHEL NAMED HOME ECONOMICS ADVISOR

Miss Kathryn Rishel, of near Centre Hall, has been appointed to the position of home economics education advisor for Franklin county, according to a statement made a few days ago by R. G. Mowery, county superintendent of public schools. The appointment was made by Dr. Lester K. Ade and will become effective July 1.

Miss Rishel will take up her residence in Chambersburg later in June. Her office will be in that of the county superintendent in the Chambersburg Trust building.

Miss Rishel, a graduate of the Gregg Township Vocational Schools in Spring Mills, furthered her education by graduating from Pennsylvania State College. She is at the present time taking advanced graduate work at Cornell University. She has had seven years of teaching experience, one year in the Harris township Vocational school, Boalsburg; three years in the Mill Hall high school at Mill Hall and since 1935 in the Palmyra high school.

Miss Rishel's work will be in the high school and seventh and eighth grades in the county in schools which do not have vocational home economics programs. She will have supervision of the entire vocational home economics program of Franklin county. Her salary and expenditures will be paid through State and Federal funds.

FIRST CIVIL COURT CASE CAME FROM PENNS VALLEY

The first case called on the opening of civil court, Monday, was from Pennsylvania Valley, former sheriff A. B. Lee being the defendant and the Lee Valley Banking company the plaintiff. The case, it appears, grew out of a defective handling of a bill of sale given for farm stock by Frank S. Musser, then tenant on the Lee farm, to the Pennsylvania Valley Banking company. The stock was sold at public sale.

Mr. Lee, prior to the sale, levied on the property to recover on a debt for money loaned to Mr. Musser for the purchase of a tractor and other farm machinery. The sheriff's appraisal footed up to $700.00, and that sum was awarded the defendant by the jury.

For further information write at once to the American Nautical Academy, National Training School for Merchant and Marine Officers, Washington, D. C.

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS PLANNING FOR FUTURE

The senior class of the Centre Hall-Potter high school has divided on the question of life vocation—one-third of the class members are planning to continue their education at college this fall; another third will "go back to the land" and farm, while the remaining third will follow individual likes, including beauty culture, nursing, and mechanics.

Included in the college group which hopes to commute to Penn State daily are Ralph Arney, Jack Kirkpatrick, Jean Slack, Mildred Eshman, Helen Haskell, and Robert Gerhart. Prospective farmers will be John Dashem, Floyd Dashem, Dean Runkle, Robert Frazier, Donald Foust, and Robert Blazer.

Lola Rees, Miriam Fetterolf and Mildred Meyer hope to attend schools of beauty culture, while Geraldine Dutrow and Agnes Neff are studying the catalogues of various hospitals. Freda Weaver is planning to work while George Emerick intends to be a mechanic at a local garage.

As far as summer plans are concerned the college entrants are looking for part-time work in order to build up their finances. ***

IMPROVEMENTS ON PARK; BUILDING FOR SWINE

Improvements on Grange Park began this week in preparation for the August-September annual gathering, which like the proverbial circus advertising, will be "bigger and better than ever." The top improvement about to be made is the construction of an additional building for the accommodation of the increased showing of pure-bred swine by Centre county breeders. Heretofore exhibitors of this line of exhibits have been greatly hampered for quarters, the management having been obliged to divide many of the pens into two sections, thus forcing exhibitors into only half the accommodations originally planned for a single exhibit. With the addition of the proposed new exhibit building this feature of crowding will be avoided to large extent.

The new building will be 112 feet in length, with a driveway of about twelve feet and display pens on either side. A substantial concrete wall will carry the building which will have a concrete floor.

Of course, there will be numerous minor improvements made on the grounds and buildings under the supervision of A. H. Spady, superintendent of grounds.

Between now and the opening of the fair the grounds will be used for holding a large number of gatherings of various kinds, notably among them being the State College Kiwanis-Farmers Day in June, and several dozen family reunions, Sunday school picnics, and the like.

SUNSET CLUB HOUSE BOUGHT BY C. W. WHITMAN

A sale of Sunset Club house, located along State Highway Route No. 322, Seven Mountains, one mile south of Pottery Mills, was effected by E. Dale Fisher, Lewistown realtor, C. W. Whitman, of Reedsville, being the purchaser. The new owner anticipates it is understood, the developing of a road house, with cabins, etc.

