Penn township did not have a single reactor during the recent area bovine tubercular test. Tests have already or will be given in every township in the county. Gregg and Potter also had but few reactors. The tests now being made indicate thoroughness in previous tests on the part of veterinarians who performed them.

Miss Edith Potter and brother, Harold, motored to Centre Hall on Saturday from Meadville, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Rudy, uncle and aunt of the young people. On returning to the Crawford county seat they will take with them Mrs. Rudy, and after a visit with them will go on to Youngstown, Ohio, to visit a sister, Mrs. John Galbraith, and family.

In a flock of 345 white leghorn birds given a blood test, only three reacted. Flocks of 500 have also been found with but a few birds reacting. The tests are being made for the benefit of the Kerlin hatchery, where eggs from tested flocks only are used for hatching purposes. The incubating season, by the way, is about to begin and is a month or six weeks earlier than during past years. The coming season promises to be an excellent one.

The Republicans in Pennsylvania held an election on Tuesday not well patronized by Democrats.

Red Cross Seeks Cut In Accident Toll

1,725,406 First Aiders Trained Since 1910

Cognizant of tremendous losses in human lives and of permanent injuries resulting from accidents in homes, on farms and highways, and around industrial plants as well as in the basement workshop, officials of the American Red Cross have been directing a systematic fight against what they term "this economic waste."

As part of this nation-wide effort to reduce deaths and permanent injuries from accidents, a recent statement from Red Cross headquarters in Washington reports that during the past 12 months certificates have been granted to 295,028 persons completing courses in the administration of Red Cross first aid.

Holdings of these certificates have followed detailed courses of study and have been taught how to splint fractured limbs, stop flow of blood, treat poison sufferers, care for victims of heat, electric shock, and handle other common emergency situations. The courses emphasize methods of caring for patients until professional medical aid can be summoned to scenes of accidents.

Will Rogers' Humorous Story

By WILL ROGERS

THERE was a guy that was studying to be a preacher or a lawyer or something, and he wasn't so bright as he might have been.

He come to examination time, and all the long words or the unusual ones got him tangled up. But he generally could explain it all right, when he was called up by the profs that wanted to find out what made him so dumb.

There was a question about Job, and this guy wrote down that Job was a rich guy that lived in a cellar. The profs couldn't give him anything on that till he proved it to 'em. "What do you mean that this here Job guy had scads of dough?"

"Yes, but here it is in our book of history. It says, "He spent much of his life in penitence and abasement."

Now, I reckon that guy will get out to be a lawyer, so he can cite the book for authority.

They Take Pride in Their Jobs

Wherever you find telephone men and women and talk with them for a while, you'll notice these things:
A certain pride in the job they're doing. A feeling that it's part of an important service to the community and the nation. A desire to do the job the best they know how.

You'll notice, too, a strong sense of loyalty to their company and a sincere friendliness that has made "the voice with a smile" something more than a famous phrase. Perhaps all this is best summed up in another famous phrase—"the spirit of service." All America knows what that means. It has been demonstrated in fire, flood and storm—and in your everyday telephone service, the finest in the world.

The more you use your telephone service, the more it is worth to you. Let it help you do your shopping, run your errands, speed up your business affairs and keep you in touch with friends and family everywhere. The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

DAIRYMEN'S LEAGUE MEMBERS GETTING BETTER MILK PRICES

Members of the Dairymen's League Co-operative Assn., Inc., delivering to the Spring Mills plant in Centre county received $1180.02 more for their September milk than they would have received had returns been on the same basis as the previous month, it was stated today by B. M. Fairchild of Lewisburg, county president of the League. About fifty League members deliver to this plant.

This substantial increase in returns to Dairymen's League members is attributed by Mr. Fairchild to the successful operation of the co-ordinated efforts of milk cooperatives through the Federal-State milk marketing program which became effective September 1.

"The Federal-State program," he said, "is a result of a long-time program carried on by the Dairymen's League, for years with the purpose of bringing dairy farmers a living price for milk. More than two years were spent in getting the various groups of producers throughout the New York milk shed united upon this constructive and workable plan.

"This boost in farm income means better business for every community. Purchasing power of dairy farmers has been low for a long time. As a result they have accumulated needs in almost every line from farm machinery to toys for the baby. With a rising income they will add to the business of all lines, which will boost along the general business improvement already under way."

A TRUE CONFESSION OF CLARA COUPE

1 "I was feeling low as could be, first time I went to a Good Gulf dealer. But then he filled me with Gulfpride and I haven't been low since—no sir, haven't needed a drop of oil!"

2 "That nice Gulf man also drained my radiator, put in anti-freeze, and filled me with clean water. I think it was right then and there that I really began to care."

3 "He noticed that one of my tires was low, so he filled 'em all to exactly the right pressure. Now I steer like a dream. Noticing sort, these Gulf men. They don't seem to miss a trick."

4 "After he filled me with Gulf No-Nox Ethyl, he handed over a free copy of the Gulf Funny Weekly for the boss' kid. Wasn't that nice? I've been happily wedded to Gulf ever since."
