VOL. CXIII.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 5, 21939

NO. 1

DRIVER EXONERATED IN TWO DEATHS ON ROUTE 45

Robert Blazer, eldest son of Mr. and death of two young men on Route present their program in the local 45, a short distance east of the M. T. high school auditorium, Saturday eve-Zubler farm home. The young men ning, Jan. 7, at 8:00 o'clock. were Russell Ilgen of Georges Valley, a son of Edward Ilgen, and Wilbur prises, besides the Jugoslav numbers Leon Himes of Colyer, a son of Char- many selections fom the well-known vears. accompanied by a third young man, dances from Croatia are unusual and Elwood Grenoble, who was leading his favorite features. Clad in their piccompanions as they waked with their turesque native costumes these spiritbacks to traffic, when the Blazer car ed musicians form a striking picture came along. The youth stated he did and present a program of notable not see any of the trio, but felt his charm. The company consists of four car had hit something. He stopped and members of the Charles Elias family was horrifled to find the two young from Yugoslavia. All are accomplishmen lying limp along the roadside, ed musicians on the tamburitza as COUNTY 4-H LAMB CLUBS IN Grenoble was but slightly injured and well as other well known instruwas left with the broken bodies while ments, being graduates of musical young Blazer motored to Spring Mills colleges of America. in search of a physician and to report the accident to the motor patrol. The Centre County hospital ambulance took young Himes to the hospital, where he died without regaining consciousness. The body of Ilgen the morgue.

Hill, near Colyer, on Wednesday of sion this year will be 25 cents for last week. He is survived by his fath- adults for a season ticket for the Lynn Miller, Donald and Dean Ross, er. step-mother and a sister. He was eight games at $1.50; children's tickemployed in Poe Valley CCC camp.

The burial of the Ilgen youth was born at Farmers Mills, a son of Ed-ball and school dances. Locally this survive him his parents, three broth- admission for basketball and a deers, Curtis, Guyer and Robert, and a sister, Ruth.

ELMIRA ICE CREAM MFG. BUYS 1000 ACRES FARM LAND

E. E. Schmick, of Elmira, N. Y., ice cream manufacturer who resides in Lock Haven a part of the time, purchased three farms between Blanchard and Howard, including more than Centre County Agricultural Conserva 1,000 acres, lying partly in Centre and tion Committee for 1939, by the county 812,250 VERDICT AGAINST partly in Clinton counties, where he ty committee of delegates.

is raising cattle and wintering horses. high bred Holstein dairy cattle and man; J. V. Brungart of Rebersburg last week bought a pedigreed bull at member of committee, and D. J. Beck Earlville, N. Y., and a calf which is of Warriors Mark, and Milton E. Stoa full sister to Springbank Aristocrat ver of Coburn, alternates. Miss Helen Adeline, the world's record 2-year-old. D. Smith, Bellefonte, was named sec On a second of his new farms Mr. retary. Schmick is wintering 30 horses and In addition to other duties the comon the third he is fattening 87 pure- mittees establishes soil-building goals bred Hereford steers for the markets.

KELLEY, CENTRE COUNTY, APPOINTED TO NAVAL ACAD.

the following three appointments to the Naval Academy, as his final act as Representative of the 23d Congressignal District:

Robert Replogle, principal, Roaring Springs: George McCullin, first alternate, State College; George S West,

2d alternate, Osceola Mills; Maurice Hartle, 3d alternate, Drifting, George A. Kelley, Jr., principal, Bellefonte; James H. Young, 1st alternate, Altoona; Frederick DeWitt Evans. 2d alternate. Clearfield: George W. Gaylor, 3d alterante, Clearfield. Theodore Arter III, principal, Altoona; Robert Thompson, 1st alternate, Altoona; Walter Laich, 2d alternate, lin. The children were royally enter-Munson: William Rumberger, 3d alternate, DuBois. The appointments were made on the freshments. basis of the candidates' ratings on a competitive examination held in October. Successful candidates will enter the Naval Academy July 1, 1939.

