Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kittlerberger of Curwensville visited C. D. Bartholomew in the Centre County hospital, and also spent a day at the Bartholomew home.

Messrs. Ernest Homan, W. H. Homan, V. A. Auman, Ralph Homan and John W. Delaney attended a meeting of the Encampment, I. O. O. F., in Bellefonte, Monday night.

Much of the oats in Penns Valley will be cut before the end of July. It is seldom the crop ripens during this month. As a rule the crop has the appearance of making a good yield.

The second crop of clover is making a fine showing and at an unusually early date. On some farms no doubt the crop will be cut for hay and on others for seed. In either case the crop is valuable.

If you have not already engaged your tent for the coming Grange Fair you had better do so immediately. Tents, like has been the case for many years, are in great demand. Not all the requests can be filled.

Cars operated by Louis E. Allis, State College, and Alexander Royer, Yeagertown, collided on a sharp curve in the road at Linden Hall, on Saturday. None of the occupants of the cars was injured, but the Allis car was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Spicher and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zerby, all of Wilkensburg, camped at Beaver Dam, Gregg twp. and while there the former couple motored to Centre Hall where they were evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fiedler.

A lot of hunters are lamenting because of the open season declared for does by the State Game Commission, but when the time arrives for the slaughter the great majority of them will be watching for an opportunity to get theirs. If you think the idea is crazy be a good sport and leave the does alone.

On Many Application Forms for Employment IS THIS QUESTION: Do You SAVE MONEY? Importance of this question to the employer is that if you have not learned to manage your own affairs, it is not likely you will be wanted to manage his. It seems to be the feeling of all employers that if a man cannot save for himself, it is hardly probable he can save for them. SAVE THROUGH OUR BANK FIRST NATIONAL BANK CENTRE HALL, PA.
