

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Attorney R. Paul Campbell assisted the borough finance committee to make out the 1933 budget.

Harold W. Smith of Centre Hall was granted a license to operate motor vehicles.

Mrs. Clara Lester, who had been with her daughter, Mrs. Schaeffer, in Altoona, is back to Centre Hall with her brother, Landon Burris, where she makes her home.

Mrs. J. Nevin Royer, the former Madeline Emerick, of Centre Hall, became a patient in the Centre County hospital on Saturday, expecting to undergo a minor operation.

The low bid for a Federal building in Milliford came from A. Farnell Blair, Lake Charles, La., and was $47,752. There were eight other higher bids, the highest being $62,772.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers of State College, who some years ago lived in the Huyett farm, recently, Mr. Sellers is employed in a garage in State College at this time.

Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew and Miss Carrabel Emerick will leave today (Thursday) by bus or train for Philadelphia where they expect to be guests of friends and shop until Tuesday.

Earl Grove, tenant on the Fred Wells farm, has definitely decided to change farms April 1st when he will move onto the John Royer farm near Madisonburg. Lewis Bechtel present tenant, will move to the Stover farm near Coburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Brumbaugh and daughter Janet of Yeagertown, and Mrs. William Orren of Reedsville, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClenahan and family. Mrs. Brumbaugh is a sister and Mrs. Orren the mother of Mrs. McClenahan.

On Sunday Capt. T. C. Fryberger celebrated the ninety-fifth anniversary of his birth. He is a resident of Phillipsburg and is one of two surviving Civil War veterans in that borough. The Captain is in fairly good health but spends his time mostly in his room.

Daniel Daup, well on in the eighties and president of the First National Bank, had the misfortune to receive a hard fall on a concrete walk at the Earl Frazier home along Sinking Creek. Mr. Daup struck his face, receiving a black eye and body bruises, but was not laid up from his injuries.

Walter Ruhl of Bellefonte, former Democratic Watchman employe, underwent an operation last Thursday in the Centre County hospital for the amputation of his right leg. Mr. Ruhl, who has been under treatment both at Bellefonte and in Philadelphia hospitals for some time, has been suffering from a leg injury since he was nine years old, when injured while playing.

Dr. Joseph P. Ritenour, director of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society head of the Pennsylvania State College Health Service, will speak on "Tuberculosis Prevention in the Educational Institutions of Pennsylvania" before the January meeting of the Centre County Medical Society at the Centre County hospital this (Thursday) evening.

John Thomas Delaney, who was mysteriously absent from his home at the same time a young lady down the valley didn't appear at the family table for a few days, gave rise to a report the couple had eloped. The Reporter is assured the rumor is incorrect, but the whereabouts and the mission of the young people continue to remain unsolved.

The deadline for paying winter wheat insurance premiums for the 1932 crop has been fixed as January 31, unless the premium notice expires after that date. More than 3,500 wheat growers in Pennsylvania have applied for insurance which guarantees 50 or 75 per cent of the average yield against all unavoidable losses. Throughout the States 270,000 farmers are carrying this insurance.

The flock of New Hampshire red chickens reared by Mr. and Mrs. John Rudy of near town are making a record for large size egg productions. One of the eggs carefully checked weighed a trifle over four ounces and measured six and one-half and eight inches around and lengthwise, respectively. This particular egg is only one of an unusually large size produced by the Rudy hens during the early winter.

Harry Frankenberg was a passenger guest of his son-in-law, Arnold Matson, and Mrs. Matson of Phillipsburg, on a trip to Centre Hall where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Fye. Mr. Matson is a concrete finisher and has been employed on the construction work on the Penn State campus. While engaged in the college town he is stopping with Mr. Frankenberg, who has been a resident of State College for more than twenty years. Mrs. Frankenberg was also one of the party to visit in town.