COUNTY C. E. CONFERENCE,

The third annual County C. E. Conevening. The county president, Thomas Musser, will present the program. big city. Rev. Edward Jones, State College, will lead a conference on "Building a Society Program,"

STATE GETS $6,000,000

FEDERAL FUNDS FOR ROADS Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace apportioned $135,000,000 from Federal funds to States for highway improvement and grade crossing elim-

Pennsylvania was alloted $5,982,867 of this sum, $4,221,088 is for trunk $663,163 for secondary highways; roads, and $1,128,616 for grade crossing elimination. With the exception of the grade elimination allocations, the States Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, the Christmust match the highway funds on a mas Party of the Centre County Past dollar-for-dollar basis. The allotments Grands Association was held in the will be available July 1, 1939.

MOONSHINERS COPPED

IN CENTRE COUNTY toona division of the Liquor Control In addition to gifts under the big Board of the State caused the arrest Christmas tree a cash offering of $39 of five persons in Clarence and Snow for residents of the Sunbury Orph-Shoe township, who are being held in anage and the Grove City Home, for $600 bond for the next term of the the Aged was received.

Centre county court, The defendants are Katie Franic, George Tynio, Mary Charnick, her son Andrew, and Andy Panick,

The evidence consisted in taking possession of two 20-gallon copper stills, 50 gallons of mash, 14 gallons of moonshine and a quart of coloring gift, and all that it implies, matter from one of the Clarence homes while a 12-gallon still and 41 returning the wish for a very happy hottles of home brew were confiscat- and prosperous New Year to all. ed at another of the homes.

4TH LYCEUM NUMBER

SATURDAY EVENING The Croatian Tamburitza Ensem-

Mrs, Clarence Blazer, of near Centre ble the fourth number of the Centre Hall, was exonerated by a coroner's Hall-Potter High School Lyceum, will

The program of this company comles R. and Mabel Saylor Himes. The composers. There are also the latest former was aged 17 and the latter 21 popular airs which are played with verve and zest. Vocal duets and sol-The two who met with death were os, descriptive numbers and quaint

BASKETBALL OPENS WITH MILLHEIM VS. CENTRE HALL

The local basketball season will open Tuesday evening, Jan. 10, at 7:30 playing Millheim. Referee Thomas of Himes' body was interred at Zion Snow Shoe will officiate. The admisets for season, 75 cents.

For the sake of uniformity throughmade at Aaronsburg on the same day out the district all schools will charge College; Dan Sterns of Lemont, and as that of his companion. He was 25 cents single admission for basket- Beulah Peters of Stormstown. ward and Mabel Long Ilgen. There makes an increase of 5 cents for single crease of 10 cents for dances. Season tickets for basketball may faculty or purchased at the gate.

W. F. RISHEL RE-ELECTED

William F. Rishel of Spring Mills has been re-elected chairman of the Other officers elected include Blair On one farm Mr. Schmick has 90 M. Pletcher of Howard, vice-chair and acreage allotments; they supervise compliance and certify records that show the payments the farmers have earned. Further, they maintain complete office records of acreage and Congressman Don Gingery has made yields of various farms in the county participating in the program.

ENTERTAINED S. S. CLASSES

AT HOMAN FARM HOME

Mrs. Ernest Homan recently entertained three junior classes in the Lutheran Sunday school at her most pleasant farm home along State highway route 45, east of Old Fort. The group numbered approximately thirty-flye, and was made up of boys and girls ranging in age from ten to thirteen years. The teachers of the respective classes are Mrs. Homan, Mrs. Bertha Homan and Mrs. Freda Kertained, the evening being topped out with choice and greatly varied re-

D. C. MITTERLING ON MOTOR TRIP TO CALIFORNIA

D. C. Mitterling of Centre Hall, who early in December left for Hot SAMUEL B. RUSSELL. PLEASANT GAP, JAN, 14 Springs, Arkansas, for the benefit of his health, on Christmas day headed his car for the Pacific Coast, expecting to ference will be held at Pleasant Gap, reach Los Angeles, Calif., in a few Saturday, January 14, afternoon and days, His brother, Henry Mitterling, resides at Glendale, a suburb of the Writing from Hot Springs on December 24, Mr. Mitterling says: "I drove fourteen hundred miles to get here, and have been here almost two weeks. "We have had sunshine every day except two, which were rainy.

"Tomorrow, Christmas day, I will leave here for Los Angeles, Calif. "I expect to get back home some time in Junkary. I will stop with my sister (Carrie) at Chattanooga, Tenn., on my way home for a few days."

PAST GRANDS CONTRIBUTE TO SUNBURY ORPHANAGE

Attended by more than one hundred I. O. O. F. hall at State College.

