EVANGELICAL MINISTERS' CHORUS TO GIVE CONCERT

A concert will be given in the Millheim Evangelical church this (Thursday) evening at 8:00 o'clock by the Ministers' Chorus of the Central Pa. Conference of the Evangelical Church. The chorus is composed entirely of ministers from all parts of the conference, which extends as far north as Sullivan county, west to Altoona, south to Washington, D. C., and east to the Susquehanna River. Concerts have been given by the group in a great many of the churches throughout this area during the past four years.

Rev. C. C. Bailey, Baltimore, Md., is director of the chorus; Mrs. C. G. Bailey, accompanist; and Rev. W. E. Peffley, D. D., Harrisburg, leader. Among the ministers who make up the chorus are Rev. S. A. Snyder, Jr., Mountoursville, and Rev. S. A. Snyder, Sr., Baltimore, Md. The senior Rev. Snyder will be remembered as having served on the local Evangelical charge about twenty-five years ago.

Following is the program for the concert:

Conference Chorus: The Sign of the Cross (Hershey); My Faith Looks up to Thee (Palmer); All Hail the Power (Eller).

Readings—Dr. W. E. Peffley. Conference Chorus: On Great Lonely Hills, from "Finlandia"; Bow Down (spiritual) Steal Away (spiritual).

Conference Chorus (assisted by Ladies Trio)—Mrs. Plus Oewiller, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, Miss Helen Gabriel; The Stranger of Galilee (Morris); He Leadeth Me (Gilmore); How Sweet the Name (Hershey).

The offering.

Conference Chorus: Grandfather's clock (Wilson); Lift Thine Eyes (Logan); Home on the Range (Guion-Riegger).

Readings—Dr. W. E. Peffley. Conference Chorus: Keep a Goin' (Hershey); Lullaby (Brahms-Zander).

Work has started on a new 1,000-seat motion picture theatre in State College. We all enjoy movies, especially a good one, but what we need is not more movies but better ones. Why not give young people a break by giving special showings of movies which are really meant for their entertainment? Movies meant for adults are often detrimental to the mental health of children.
