Miss Cora Luse, one of the instructors in the Altoona high school, was in town over the week-end.

George Searson and son, James Searson, on Saturday made a business trip to Harrisburg.

Mrs. Annie Rossman of Tusseyville was with her daughter, Mrs. John B. Wert, Sr., from Thursday until Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Koch of Bellefonte has been a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Geo. Searson, in Centre Hall, for several weeks.

William G. Fisher, accompanied by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Fisher and two children, all of Sunbury, stopped on Sunday at the Jacobs home.

Donald, eldest son of the sons of Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Wagner, during the latter part of last week developed a light case of pneumonia and was quite ill for a few days. On Tuesday his condition showed improvement.

The Penn State and University of Pennsylvania football game in Philadelphia on Saturday was attended by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller, of town. The score proved a 7-7 tie. The game was hotly contested and brought caustic comment by Philadelphia newspaper sport writers, most of whom scored Penn State.

Mr. and Mrs. George G. Fink of Phillipsburg celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Sunday. They are aged 75 and 76 years, respectively. They both enjoy good health and are unusually active in mind and body. Nine children were born to the union, all of whom attended the reunion. The wife of the youngest of the family, Wayde, was formerly Miss Bessie Zerby, sister of Mrs. R. S. Hagan of town.

Pvt. Donald Bloom, after having been in the U. S. Army for two and a half years, was honorably discharged in one of the military stations in the U. S. and reached his home here on Sunday after spending from Thursday on with a sister, Mrs. William Miller, in Altoona. The young man is looking fine, presenting also a soldierly appearance. Donald served his enlistment at Fort Shafter, Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wagner on Friday motored to near Lewis Run, McKean county, where they became guests of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Johnson, a Lock Haven Teacher College chum of the former, for the week-end. Mr. Johnson is principal of the La Fayette township consolidated school, organized at the opening of the present school term. The school building is large, modern in architecture and well furnished, says Mr. Wagner.

Operators and managers of Bell Telephone exchanges met in Altoona in Penn.-Alto hotel, on Tuesday, to hear P. C. Staples, president of the Pennsylvania Telephone Company, give instructions along general lines. Miss Caribel Emerick, chief operator in the local exchange, and Miss Mattie McCool of the Millheim exchange, were among the number. The ladies went to Bellefonte by private motor car where they boarded a chartered bus which took them to their destination.

Superintendents, managers and farm operators of charitable, educational and penal institutions will attend the 13th annual Industrial Farmers Week at the Pennsylvania State College, November 28, 29 and 30. R. Bruce Dunlap of the State Department of Welfare will preside. J. W. White, professor of soil technology at the college, chairman of the program committee, said that soil conservation, pastures and meadows, and the welfare of the dairy herd will be the chief subjects for discussion.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mitterling on Sunday morning started on a motor tour, expecting to go by way of Indiana to Punxsutawney, Brookville, DuBois and St. Mary's but on reaching Indiana were discouraged by the thunder storm and rain encountered. Stopping at Indiana for dinner they were surprised to find Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Auman seated at a table in one of the leading restaurants. The Aumans were on their way home from a visit to their son, Carl A. Auman, at Salem, Ohio, to whose home they had gone on the Thursday previous.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sommers and son Junior of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Catharine Sommers and Samuel Gingenrich of Centre Hall, and Willis Fleck of Milesburg, formed a party to motor to Niagara Falls, N. Y., on Friday, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ray. While in the city they called at one of the hospitals to see Mrs. Lizzie Sommers, a sister of Mrs. Ray, who had the misfortune to fall on crossing a street car track and break a hip bone. Her condition after four weeks' hospitalization is improving, but she expects to remain in the hospital for at least three more weeks.

James S. Reish, on Tuesday, suffered a light stroke at the Old Fort, where he conducts the Old Fort hotel. He was not feeling well in the morning, and remained in bed much longer than is his custom. He felt the effects of the stroke throughout the forenoon. A hearty dinner was enjoyed by him, but later his condition grew worse, affecting the left arm and hand. Mr. Reish is 72 years old. Last spring he had a very similar experience. On Wednesday morning his condition was said to have improved, but he remained in bed on the advice of his physician. No doubt the fact he may not be able to hunt during the deer season bothers him more than anything else at this time.

LOCALS.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bradford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Williams in Bellefonte, on Sunday.

Mrs. Rebecca Romig of Liverpool and Mrs. Margaret Corbin of Lewisburg are guests in the Bartholomew home for several days.

E. C. Wagner, father of Rev. L. Arthur Wagner, and Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Hull, of Sunbury were week-end guests of the Lutheran parsonage.

Mrs. J. C. A. Heckman of Spring Mills, on Saturday evening, visited her daughter, Mrs. Garman Matter, in Centre Hall. Mrs. Heckman recently underwent a garter operation, but has well recovered.

Miss Olive Brown, a Penn State senior, and close friend of Mrs. Wm. P. Campbell, visited with her at Penns Cave over the week-end and also with Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk and daughter, Miss Helen, in Centre Hall.

David Homan of Pleasant Gap, a son of Waldo Homan, will occupy an apartment in the Centre Hall hotel. He will follow Walter Balliett, manager of a drug store in State College, transferred to Tyrone. Mr. Homan is employed at the Titan Metal Works.