Miss Jean Rishel and Miss Grace Burrage, senior at Penn State in the school of home economics, are the two Penn State students selected to enter Merrie Palmer School of Home Economics, in Detroit, Mich., where they will remain for the second semester opening in February. The Detroit school is one outstanding in its class, and with the young ladies named above will be two students on the honor roll selected from other colleges. The selection of these students is based on their scholastic standing throughout their college life. Miss Rishel is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rishel of Farmers Mills.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Donald, one of the Breen twin boys, is ill.

Mrs. G. O. Benner has been ill for several days.

Miss Olive Brown is a guest at the Odenkirk home. She is a Penn State student.

Cherry and Arlene, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Corman, are back to school again after an illness covering several days.

Harold Bohn, whose illness has been mentioned from week to week since the latter part of December, continues to improve at his home in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Roy S. Jamison entertained at bridge, Saturday night, four tables of teachers and wives of teachers associated with Mr. Jamison in the State College public schools.

W. E. Ralston of State College, a brother of G. W. Ralston of Centre Hall, who underwent a major operation in a Williamsport hospital, is back to his home and is making recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Spyster motored to Huntingdon on Friday where they visited with the latter's sister, Mrs. Samuel Shultz of Martinsburg, who is a hospital patient, expecting to undergo a goiter operation.

Feed the birds. With the earth covered with snow they have little chance to find even a sparse ration. Even the lousy sparrow and despised starling in a year's time work to the benefit of mankind. Again, feed the birds.

David Lawrence, the columnist, himself an anti-New Dealer, says the opposition to the President as the public views it is largely personal, notwithstanding the efforts of the opposition forces to make them appear impersonal.

Miss Evelyn Colyer, located in New York City, joined an excursion to Williamsport on Sunday, and from there came with her brother, Russell Colyer, and wife, to Centre Hall where the day was spent at the Colyer home. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Colyer and the latter's mother, Mrs. Shaw, all of Lewistown, were also at the Colyer home.

Patty Boozer entertained her Sunday school class at a birthday party Thursday evening. The following were present: Mrs. Wm. Campbell, teacher; Nellie Knarr, Ellen Bradford, Joyce Bradford, Miriam Brooks, Eunice Blazer, Agnes Delaney, Mary Delaney, Martha Lingle, Kathryn Relsch, Betty Searson, Geraldine Rockey, Alice Slack, Betty Slack, Beverly Vonada.

ATTEND INAUGURATION AND FARM SHOW

William Hanna, Chester Wagner, Muth Bailey, Carl Burkholder and William Weaver on Monday went to the Farm Show in Harrisburg. They led the way to the big arena from this section.

Others who attended the show or inauguration form here were:

W. F. Rishel, Miss Jean Rishel, a Penn State senior. Also, two or three girl friends of Miss Rishel, students at Penn State; D. W. Bradford, C. H. Kimbrell, James Searson, Richard Brooks, John H. Knarr, James Brooks, Wm. P. Campbell, Noah Weaver, W. L. Jacobs, Miss Margaret Jacobs, C. W. Boozer, Wm. Boozer, Jr., Mrs. John Stoner, Miss Savilla Ishler, Mrs. Blanche Fye, Wm. Reese, Edw. Durst, G. O. Benner, R. M. Smith.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. William B. Fiedler takes this means to extend thanks to friends and neighbors for kind assistance during her recent bereavement; also for use of autos.

ACHING COLDS

Relieve Their DISTRESS This Easy, Quick Way!

To bring speedy relief from the discomfort of chest colds, muscular rheumatic aches and pains due to colds—you need more than "just a salve"—use a stimulating "counter-irritant" like good old warming, soothing Musterole. It penetrates the surface skin breaking up local congestion and pain resulting from colds. Even better than a mustard plaster—Musterole has been used by millions for over 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. In three strengths: Regular, Children's (mild) and Extra Strong, 40¢. Approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau. All druggists.