Grand Master Henry E. Robinson, Pittsburgh, and Deputy Grand Master Ben Jenkins, WilkesBarre, gave interesting talks on the work the order The Enforcement officers of the Al- is doing for the orphans and the aged.

Recognizes Generosity.

Mrs. Graybill and I heartily join in ary 1 to April 1st. D. I. GRAYBILL.

TWO POTTER TWP. YOUTHS INJURED WHILE COASTING

Bruce Schaeffer, 10, son of Mr. and the youth's maneuvers and dashed their decisions. into a barbed wire fence. Six or eight tree with sufficient force to shatter have yet had." the femur in the left leg. The injury used in transporting him.

LINE TO WIN AT FARM SHOW Centre county's 4H Lamb Club S. "Better Sight" End Table Lamp. round-up was held at the Livestock judging pavillon at State College. Twelve club members exhibited pens zie of State College, round-up judge. pens from other counties.

The exhibitors at the round-up were Inez and Dean Luse, David Noll, all of Centre Hall: Harold Rockey and William Hess of Boalsburg: Helen Homan and Henry Illingworth, of State

Centre county's entries in the 4-H Club Lamb competition this year should stand a good chance of winounty has had five grand champions be secured from any member of the pens of lambs at the farm show in recent years and is the only county to win the grand and reserve champion the same year. A total of $8,000 in CH. '39 FARM PROGRAM prizes and money received from the sale of lambs has been received by lub members from this county.

MCMULLEN AND BARTLEY

Mrs. Eileen Polete, of Clovis, N. M. daintiff in the U.S. Court, Middle Disrict of Pennsylvania, held in Williamsport, case against Samuel J. Mc-Bartley of Port Matilda, as an additional defendant, was awarded $12 .-250 by a jury. The verdict awards Mrs. Polete individually $11,750 and as which followed the banquet. administrator of the es usband, Harold B. Polete, $500,00 against both defendants.

The case was heard by Judge Alkilled on Route 322 near State Col-

EARLE FEARS "WHISPERINGS"

Governor Earle appeared to feel his colitical enemies might try to make which he and his guests were slightly injured.

"I made up my mind when I went a drink and I have not had even as much as a glass of beer since," he blas.

"I guess there'll be another whisperng campaign. But I cannot understand decent people spreading such stories as have been spread.

"I'm going to retire from politics Cross, Criss-Cross and Double Cross," The other, he said, would be a book bout angels-in which politicans couldn't have any part.

LEWISTOWN BANKER, DEAD

Samuel B. Russell, president of the tussell National Bank of Lewistown, and the Mifflin County Fair, died in Philadelphia hospital about midnight Tuesday night, 27th ult., of septicemia following an operation. He as 55 years of age.

He succeeded his late father as president of the bank, which the elder Russell founded a number of years ago. He was serving his third term as president of the State Association of County Fairs at his death, Mr. Russell was a graduate of Penn State in the class of '05. He was a man of influence in his community in finances, in business, in educational affairs, in social circles and politics.

Funeral services were held in Lewstown Saturday afternoon.

ATWELL-WILTSIE

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wiltsie of Lewistown for the marriage of their daughter, Doris Marian, to Captain Richard Daniel Atwell, on Monday, January 19, at 8:00 p. m., in the First Methodist Episcopal church, Lewistown. Ceremony by Brigadier Charles Trem. The couple will be at home at 303 South Main St., Lewistown,

And now, business as usual, or better.

The usefulness of the 1938 motor liense plates has been extended from December 31st to January 15. Only I wish to express most sincere about half of the licenses were lifted thanks and appreciation to patrons prior to December 28, leaving over and friends of the local high school million cars and trucks without the band for the very generous Christmas 1939 plates. A movement is on to change the license period from Janu-

Is your subscription due?

