LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL GRADS WILL CONTINUE STUDIES

Penn State is the popular college among the 1938 Centre Hall-Potter high school graduates, five of nineteen comprising the class having selected that institution in which to continue advanced studies. The five who have made definite arrangements for entering Penn State are Misses Mildred Homan, Helen Hastell, Jean Slack, Messrs Ralph Arney and Jack Kirkpatrick. Robert Gerhart contemplates entering some school, but has not definitely made a selection. Others in the class may contemplate taking up training for vocations or professions.

CENTRE HALL TAKES SECOND-HALF PENNANT

Centre Hall's baseball club clinched the second-half championship in the Tri-Valley League by defeating their "toughest" proposition, the Pleasant Gap nine, on the local field, Saturday afternoon, by a 4-2 score. Peter Martz opposed Ed Spicher on the mound. The former allowed only 7 hits while Centre Hall gathered 10 off Spicher.

The league season closes today (Thursday), Centre Hall playing at Lemont.

A series of games will be arranged with Pleasant Gap, winners of the first-half, for the championship of the league.

Spring Mills and Centre Hall Tie, 1-1 At Spring Mills last Thursday evening, a 1-1 tie game was staged. Centre Hall tied the count in the sixth and last inning, Spring Mills being unable to play their half of the 7th owing to darkness, after Centre Hall had forged ahead in their half of the same inning. BAG LIMITS: Daily and Season Limits (the first number is the daily bag; the second the season limit): Ruffed Grouse, 2 and 6; Quail (Bobwhite, Gambel and Valley) 4 and 12; Hares (Snowshoe or Varying), 2 and 8; Wild Turkey (in open counties) 1 and 1; Ringneck Pheasants (males only) 2 and 10; Rabbits (Cottontail), 4 and 20; Squirrels, Gray, Black and Fox (combined kinds), 6 and 20; Raccoons (all counties) by individual or hunting party, 2 and 10; Raccoons, trapping only (See enclosed counties above) season limit, 10; Bear, over one year old, by individual 1 and 1, by hunting party of five or more, 2 and 2; Antlerless Deer by individual, 1 and 1, by hunting party of six or more, 6 and 6; Woodchucks, daily bag 4, unlimited for season; Blackbirds and Red Squirrels, daily and season bag unlimited; Minks, Opussums, Skunks and Muskrats, daily and season bag unlimited; Otters (see open counties above) season limit 3; Beavers, (see open counties above), season limit 3.

ANTLERLESS DEER SEASON ONLY And the Commission by the following resolution declared an open season for antlerless deer and closed the season on antlered male deer: "AND BE IT RESOLVED, That pursuant to authority conferred upon the Pennsylvania Game Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by Article V of the Act of Assembly, approved June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225, finds as facts that (1) in order to correct an unbalanced sex ratio which in its opinion now exists in the deer herd of the Commonwealth, and (2) to reduce the herd to a size that will assure sufficient food and forage to sustain the herd in good healthy condition, the said Commission does hereby remove protection from and does hereby declare an open season for the hunting, taking and killing of deer without visible antlers or horns, without regard to sex, size, weight, or age, throughout the entire Commonwealth except in the Game Refuges established by the Commission, during the period of six (6) days beginning at 7:00 o'clock A. M. on the 25th day of November, 1938 and ending on December 3, 1938 at 5:00 o'clock P. M., during which period such antlerless deer may be hunted for and taken only in the manner and in the numbers prescribed by said Act for the taking of male deer, without any license or permit other than the regular hunter's license, whenever the Act cited requires the possession of such hunter's license; and the Commission does not deem it necessary to exercise its powers, under sub-section (c) of Section 501 of the Act of Assembly, to issue or require special permits to hunt for or kill antlerless deer during said open season hereby fixed for the killing of same, nor to limit the number of persons who may hunt for such deer in any portion of the Commonwealth, nor to require a fee of $2.00 for a special permit which, under the said Act of Assembly, it is empowered to impose; and the Commission does hereby declare a closed season for the hunting or killing of deer with visible antlers during the year 1938, and it shall be unlawful for any person to kill, or attempt to kill, any deer with visible antlers or horns during the year 1938."

And the Commission did by appropriate resolutions declare that on October 31, no hunting for any wild birds or wild animals shall be done before 9 A. M., which also shall be the opening hour for setting or stacking out traps on the first day of the several seasons for trapping fur-bearing animals and raccoons in open counties; and that the possession limit for small upland game shall be the legal bag for two days.

The Commission also by appropriate resolution closed the season throughout the Commonwealth on Reeves Pheasants, Hungarian and Chukar Partridges, Doves, Antlered Male Deer, Elk and Curb Beavers.

Said resolutions are on file in the Office of the Commission and notice is hereby published in full or in summarized form in accordance with the provisions of the Act above cited.

Consult Summary issued with your hunter's license for additional information, including Federal regulations on migratory game birds. Save this notice for reference. SETH GORDON, Executive Director.
