TUSSEYVILLE

Mrs. A. L. Slaterbeck spent some time at Mt. Penn with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCormick. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Myer and family attended the Myer reunion at Harry John's Park on Sunday. W. B. Swartz and wife of State College and Miss Geraldine Hoover of Potters Mills, were Friday visitors at the Fortney home. Mrs. A. O. Detwiler, Miss Maybelle Detwiler and Mrs. Ray Snaga and son Russell spent a day at the Diehl and Dubbs homes at Mifflinburg during the past week.

FIVE ACCUSED OF LIQUOR THEFT NOT GUILTY

The first case called in Criminal Court this week resulted in George Poorman, Edward Reed, Lawrence Shunkweiler, Leroy Fleck and Edward Reed being found not guilty of the theft of liquor in a Phillipsburg taproom.

CLASS OFFICERS ELECTED

Class officers for the term of 1938-1939 have been elected by three classes at the Centre Hall-Potter high school. Harold Bradford has been elected president of the senior class; James Meeker, vice-president; Sara Hackett, secretary, and Darline Faust, treasurer.

Officers of the junior class are George McCormick, president; Lois Arney, vice-president; Jane Spiker, secretary, and Ann Homan, treasurer. The sophomore class elected Adeline McClennahan as president; Mark Jordan, vice-president; Lois Homan, secretary, and Kenneth Runkle, treasurer. The freshman class has not elected its officers yet.

126 IN HIGH SCHOOL

The Centre Hall-Potter high school this year has an enrollment of 126, making the number twenty-two more than last year.

Seventy-three of the pupils are girls, and eighty-two of them are from the township. According to Mr. Wetzel, principal, the crowded condition of the school will not be just temporary because both the town and township eighth grades are somewhat larger this year than last and many of the other grades are filled to capacity.

Vernon Garbrick reports having done a very good business at the West End Fair in Union county which closed Saturday night. The fair was wheel and small cars were the only amusements set up by him.

Deaths

FOSS.—Mildred L. Foss, youngest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Foss, died on Sunday evening from complications at the parental home in Carlisle. She was aged 23 years. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Ewing Funeral Home, Carlisle. Burial was made in Sweet Valley, in the family plot. The deceased was born in Centre Hall during the time Rev. Foss was pastor of the Evangelical church in the valley.

HARRIS.—J. Linn Harris, long identified with the lime and stone industry in Centre and Clinton counties, died in Lock Haven Monday evening. A son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris, he was born in Bellefonte, 75 years ago. He is survived by a wife and one son, Harold Linn, and by a brother and two sisters: Dr. Edward Harris, Snow Shoe; Dr. Edith Harris, Bellefonte, and Mrs. Emma Wardell, Bellefonte. Burial will be made Friday in Dunns cemetery, below Lamar.

YOUNG.—Andrew B. Young, printer, and life-long resident of Bellefonte, died Friday morning in the Centre County hospital from a heart condition following a short illness. Not in the best of health for the past two years, he had been a patient in the hospital one week. Mr. Young was born in Bellefonte 72 years ago, the only son of George W. and Matilda Ney Young. His wife, the former Ida May, died in March, 1935. Eight children survive; also three sisters, and one half-sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Mitterling, of Centre Hall. Mr. Young also leaves thirteen grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, and burial made in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

HOLMES.—Dr. R. E. Holmes died in Alexandria, aged 79 years. He was born near Jacksonville, the son of James H. and Emily McKibben Holmes. His wife, formerly Ella Beck of Water Street, and a son, Dr. Cecil Holmes, of Harrisburg, survive him, as do also the following brothers and sisters: I. C. Holmes, James Holmes, John L. Holmes, Mrs. Mary Deal, Miss Mabel Holmes, all of State College, and Mrs. Emma Martin of Lamar. Mrs. Ruth Ingram, a daughter, also lives in State College.

For the past forty-five years Dr. Holmes lived in Harrisburg. Burial was made Friday afternoon at Alexandria.

DETWILER.—Mrs. Flora H. Detwiler died at her home in Mars, Butler county, aged 68 years. She was the widow of U. G. Detwiler and formerly lived at Lemont. There survive six children, one of whom is Mrs. C. F. Rhodes, State College.

The passage of a measure appropriating $25,000,000 for relief makes the State liable for medical care of non-institutionalized indigents.

WOODRING.—Mrs. Caroline Woodring died at her home in Port Matilda on Sunday, aged 81 years. Her husband, Abram Woodring, died in 1934. One brother, Frank Cogan, of Ambsry, and several children, survive her. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon and burial made at Port Matilda.

I. O. O. F. PAST GRANDS MEET AT REBERSBURG

Rebersburg I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 1021 entertained the monthly meeting of the Centre County Past Grands Association, Friday evening.

Twenty-four association members and 25 visitors from lodges at Bellefonte, Boalsburg, Centre Hall, Howard, Mifflinburg, Millheim, Rebersburg and State College attended the meeting.

Past Grand Cyrus F. Hoy, Bellefonte, reported on the excellent condition of the orphanage maintained by the order at Sunbury. He also gave an interesting account of the activities of boys and girls from the Meadville, Pittsburgh and Sunbury orphanages in the program of the Grand Lodge meeting at Bedford. Past Grand G. C. Reed, State College, told of a trip to Canada where he visited an Odd Fellows orphanage and attended a lodge meeting. The October meeting of the association will be at Stormstown.

Mrs. Roy Smith to Return from Hospital This Week

Mrs. Roy Smith of Potters Mills, who became a patient in the Lewis-ton hospital on the first of this month, underwent a major operation and has well recovered. She anticipates returning home today (Thursday) or Friday.

The operation and the condition of the patient are said to have been unusual. Dr. Cassidy was the operating surgeon.