WINNERS ANNOUNCED IN

Mrs. Thomas Schaeffer, tenants on Home Lighting and Decorating Conthe Daup farm in Georges Valley, cut test came to a close on Thursday eveseveral deep gashes in his forehead ning preceding Christmas, when the over the right eye, when the coaster judges visited all homes that had en-

"It was no easy task," reported one metal clamps were required to bring of the judges. "We took a trip all Another Potter township youth to several of th homes. Some of the decaround, then drove back to look at receive injuries was Richard Brouse, orations were beautiful to see, even aged eight years, a son of Mr. and though not elaborate. I consider this les are regularly employed, and are Hall. Mrs. W. L. Brouse of Tusseyville, who year's home lighting and decorating while coasting struck the stump of the best Centre Hal and Spring Mills

Prize winners and the awards they was of a character requiring careful received were: First prize, to Mr. and handling of the youth, consequently Mrs. J. Shannon Boozer, Centre Hall, the Centre County ambulance was an I. E. S. 6-way "Better Sight" Floor Lamp; second prize to Mr. and Mrs. the season. In former years he was E. S. "Better Sight" Junior Floor a star on the local ball club. R. S. Jamison, of Centre Hall, an I. Lamp; third prize to Mr. and Mrs. friends of the young couple attend C. M. Watts of Spring Mills, an I. E. them on the happy occasion

Honorable mention is also given to the homes of W. W. Kerlin, William Bradford, Harold Durst, Dr. C. H. of three fat lambs each. The six best Light, J. E. Rishel, F. V. Goodhart, and Miss Florence A. Miller was conpens to be selected by P. C. McKen- S. C., Brungart, F. P. Geary, Dr. H. sumated at the bride's parental home R White, Fred Luse, John B. Wert, at Rebersburg on the evening of Mon-The winners will compete at the Farm John A. Heckman, and J. F. Wetzel, day (New Year's day) by Rev. Arthwas removed by F. V. Goodhart to p. m., with the local high school team Show at Harrisburg with the best of Centre Hall; Ray Zeigler, W. P. Os- ur Miller, pastor of the Reformed B. Priest of Centre Hall is also drive man, Harold Meyers, Dr. George C. church in Rebersburg. Thomas, and M. T. Zubler of Spring Mills.

> The Centre Reporter wishes to exthan ever before were in the compe- Harold Bradford.

Our congratulations to the winners

120 PERSONS ENJOY

ALUMNI DINNER-DANCE

Under the chairmanship of Fred Luse, alumni of the Centre Hall-Potter high school held their annual Christmas dinner-dance in the high school auditorium last Thursday night.

The women of the local Reformed hurch served a roast pork dinner to iessert course, Mr. Robinson, ven vilthe group with songs and jokes in Mullen of Milheim and E. Byron the manner of Edgar Bergen and the laboratory of the State Hospital Burtley of Port Matilda, as an addi-Charlie McCarthy. Charlie McCarthy.

provided the music for the dance

new officers for 1939 were These elected at the brief business meeting preceding the banquet: Robert Bradford, president; Ralph Arney pert W. Johnson, and grew out of a vice-president; Agnes Jamison, secnotor accident in which Polete was retary; Harold Bradford, treasurer.

NORTH-BITNER

John H. Bitner of Youngstown, O., unnclinces the marriage of his daughter, Miss Jane Bitner, to C. E. North, the Centre Hall high school and of prior to Chrismas. A literary program on December 24th at New Cumbercapital of gunday's plane accident in land, West Va. The marriage was perthe Presbyterian church in that city.

in as Governor that I would not take with green accessories. She was at- don attended Dickinson Seminary and Schmidt, as matron of honor, and Whiterock Quarries at Bellefonte. Walter Schmidt as best man. Her father, John H. Bitner, gave the bride laway.

The bride is a graduate of East high school, Youngstown, and also of Potts Business College, Williamsport. She is and write two books. One is entitled a granddaughter of R. M. Smith and Mrs. Alwilda Bitner of Centre Hall. The groom is employed at the Truscon Steel Company in Youngs

The couple are at home in Youngsown, Ohio, Central Avenue, R. D. 2.

Meeting of Holy Cross Cemetery Ass'n The annual meeting of the Holy ross Cemetery Association of Georges Valley will be held in the Holy Cross Lutheran church of Georges Valley on Saturday, January 7, at 1:30 p. m. All members are urged to be present, -John W. Decker, secretary,

HOTEL MAN KILLED IN MOTOR SMASHUP NEAR BELLEFONTE

Wynne N. Hill. landlord at the Garman House, Bellefonte, was instantly killed in a motor accident on State highway between Bellefonte and Milesburg. A coroner's jury found the driver of the car guilty of negligence, out did not identify him. Gander Mover accompanied Hill to the point of the crash. Meyer, at the inquest, stated Hill was driving when the accident occurred.