Mr. Whitman is at present engaged as a rural mail carrier out of Reedsville, but expects to retire.

Mrs. Whitman is a daughter of James Wagner, of Herndon, and niece of Clayton Wagner of Centre Hall.

$20,748 STREET PROJECT FOR BELLEFONTE APPROVED

Congressman Don Gingery announced Presidential approval of federal funds amounting to $20,748.00 for a Works Progress Administration project in Bellefonte, to improve East Curtin and East Lamb streets, by excavating, constructing base and berms; installing sewers, water lines, etc. No taxes or assessments will be levied to cover amount of federal funds expended on this project. Project sponsored by Bellefonte Borough Council.

PENN STATE WILL BE FORCED TO DENY ADMISSION TO MANY

Pennsylvania State College this coming year will be forced to deny admission to a larger number of students than ever before in the college's history because applications are already 17 per cent greater than last year.

As the college desires to keep a student body approximately as large as the number of students attending Penn State this year, a limit will necessarily have to be set on the freshman class for the coming fall term of school. The college will admit in the order that they apply those students who have graduated in the upper two-fifths of their class. This ruling will be modified to a certain extent in the case of those high schools whose graduates have shown particular success in college scholarship standing.

Remaining vacancies in the freshman class will be filled from those ranking highest in the Minnesota university aptitude test to be given in 21 Pennsylvania cities on August 5. Pennsylvania applicants will furnish 90 per cent of the incoming class. Out-of-state students with ranking below the upper two-fifths will have little if any chance of obtaining entrance to Penn State.

As in other years the Registrar at Penn State will place several hundred freshmen in other colleges; with the understanding that they may transfer to Penn State in February or the following September should vacancies occur.

FISHING IN DELAWARE BAY ROTTEN, SAYS CAPT. HOMAN

A crew of twelve local more or less experienced deep-water fishermen say fishing was rotten in Bowers Beach on Delaware Bay. On Monday the anglers used their utmost skill with the success almost nil. The crew, with Wm. H. Homan as captain, included Ernest Homan, Ralph Homan, Roy Dutrow, John Dutrow, Bruce Hartley, George W. Sharer, George Hackett, Miles Decker, Calvin Weaver, Ralph Luse, C. P. Ramer. The fishermen returned home Monday night at 11 o'clock. Capt. Homan, who had escaped feeding fishes on numerous previous similar excursions on the bay, emptied his "tummy" into the deep like some of his companions.

Fishermen from the south side of Potter township, Pleasant Gap and State College in the same water had no better success than Capt. Homan's crew.

Arber Cummings of Spring Mills was in town on Monday and called at this office on a bit of business.

The borough "dads" should wake up to the fact that the numerous sidewalks needing repair, changing from brick to concrete, or building new walks, could be taken care of by adopting a WPA sidewalk project.

While the walks in Centre Hall are much better than the average in like places, there are improvements needed in every block. One of the chief improvements needed is relaying of walks where they have been raised by roots of trees, and the preling off of the top layer of concrete blocks. Individuals cannot enter into this movement, but a Council awakened to the needs of property owners can do so; and should do so.

SCHOOL STREET WPA PROJECT MOVES ALONG

The WPA project on School street, Centre Hall, comprising the building of two sidewalks, a driveway and cobbling the sides for parking, is moving along nicely.

Trenches are now being dug to a depth of three feet for the outside retaining walls. These will be built of stone slushed with concrete and topped with dressed stone. Abutting these walls four-foot concrete walks will be constructed, and next to them a concrete curb. In the center between the curbs an 18-foot driveway built up with stone and earth and an amebite top will be constructed. The space between the driveway proper and inner curb will be laid with cobblestone to provide all-weather parking for cars.

The driveway will have a width of eighteen feet; cobblestone on each side ten and one-half feet, giving a width of thirty-nine feet between curbs.

The road and walks will have like elevations, with a perfect grade from the crossing on Main street to the crown of the road on Hoffer street, necessitating a fill of over two feet at the alley between the two streets. This fill and one of less depth at Hoffer street will permit the laying of drains at the two points.

School street's original width is sixty feet. The width covered by the improvements is approximately fifty feet, leaving about five feet on each side not occupied.

