THIRD COMMUNITY SALE AT PENNS VALLEY SALES BARN

The third community sale held at the Penns Valley Sales Barn, the former Sheffield Milk plant, near Centre Hall, conducted by S. T. Riegel, on Tuesday, was largely attended and prices were very fair.

The offerings consisted of milch cows, bologna cows, beef cattle, hogs, shoats, and small pigs, and sheep; also, a large number of chickens. A truck load of shrubbery was also disposed of.

The Standard Training School held in the high school building during the past few years at about this time has been postponed until toward spring when the sessions will be opened on former lines. An effort will be made to increase both the numbers enlisting as students and the general interest in the movement in the community.
