

Spring Mills

A COLLECTION OF NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND PERSONALS FROM GREGG TWP.'S METROPOLIS.

Asking to Vacate Road—A petition is before the Centre County Court to vacate a part of the old road bed of Route No. 45, east of Penn Hall, from a point close to the W. P. Hosterman property to the junction of the Brush Valley road. The portion of the old macadam road from the Brush Valley road eastward by the Peacock farm, provided the petition is accepted, would remain open and continue to be a township road, giving a reasonably good eastern outlet to Millheim, but none direct to Spring Mills.

Soil Conservation Farmers Meet—A meeting of farmers and farm owners in Gregg township interested in soil conservation program met in the Gregg Twp. Vocational School building to elect officers of the local organization. The election of officers resulted in the re-election of those acting during 1938: W. F. Rishel, chairman; T. M. Zubler, vice-chairman and Harry A. Corman, the third member; T. M. Zubler, delegate to the county convention, and alternates, Willard Hettlinger and David Hosterman.

Marriage License for Three from Spring Mills—Three young people from Spring Mills and vicinity were granted marriage licenses. One couple was Harry Yearick and Katharine E. Eves and the other Willard Earl Bechtel of Woodward and Sara E. Gulsewhite of Spring Mills.

Butchering day on the J. C. A. Heckman farm in Gregg township means more than a day on which fattening hogs are killed.—It means the assembling of the Heckman family and others interested with it. At the last killing there were present from a distance Mrs. A. M. Wilson, her grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson and granddaughter Miss Ella Mae Wilson all of Renovo. The former Mrs. Wilson is a sister of Mrs. Heckman.

Here are some fortunate enough to bag a deer: C. J. Houser, Kenneth Albright, Randall Meyer, A. B. Lee, Alfred Krader, Earl Rider, Lloyd Houser, Gerald Johnson, Dean Zeltner, Wm. Moyer, Lee Brown, George Burrell, Wm. Osman.
