Seasoned by Service
 Most of the people in this company are in telephone work to stay. This is an organization of men and women seasoned by service and tested by time.
 The figures prove it. More than half of our 16,000 people have had ten or more years of telephone experience. Three thousand have served 20 years or more. Nearly 750 have been in this business from 30 to 50 years! And those who have reached top positions have earned and learned their jobs by rising through the ranks.
 Today this state and nation enjoy the finest telephone service in the world. It is our aim to keep your service constantly improving—at a price that insures a fair deal for all.
 When orders are few and far between and sales costs must be cut, smart business men turn to the telephone. Long Distance calls cover out-of-the-way customers quickly, easily and economically. They bring in extra sales at a cost that leaves you a profit. The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

PEOPLE

BABY-
 "I was born with two good eyes and I want them to stay good, I notice that mother has all sight-saving I. E. S. lamps now—she always knows what's best for me!"

BROTHER-
 "Boy, it's lots more fun doing my homework since mother got a Better Sight I. E. S. lamp for my study table. I get finished so much faster and it gives me more time to play. My school marks are better too."

MOTHER-
 "In addition to giving all of us good light for safe, easy seeing, these new I. E. S. lamps are so beautiful—much prettier than the old-style portable lamps I used to have. I heartily recommend I. E. S. lamps to every homemaker."

DAD-
 "I. E. S. lamps have certainly been designed in a scientific manner. From top to bottom they are built to give the maximum amount of good light and afford excellent eyesight protection."