JUST HUMANS

By GENE CARR

The Daredevil

PUBLIC AUCTION Penns Valley Sales Barn, CENTRE HALL PENNA. Tuesday, Jan. 24 -- at 1:00 P. M.

Fresh & Springer Cows

BEEF CATTLE, HOGS, CALVES, SHEEP, PIGS SHOATS AND POULTRY

Will have Some Acclimated Horses

Dealers and Farmers, if you have something good, be sure and bring it in for this sale. We try to please both buyer and owner.

E. M. SMITH, Auct. S. T. REIGEL, Owner-Mgr.

Smith Brothers Cough Drops (Black or Menthol, 5¢) are the only drops containing Vitamin A

This is the vitamin that raises the resistance of the mucous membranes of the nose and throat to cold infections.

ENTERTAINED AT BRIDGE

Mrs. J. W. Bradford and Mrs. J. S. Boozer entertained the following at seven tables of bridge at the latter's home Saturday evening: Mrs. F. P. Geary, Mrs. J. F. Wetzel, Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mrs. Harry Potter, Mrs. Samuel Grove, Mrs. Edgar Miller, Mrs. George Stover, Mrs. H. R. White, Mrs. C. H. Light, Mrs. R. W. Noll, Mrs. F. M. Fisher, Mrs. Chester Spyster, Mrs. John Wert, Jr., Mrs. Edward Durst, Mrs. David Graybill, Mrs. Daniel Daup, Mrs. Warren Hoan, Mrs. Daniel Bloom, Mrs. William Campbell, Mrs. Albert Emery, Doris Moltz, Elizabeth Bartholomew, Jenni Thomas, Laura Runkle, Elizabeth Royer, Mrs. Robert Neff.

HEAVY HARNESS

Oiled and Repaired

HEMPHILL'S NOW

Corner Allegheny & Bishop Sts. BELLEFONTE, PA.

PUBLIC SALE CARLOAD SO. DAKOTA

HORSES & MULES

At HOTEL BARN, CENTRE HALL MONDAY, JAN'Y 23

Beginning at 1:00 O'CLOCK P.M.

2 Roan Geldings, 7 yrs., weight 3400; 2 Bay Mares (bred 6 & 8 yrs., weight 3000; 2 Sorrels, mare & gelding, wt. 3000, aged 3 & 4 yrs.; 2 Blacks, mare and gelding, 5 & 6 yrs., wt. 2900; 2 Grey Geldings, 4 & 5, wt. 2500; 2 Black Geldings, 5 & 6 yrs., 3200; Blue Roan mare, 4 yrs., 1600 lbs.; Bay Gelding, 6 yrs., 1700 lbs.; Grey Gelding, 7 yrs., 1600; Black Jack Mule, 8 yrs., 1350; Mule Colt; balance of load equally as good. — As this is the first load this year I have tried to ship a load of horses that feed out and make money for the buyer while they work. Come in and look them over. Buy your horses now and have them ready for spring work.

This load has been vaccinated for shipping fever.

E. M. SMITH, Auctioneer.

WILLIAM GRUENWALD

Shoe Sale

FROMM'S

450 PAIRS 25 STYLES

LADIES' VITALITY

$3.95 Pair Reg. $7.75

ONE LOT ...

Formerly at $6.50

Ladies' Shoes $1.00 Pair

114 E. College Ave. State College

FROMM'S

Opp. Old Main State College

Enjoy Better Light Tonight with I. E. S. LAMPS

BUY NOW and have ...

THE TONIC for TIRED EYES!

STOP in at the dealers' stores and see the wonderful I. E. S. lamps that they are now offering—the most popular lamps ever made, because they are beautiful and provide good, restful light for the eyes.

Sales of I. E. S. lamps have been growing by leaps and bounds. Prices were never so favorable. Now is the time to act.

Be among the early buyers. By doing so you not only make sure of getting the type of lamp you want, but also the right style.

See Your Favorite ELECTRICAL Dealer