

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Without either of the pumps running, the borough reservoir is full to the brim.

Bids for the construction of a U. S. post office in Millflintburg will be opened publicly on January 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Durst motored to Johnstown and spent the week-end with the latter's brother, Reuben Zetle.

The Kerlin poultry farm on Monday lifted the first lot of chicks from the large battery of incubators. Prospects for a good season are in evidence.

Rev. J. W. Zang, pastor of the Evangelical church at State College, due to illness was unable to fill recent appointments in his charge.

Chlor Strohecker of Bethlehem beginning of the week came to Centre Hall and took back home with him his mother, Mrs. Mary Strohecker, who has been in delicate health.

The Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania I. O. O. F. will be in State College for the annual Christmas party, Tuesday, December 20.

Mrs. Lee, widow of the late Jacob C. Lee of Centre Hill has been seriously ill for some time with little or no prospects for recovery. Her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Boyer, of Sunbury, is assisting to care for her at this time.

Mrs. James Foust, a patient in the Black hospital in Lewistown for several weeks returned to her home during last week, and continues to make improvement toward complete recovery. She is at present able to be out of bed but unable to perform household duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hess and young son and Mrs. Hess' brother, Eugene Burkholder, of Winfield, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Burkholder. Eugene is again employed at Winfield as a truck driver for a company manufacturing amine and road stone.

Former Sheriff John Boob of Millheim is back to the Lewistown City hospital for treatment for sinus trouble. His condition is said to be quite serious, the patient suffering greatly from the ailment. This is the second time the Millheim resident has been a patient in the hospital during the past year.

Mrs. Katie Sommers of Centre Hall on Friday evening left by train for Rockford, Illinois, where she will become the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bron, brother of John F. Bron of State College, and Mrs. Harry E. Eye of Centre Hall. Mrs. Sommers is housekeeper for her brother, Samuel Gingerich, who during her absence will "batch" it.

With close to 200 illegal deer killed in Centre county during last week leaves the impression Centre county hunters were extremely reckless at a time when they should have been most cautious. It does seem strange that sportsmen have no regard for the rules of the game of hunting. They showed no more respect for hunting laws and rules than Hitler has for the Jews.

The $1000 goal set by the members of the Methodist church, Pleasant Gap, of which Rev. F. B. Henry is the pastor, was more than reached at the first "Cash Day" held in the Methodist church. The money will be used in the construction of four rooms to be used for Sunday school kitchen and dining room, and social room. Construction work will be started next spring.

M. C. Delaney, who a few years ago purchased one of the Grosman farms from James Raymond, now deceased, in Potter township, was a most agreeable caller at this office Monday morning. Mr. Delaney has been making many improvements to the buildings on his farm and is also improving its productive qualities. The Delaneys are not only successful in tilling the soil, but are progressive citizens as well.

The older residents of Centre Hall will regret to learn of the death of Montraville E. Dieffenderfer, a grocery salesman who traveled this section for a number of years and befriended merchants and citizens alike, more than twenty-five years ago. During the last fifteen years he was totally blind, but by the use of a cane he was able to walk about in familiar localities. Beginning of November he fell through an opening in a sidewalk in Northumberland, breaking a hip that resulted in death in the Mary Packer hospital the day after Thanksgiving and three days after reaching his 77th year.

Two Penns Valley business men directly interested in public school affairs have been invited, and accepted, an invitation of the West Penn Power company to attend the Nela Park Institute of the General Electric Co. in session in Cleveland, Ohio, on Wednesday. The individuals are Messrs. Ralph S. Hagan, Centre Hall, and S. Ward Gramley, Millheim. The institute was educational in character and brought before the guests the result of elaborate research work in electrical devices and lighting, with special reference to school buildings. There are also representatives from State College and Bellefonte. The gentlemen became the guests of the company on reaching Bellefonte. At Pittsburgh they entrained Tuesday evening at 7:55 on two Pullmans, reaching Cleveland at 11:00 P. M. On the return the Pullmans left Cleveland at 5:05 p. m. and arrived at 8 p. m. in Pittsburgh. The institute met in the Park Lane Villa hotel. Among the seventy-six others, school principals and school directors from the state were M. M. Babcock, State College; Harry Illingsworth, supervising principal of the Ferguson township consolidated schools, with A. L. Roselle, commercial representative.

PENNSYLVANIA FOR ROOSEVELT IN 1940, SAYS SENATOR GUFFEY

Senator Joseph Guffey this week made the following statement:

Following a campaign of misrepresentation and false promises, the Republican Party on November 8th obtained a new but temporary lease on life from the voters in some states, including my own State of Pennsylvania.

"Intoxicated by their unexpected success they now have visions of victory in the nation in 1940.

"The Campaign to again make Wall Street the seat of the government was launched at the meeting of the Republican National Committee last week.

"The drive to saddle the cost of relief for the nation's unemployed wage earners on the backs of the nation's employed wage earners is also under way.

"The movement to reestablish industrial freedom and destroy the partnership between labor and capital made possible by liberal Democrats under the leadership of Franklin Roosevelt is gathering momentum.

"Realizing the real objectives of the Republican overlordship that proved it still controls that party by the seating of the Dupont candidate, Ex-Senator Hastings of Delaware on the Republican National Executive Committee, the Democratic leadership would be derelict in its duty if it did not take effective steps to make impossible the accomplishment of these Republican aims.

"The 1940 Campaign will be the most momentous in the history of the nation. The issue will be the liberal Democracy of Franklin D. Roosevelt versus the camouflaged fascism of powerful financial and industrial interests masquerading under the colors of the Republican Party.

"The one man to justify the Roosevelt record is Roosevelt.

"Pennsylvania wants him as standard-bearer in 1940. Pennsylvania does not want and will have nothing to do with any so-called 'Middle-of-the-Road' candidates.

"Pennsylvania was, is and will be for Roosevelt and Pennsylvania's 72 votes at the next Democratic Convention will be cast to make him our standard-bearer in 1940."