FIRST LOCAL MAIL PLANE GREETED BY SEVERAL HUNDRED

A large number of letters mailed at Centre Hall, Spring Mills and Millheim were dispatched by plane on Friday at 1:10 p. m. on the first air mail flight made from a field at Centre Hall. The plane was greeted by several hundred persons, among them a good representation from the grade schools.

Sherman Lutz, in a four-passenger cabin plane, made a beautiful landing on a field bordering on State Highway Route No. 95, on the James L. Decker farm, a mile east of Centre Hall. He was handed the several sacks of mail by Postmaster Boozer and took off in a graceful manner.

Both the landing and take-off were recorded by W. W. Kerlin with his modern motion camera.

Postmaster Musser of Millheim made deliveries of mail both Thursday and Friday from points east of Centre Hall.

WEST PENN POWER BUILDING LINE TO "RAYONA," 7 MTS.

The West Penn Light and Power Company is surveying for a pole line from Potters Mills along State Highway Route No. 322 south to "Rayona" club house, on Garry road, and probably on to the Juniata Valley Boy Scout camp, a short distance to the east. Others along the line given an opportunity to secure service include Brownie's Place, Sunset club house, the White House, where forest ranger John Meeker lives, Reardon's improvement, and several other mountain camps.

Along the Garry road in addition to the Rayona club house, service has been signed up for by the Penn Lock club, White Oak Lodge, McKeesport club and Camp Regulars.

The line is the extension of the line coming up through Georges Valley, connecting with a main line at Spring Mills.

FESTIVAL BY GRADE SCHOOL PUPILS, MEMORIAL DAY

On Monday (Memorial Day) after noon and evening, the Centre Hall borough grade schools will hold a festival to recoup their treasury from which heretofore spare funds were drawn for athletics. It is the intention hereafter, assuming the public will support the movement, to give coming high school pupils their ground work in athletics while in the grade schools. The same applies to building up the school band.

The music for the festival will be furnished by the crack school band from Osceola Mills, with its famous trumpet trio and string combination. The band is under efficient leadership and will give a concert in the evening on the high school grounds of an unusual character.

The festival aside from the sale of ice cream, foods, etc., offered, will afford amusements for young people.

It is urged, considering the purpose for which the funds will be used, that the movement will be liberally supported.

ONLY LUMP SUM SOCIAL SECURITY PAYMENTS DUE

According to the Social Security representative for this area an estimated 1000 claims have not been filed which are due families in this eight-county area.

Heirs of any employee who has reached the age of 65 is eligible for the social security benefits. Three and one-half per cent of the accumulated wages will be paid where a just claim is made. These payments will be made in lump sums. In both cases the worker must have been paid wages since December 31, 1936, and before he reached 65.

Lump sum payments and monthly old-age benefit payments should not be confused. Lump sum payments are made when eligible people reach the age of 65 or have died. The monthly payments will not begin until January 1, 1942.

He returned home the beginning of this week, leaving Mrs. Keller, who has been improving in health since in Johnstown, to continue her treatment as heretofore.

Lowell H. Alexander was nominated by the Mifflin county Democrats for a third term in the lower House of the State Assembly. He defeated W. A. H. Brindell, of Reedsville at the primaries. T. C. Harbeson, former State forerster in this district of Milroy, captured the Republican nomination and will be a contender for Alexander's seat next November.

David I. Graybill, teacher of science and mathematics in the Centre Hall-Potter high school, will spend the greater part of the coming school vacation with his father, C. S. Graybill, a Paxtonville carpenter and contractor, doing general carpentering. It was his first intention to take a summer course at Penn State, but a series of events occurring in the meantime prevented this plan carrying through.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wetzel, daughter Clara Lou and Mr. and Mrs. Homer W. Fetterolf of Spring Mills attended the 25th reunion of their graduating class at Bloomsburg State Teachers College Saturday. Mr. Fetterolf and Mr. Wetzel were classmates and graduated in 1913. About 90 of the former 138 classmates were present. Dr. and Mrs. Kimble, Kuster held a very lovely reception for the group Friday evening. Saturday morning all had breakfast together at the Hotel Stevens, followed by the regular banquet in the College dining room at 1:00 o'clock. The experiences shared by the group gave a very good cross-section of life, with its successes, mirth, pathos, grief and hard-earned achievements.