UPSWING IN JOBS

a real comeback."

Bashore said the improvement was future" Bashore declared. largely by increase activity in manu- the penitentiary Saturday by Sheriff Valley. The well was drilled on a facturing industries, particularly the Melvin R Good, iron and steel group.

Mrs. Burd's Hat Shop

Shop in Millheim all hats are reyourself.

MARTZ-HACKETT

CHRISTMAS LIGHTING CONTEST | On Saturday evening, Dec. 31st, at The Centre Reporter Christmas 7:45 o'clock, Paul Bradford Martz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Martz of HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEFEST Centre Hall, and Miss Flora Hackett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brown Hackett of spring Mills, were united in holy wedlock at the Reformed parsonage by Rev. Delas R. Keener. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. George L. Hackett as best man and matron of honor respectively.

Both of the high contracting partmunity. The groom has distinguished himself in amateur baseball circles in Centre county for the past five or six years His splendid pitching as a memher of the Bellefonte club in the Cen tre County League, did much to place that club at the top at the close of

The good wishes of the many

BRADFORD-MILLER

The marriage of James A. Bradford

Chester Wagner of Centre Hall and luxe. Miss Kathleen Burd of Rebersburg were the attendants. Others to witness press its thanks to all who participat- the ceremony were the bride's pared. The contest has been a success in ents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Miller, every way. There were not only more also the groom's parents and brother, homes lighted this year, but more Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Bradford and

The bride is a graduate of the Rebersburg high school, class of '37, and and may they enjoy receiving their the groom was graduated from Centre ning according to past records. This prizes as much as we enjoy awarding Hall-Potter high in the class of '36, for a period of about ten weeks. Mr. and is employed at the Kerlin poultry

Engagement Announced

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. C. Thompson of Bellefonte announce the engagenent of their daughter Elizabeth to Dr. H. Thompson Dale, son of Dr. the young man's father being a former resident of Centre Hall. Miss Thompson is a graduate of Wooster Col- morgue, church served a roast pork dinner to 120 alumni and guests. Before the dessert course Mr. Robinson vertile of training in the laboratory of the oquist, from Port Matilda, entertained Geisinger Memorial Hospital at Danville. January 2nd she began work in

The Keystonairs and a colored trio State, class of 1933, of the University of Pennsylvania Medical school, class of 1937, and is now associated with his father in the practice of medicine were home over the Christmas vacaat State College.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. George H. McCormick of Potters Mills have announced the engagement of their daughter. Laura Belle, to Charles Jodon son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Jodon of Bellefonte.

Penn State, class of '37. She was em- games and various amusements were ployed for 17 months in home extenformed by the Rev. Mr. McDivitt of sion work, located for most of the The members devoted a period to extime in Mercer. She is now dietitian at The bride wore a green crepe dress the Centre County hospital. Mr. Jotended by her sister, Mrs. Walter is now employed in the office of the Engagement Announced.

Lockport, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary R. Williams, to Robert H. Yearick, son of Clarence Yearick of State College. No date has been set for the wedding.

Announce Engagement

A. G. Cummings, of Rebersburg, at a cost, party on Thursday evening.

Miss Clinefelter is a graduate of South Williamsport Junior-Senior high school, class of 1937, and is employed in the Dairy Store in that city.

Mr. Cummings was graduated from he Miles Township high school at The wedding will take place in the early spring.

MIFFLINBURG R. D. MAN GOES TO PEN FOR STEALING lege.

At a special session of Union county court held Friday Judge C. C. Lesher sentenced Ernest P. Snyder of Mifflinburg, R. D., from six to twelve Mexico, and to forty Pennsylvanta years in the Eastern Penitentiary, fined $200, and costs of prosecution. Snyder pleaded guilty to two counts of larceny. He was sentenced from one IN PENNSYLVANIA to to years in the penitentiary on a Soil erosion, grazing and forestry. New Cumberland is the assembling point, Ralph M. Bashore reported 'employ- $10 from the farm of Charles Platt of and yesterday (Wednuesday) the first ment in private industry is staging near Mifflinburg, and from five to ten train was scheduled to leave. By the years on a charge of stealing wheat, oats, corn and chickens to the value the most encouraging in the "last five of $200 from the farm of Frank Dieffenderfer of near Mifflinburg. He was uel Greve farm, formerly the C. R. "The increase during November was fined $100 on each of the two counts Neff farm, to the depth of 203 feet, a continuation of the rise which be- and ordered to pay the costs. Judge by Mr. Brown, an experienced driller gan in August and augurs wed for Lesher specified that the second sen- from the eastern part of the state, to tence shall not start until the first is improve the water supply on one of He said the gain was brought about completed. Snyder was removed to the prettiest farm shomes in Penns chop off the heads of Democrats upon well was drilled close by an old one At Mrs. Lenore V. Bard's Hat the assuming of control by James, but how horribly awful it was to clip the droughts. The new opening has a duced. Hats of style and quality at wings of the righteous (?) Republi-$1.00. Fine bargains, Call and see for cans upon the induction of Governor the old well failed in giving a flow