F. M. Crawford, who was brought home from the Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, following a major operation continues to improve. He is able to be about the home on East Linn street, Bellefonte, and is altogether cheerful.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Reitz on Wednesday became residents of Philadelphia after having lived at Bath, N. Y., for some years. Mr. Reitz, working with a Cornell soil conservation corps, has been engaged for most of the past summer in Somerset county. It is presumed he will continue with the same unit, although living in Philadelphia.

Six-man football has been organized in the boys' physical education class at Centre Hall-Potter high school. Because of lack of equipment, the games will be touch and this will make the game fast enough and less dangerous. The pupils of each class chose teams, and each team elected its own captain.

Red Cross Volunteers
Assist War Veterans

Red Cross workers in chapters, in hospitals and on posts of the Army, Navy, Coast Guard, and Marine Corps, assisted 122,355 active service men or veterans or their families during the past 12 months.

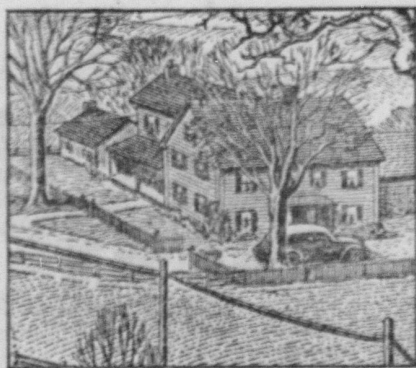

Red Cross service to these men included such personal help as letter-writing, shopping and recreational leadership, but it also included financial assistance to their dependents, help in locating missing members of their families, and assistance in filing necessary applications for pensions, disability pay, hospitalization, or for discharge from active service because of home needs.

The average number of men assisted by Red Cross workers each month was 18,750, according to a recent report.

Red Cross Nurses
Aid Million Sick

Red Cross public health nurses made more than one million visits to or on behalf of the sick during the fiscal year 1937-38.

The patients live in mountain communities, on islands off the coast, in isolated swamp regions, and in crowded industrial sections. During the same period the nurses inspected 659,187 school children for health defects in cooperation with local physicians, and gave instructions in home hygiene and care of the sick to 58,754 mothers and young girls.

"Hurray for the Pumpkin Pie!"

The favorite dessert for Thanksgiving, the truly American pumpkin pie—golden brown and spicy.

By Louise Brown

REMEMBER the old Thanksgiving song?

"Over the river and through the wood
To grandfathers' house we go . . ."

Whether you are spending an old-fashioned Thanksgiving in the country—or a modern one in town—if you're a true pumpkin pie lover, you'll agree that this grand American dessert is the only suitable end to the feast.

The crust should be tender and flaky—the custard a rich golden-brown—and it should taste like all the spices of India.

This year serve your pumpkin pie with Philadelphia Cream Cheese, softened with a little cream. Force the cheese through a pastry tube to form a rosette on each serving, or decorate the whole pie to suit your fancy. Whipped cream sweetened with a little maple syrup is delicious, or whipped cream topped with slivers of toasted almonds.

The following recipe is sufficient for two 9-inch pies. Notice the higher baking temperature for the pie, which many women are finding much more satisfactory for a custard type pie.

PASTRY

2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup fat
¾ cup cold water
Cut fat into flour and salt with dough blender. Add water, mixing just enough to blend ingredients. This makes enough pastry for two 9 inch 1-crust pies. Pastry handles easier if it is chilled before using.

FILLING

4 cups cooked pumpkin
4 teaspoons melted butter
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups brown sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ginger
2 cups milk
1 cup cream
4 eggs

Beat eggs slightly, using Low speed of electric mixer and combine with other ingredients. This will fill two 9-inch pies.

Bake at 450° F. for 1 hour.

Lewis Ream, tenant on the John Rimmer farm west of Tusseyville, will become the tenant on the farm of his father-in-law, Adam Reish, below Rebersburg. Mr. Reish will discontinue farming operations next spring.

HOW I LEARNED TO LAUGH AT WINTER

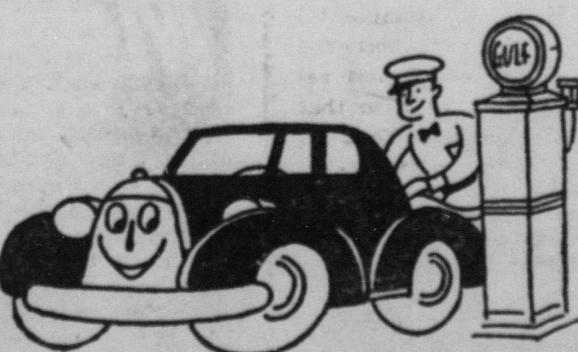

1 "Can it be? Yes, it is a filling of free-flowing Gulfgrade, the only Alchor processed 100% pure Pennsylvania motor oil. No starting troubles for me this winter—thanks to Gulfgrade."

2 "Hurray! I'm getting special Gulf winter lubricants for my rheumatic joints. And for my transmission and differential, too. Now my gears will be as limber as an eel, even at zero."

3 "It sure does win the cockles of my motor to see the way this Gulf dealer does a 'winter conditioning' job. Boy, oh, boy! That anti-freeze is just what I need to keep from freezing to death!"

4 "And to top it off, he's filling me with Gulf No-Nox Ethyl—the fastest starting gasoline Gulf ever made. Come on, Winter, do your worst. I'm all set, thanks to my Good Gulf Dealer."

It's time to cold-proof your car . . .