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

FROM ALL PARTS

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Luse are proonging their visit to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harvey, in Philpsburg.

William Dashem, of Warren, spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dashem of near Centre

The John M. Boob farm in Brush Valley, tenanted for the past few years by Frank White, will be occupled in the spring by George Bigelow, of Penna. Furnace.

'Squire Charles W. Slack of Centre Hall has moved his office to his restdence until further notice to transact any business pertaining to his office as justice of the peace.

Dr. Stephenson W. Fletcher was named as acting dean of the School of Agriculture following the resignation of Dean R. L. Watts, who filled the position for many years.

A new Dodge two-door Special was purchased through the Hagen sales agency by George Hacket, a successful young farmer at Old Fort. Fred ing a new car, a Dodge two-door De-

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Auman of Newark, N. J., motored to Centre Hall where the former couple visited with Mrs. Jacob Lee and the latter at the home of Mrs. Auman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Goodhart.

Mrs. A. G. Lieb is now in Merchantville. N. J., and will remain there and Mrs. E. A. Smith, who had been living with Mrs. Lieb, returned to Germantown, Philadelphia, where th will remain for the present.

The coroner's jury to hear evidence in the death of Himes and Ilgen, killed in a motor accident, was comprised of R. S. Jamison, foreman, Roy Dutand Mrs P. H. Dale of State College, row, D. W. Bradford, E. W. Miller, H. W. Potter, James Searson. The evidence was taken at the Goodh

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Walker motored to Loganville, York county, on the official Chistmas day to be with Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, parents of Mrs. Walker, for the day. The couple were found in good spirits, Mrs. Smith having recovered from a recent serious illness.

Richard Bailey and Frank Rines tion period, bringing with them each a dressed turkey presented to them and 400 other employes of the Bendix Corporation, in Baltimore, Md., with which firm the young men are employed.

The members of the Ladies' Temple with their families as guests, enjoy-Miss McCormick is a graduate of ed an evening in the K. G. E. hall indulged in throughout the evening. changing gifts, and later refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Keller and young son of Laurel. Delaware, where Mr. Keller has been teaching in a consolidatd high school, visited with Mr. Keller's parents in Centre Hall. Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Scott R. Williams of Keller in connection with his school work formulated an organization engaged in some phase of insurance which is meeting with success.

The most famous U. S. Pasture Experment Station east of the Mississippi, the Kylertown Station, will be discontinud next year, after a decade Mr. and Mrs. James E. Clinefelter of important contributions. The exof So, Williamsport announced the en- periments have gone as far as posragement of their datighter, Miss Oi- sible. One section of the pasture ve Gaynell Clinefelter, to Walter Mar- ground treated with lime showed a tin Cummings, son of Mr. and Mrs. return of $71.78 per acre above the

One of the happy events looked forward to by the children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dutrow is the annual dinner at the Dutrow home in Centre Hall at Christmas time and this year was no exception Rebersburg in 1933. He is employed ing the wives and husbands of the when three dozen descendants includby Starkey Farms Co. at Morrisville. Dutrow children gathered for the event, In addition to those locally located were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bair and family of Smullton, and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smeltzer of State Col-

> Of the 2600 boys from Pennsylvania to be sent to Civilian Conservation Corps camps in Arizona and New and Maryland camps, fifteen come from Centre county. The boys going to the far west will engage in road building, reclamation and irrigation projects, 14th the transportation of the youths will have been completed.

A well was drilled on the Mrs. Samprominence of sufficient height to carry the water to the barn and all floors How perfectly right it will be to of the farm home by gravity. The new that frequently failed during moderate promising outlook to bridge periods of water,